MRS. SPEDDY SUES FOR DIVORCE

HUSBAND IS CRUEL, SHE ALLEGES

Numerous Charges Are Made by Woman School Director

The Wealthy Agent Mistreated Son and Guests, She Asserts

Mrs. Henrietta Theresa Speddy, member of the Alameda Board of Education and prominent clubwoman, today filed suit for divorce against her hubsand, Thomas H. Speddy, a wealthy manufacturer of San Francisco, whom she charges in fifty specific allegations of extreme cruelty and selfishness for a period of the last ten years. They have been married twenty-four years.

Reciting in detail the history of their domestic intranquilities covering the last decade, Mrs. Speddy sets forth that at the time she married Speddy in Portland on March 5, 1890, he "had no property and was involved in debt," while she was "an educated, refined and sensitive orphan girl, unused to labor," and that she cheerfully undertook all the management of his household and his four children by a former wife.

That was at a time when the plaintiff says she was "much in love with the defendant." For seven years she acted as his bookkeeper and stenographer while he got on his feet in establishing a business agency which during their long married life has made them wealthy.

Mrs. Speddy asks for a division of their community property and for $100 per month support for herself, a daughter 18 years of age, who is at the university, and a minor son, Kenyon S. Speddy, 16 years of age. The family home is at 855 Cedar street, Alameda, the scene of many unhappy episodes, Mrs. Speddy alleges.

WANTED TOO MUCH.

That her husband insisted upon all the cream of everything, in reality and literally, is one of the charges she makes against him.

Once, she says, when she thoughtlessly stirred the cream pitcher, he became angry and ordered that she never do it again.

When Mrs. Speddy invited her political friends to their home her husband designated them as "cattle," and, besides openly insulting them, she says, told her that he did not want them around.

In spite of the fact that for years after their marriage she had supported her husband and his own children through the proceeds of the sale of her wedding gifts and jewelry, Mrs. Speddy says that he was unappreciative and that continuously he has treated her in a sullen and snarling manner.

His animosity toward her extended to their children and to their neighbors' children, plaintiff recites, dwelling upon a number of instances wherein her husband's temper was manifested in public.

ORDERED VISITOR AROUND.

Once when some boys were playing baseball in the street the ball was knocked upon their premises, with the result that the youngster in seeking to recover it was "lifted by the neck from the pavement and severely kicked."

On another occasion a young lady visitor to their home was ordered off the lawn.

Again, when Mrs. Speddy went automobile riding with her daughter and a young man acquaintance of hers, the defendant is said to have sarcasticaly asked the plaintiff if the young man was paying court to her or to their daughter. After that, on an occasion when Speddy met the young man in church and the latter extended his hand in greeting, he was met with a "cold stare," greatly to his embarrassment and that of the plaintiff.

Another of the alleged peculiarities of Speddy was his insistence in whistling to his wife when he wanted her for anything instead of calling her by name.

During the last three years in particular, Mrs Speddy relates, her husband has been accustomed, "both when dining alone with his family and when guests were present, to insist upon being helped first to food,

The Indians Are Driven Across Country From Refuge

Band Under Fugitive Eludes Capture in Utah

BULLETIN.

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 24.—United States Marshal Nebeker telegraphed the attorney-general late today that Tse-Ne-Gat, the Piute Indian charged with murder, had escaped from his entrenchment west of Bluff, Utah, after displaying a flag of truce and offering to surrender.

By Associated Press.

DURANGO, Colo., Feb. 24.—Tse-Ne-Gat (Everett Hatch), the Piute Indian, whose efforts to elude arrest by Federal officers on the charge of murder have, since Sunday, resulted in the death of five Indians and a member of United States Marshal Nebeker's posse, was still at large early today, according to reports received here from Bluff, Utah.

Marshal Nebeker and the main body of his force were reported entrenched in the rocks west of that place, and the fugitive Indian, with his father, "Old Polk," and their band of renegade Piutes who have been aiding them in their fight with the Government officers, were believed to be somewhere in the vicinity of Butler Wash, about eight miles west of Bluff.

SCOUT IS DETERMINED.

Scouts have been sent out by Marshal Nebeker in an effort to locate the Indians, and, according to reports from Bluff, the veteran Indian fighter

ACRES SINK NEAR MT. LASSEN

By Associated Press.

REDDING, Feb. 24.—News was brought here today of a severe earthquake Sunday night in Twin valley, thirty miles east of here and twenty miles north of Lassen Peak. The ground has been cracked in all directions and the home of Ivan Sampey has been tilted five feet out of plumb by the sinking of the earth.

Large rocks, which heretofore protruded, have entirely disappeared and new springs have appeared. An acre of ground sank sixty feet. The snapping and roar of the earth's crust has been likened to the roar of a heavy wind.

The temblor lasted two minutes and affected the entire valley. Much damage was done on William Morgan's place, where a month ago there were earth movements following an eruption of Lassen Peak. It is not known whether the volcano is now in eruption as the peak is obscured by heavy rain clouds.

Will Sell Blooms at Big Benefit Affair

There'll be but little fruit on the famous fruit trees of Oakland and Piedmont's fashionable gardens this year. The luscious peaches and apricots and the delicate plums that of yore have hung on the trees in the Havens gardens, the old mansions of Fruitvale and other noted private grounds, are doomed. Oakland's fruit is to be sacrificed for charity.

Large portions of the blossoms of the famous old trees were removed today. They will be sold by society women this week for the benefit of the Associated Charities. For the first time in years the noted fruit trees of the Oakland hills will bear no crops.

The Havens gardens, the C. C. Clay home, Level Lea, famed Fruitvale grounds, the Angus orchards in Hayward, and several other noted gardens have been looted by Oakland society women planning one of the most novel charity projects ever held in the city. The blossoms are to be sold by fair flower girls at the Mackay furniture store on Fourteenth street, together

Six Secret Lines Are Grounds for Divorce

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 24.—Charges made in six lines of a divorce complaint, which were closely guarded by the court, won a decree today for Mrs. Vivian Caples, wife of Joseph Allen Caples, son of the late millionaire mayor of El Paso, Tex.

"Read lines 22 to 27 of the complaint," said the court to Mrs. Caples. "Are those charges true?"

"Yes," responded Mrs. Caples.

"Decree granted," added the court, and the papers, sealed when filed, were resealed and filed away. The court also granted Mrs. Caples $130 a month for herself and child.

400 SOLDIERS KILLED IN MUTINY

By Associated Press.

MANILA, Feb. 24.—Four hundred members of the mutinous Indian regiment which revolted at Singapore on February 15 have been killed, as well as seven German prisoners from the detention camp, who joined the natives when offered their freedom, according to the reports of the uprising brought here by passengers from Singapore. The mutineers are said to have killed their officers, save the colonel, and then attacked civilians, several of whom were killed, including one woman.

The revolt began without warning. Half the Fifth Light Infantry of Bengalese, on their way to Egypt, numbering 400, suddenly attacked and subdued the other half. Reports brought here are to the effect that the rebelious troops killed none of the Hindu soldiers who remained loyal, but they did kill some other officers, including British and native. They then attacked the houses of civilians, according to the stories, killing men, but sparing the women and children, who sought refuge on the transport Nile, lying in the harbor.

TEMPT PRISONERS.

The mutineers offered freedom to all Germans in the detention camp who would join them. Only seven of the prisoners accepted this proposal, the others preferring to remain where they were.

Manager Gave Ring, Is Girl's Defense

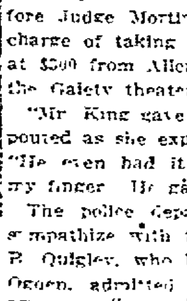

Irene Pinkerton, 17 or 18 years of age, is pretty and a blonde. Also she has witching ways. She was examined before Judge Mortimer Smith today on a charge of taking a diamond ring valued at $500 from Allen E. King, manager of the Gaiety theater.

"Mr. King gave me the ring," the girl pouted as she explained to Judge Smith. "He even had it altered in size to fit my finger. He gave me other presents."

The police department is inclined to sympathize with the girl. Inspector W. P. Quigley, who brought her back from Ogden, admitted that she was a good prisoner. She could not be tried in Judge Samuels' court because in his private capacity as an attorney he had assisted her in getting a divorce recently.

Miss Pinkerton testified that she was under 18 years of age. King stated that he had reason to believe that she was older. The case was continued by Judge Smith today that the girl's age may be ascertained. In case she is under 18 she will be certified to the juvenile court for trial.

Transport and Merchant Vessel Also Blown Up by German Submarines or Mines Near Coast

By Associated Press.

LONDON, Feb. 24.—The official information bureau gave out a statement today that the Clan McNaughton, an armed merchant cruiser, is missing. The vessel was last heard of February 3d, and it is feared that she has been lost. The text of the bureau's information follows:

"The secretary of the admiralty regrets to announce that H. M. S. Clan McNaughton, an armored merchant cruiser, Commander Robert Jeffreys, R. N., has been missing since February 3d, and it is feared that the vessel has been lost.

"An unsuccessful search has been made and wreckage supposed to be portions of this ship has since been discovered.

"The last news from the Clan McNaughton was made in the early morning of February 3d, and it is feared that she was lost during the bad weather which prevailed at that time."

Two hundred and eighty men lost their lives when the Clan McNaughton went down.

James Answers Suit of Muir's Daughter

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 24.—Answering the suit instituted by John Muir's daughter, Mrs. Wanda Hanna, to prevent publication of letters written by the famous naturalist who died here some weeks ago, George Wharton James, the explorer, filed in the superior court today application to publish the letters without the consent of Mrs. Hanna. The suit was then ordered off the court calendar.

James procured the Muir letters from a Mrs. Carr, a cousin of the naturalist. They covered a period of thirty years. Mrs Hanna did not contest James' right to physical possession of the letters, but disputed the right to publish them.

Mrs. Hanna, who is administratrix of her father's estate, said that the naturalist had expressed a wish before his death that the letters should not be published.

DISTRICT ATTORNEYS CONSIDER COMPENSATION LAW AND STATE

Prosecutors From Thirty Counties at Session Hear Counsel for Commission Discuss Status of Public Employes

Thirty counties of the state were represented at the second day's session of the annual convention of the District Attorneys' Association of California, being held in the Blue room in the Hotel Oakland. The topic coming in for the most general discussion was the Workmen's Compensation Act, and followed the reading of a paper on the liability of the county and municipality under the terms thereof, by Carle M. Bradley, counsel to the Industrial Accident Commission of the State of California.

The questions which have arisen with reference to the liabilities of counties and cities under the terms of this act, and the great variety and volume of the problems presented for solution, prevented the treatment of the subject by Mr. Bradley on lines other than the broader aspects of general liability.

STATE EMPLOYES.

The gentleman is of the opinion there can be little doubt that it was the intention of the Legislature to bring within the protection of the compensation statute all persons employed by the state and each political subdivision thereof. He quoted in support of his contention Sec. 13 of the statute, which specifically asserts that sections 12 to 35, inclusive, shall be construed to mean that the state, county and city and county, school district and all public corporations therein and private individuals and firms having any person in service under any appointment or contract of hire is liable under the terms of the act. This section, in the opinion of Mr. Bradley, covers the liability of the political subdivision to elective offices and entitles such employes to protection under the statute. He supplemented this opinion, however, with the statement that the question is one upon which the courts have not yet rendered a decision.

PEACE OFFICERS' TROUBLES.

"The most numerous class of cases of public liability which the commission has been called upon to decide arises out of assaults upon peace officers," said Mr. Bradley. "The question, at the threshold, to be determined in cases of this class being whether or not assault, in any case, may be an accident."

In this connection, he referred to the case of Emmert vs. the trustees of the Preston School of Industry, in which a watchman employed therein was badly beaten by three of the inmates, wherein the commission awarding compensation laid down the following rule:

"While in general, it seems to the commission that a strict definition of the word 'accident,' according to the common understanding of the word, would not admit an assault to be an accident, it is plain that the Legislature intended that all public peace officers, as public employes, should be entitled to the benefits of the compensation law where the injury or death is suffered incidental to the employment of such officer in the course of his employment, and arising out of his employment, and the commission holds, in deciding this case, that such injury or death by assault is accidental."

LINE OF DEPARTURE.

A second class of questions with reference to liability to peace officers, the speaker opined, were not so susceptible of an easy solution. That is: Upon whom does the liability to compensate for accidental injury or death rest? In instances where the county government act defines deputy sheriffs as county employes and fixes their salaries, the speaker was under no apprehension as to where the responsibility for compensation lay in case of accident or death. "But," said he, "there are hundreds of deputies employed by sheriffs invested with official authority whose status cannot be so easily fixed.

"It would seem that there can not be found any of the elements of a contract of hire between the county and such deputies. The sheriff himself designates them; he employes them; he agrees with them upon the remuneration for their services; he has the direction of their services and it would seem that in most cases the arrangement made by the sheriff is distinguished by all the elements of a contract to hire. This view of the matter finds support by reference to the provisions of section 4250 of the political statute with which you are familiar.

VOICES A CAUTION.

"In order to identify the employer of deputies in any official classification it is necessary to refer to the County Government Act in each case. For the benefit of various county officials this reference should be promptly made, for the reason that there may accrue, at any time, a ruinous liability upon such principal officer. This is especially true as to peace officers. The county may well be considered able to carry its insurance against city liability but no public official can safely do so."

This feature of Mr. Bradley's address called forth a protracted discussion, and numerous questions relative thereto were propounded. One of the most interesting had to do with the personal liability of a sheriff under the terms of the act. In replying, the speaker referred to the sheriff of Placer county, as a case in point.

The sheriff of Placer county receives a salary in excess of $6000 a year, but no provision is made for the employment of deputies by the county, the understanding being that in consideration of the salary paid the sheriff he shall, at his own expense, employ such deputies as may be necessary. Mr. Bradley contends that in such instances the sheriff is personally responsible for compensation in case of the injury or death of such deputies while engaged in their duties.

BANQUET THIS EVENING.

Tonight the delegates to the convention and their wives will be the guests of honor at a banquet in the Hotel Oakland, and on Friday night will attend a dance given in their honor at the same hostelry. Tomorrow the prosecutors will not meet in convention, but will attend the Panama-Pacific Exposition as the guests of the district attorney's office of the city and county of San Francisco.

Friday morning the delegates will assemble for the final session, at which time officers for the ensuing year will be elected and a meeting place for next year be chosen.

At the close of Bradley's remarks Christopher Ruess, county probation officer, was interrogated by the prosecutors on the subject of probation work in this county. Following Ruess, Probation Officer McGee of San Francisco read a paper on the work there. The address planned by Probation Officer Koford of San Francisco was not made, he being unable to attend.

Storm-Demoralized Wires Being Repaired

By Associated Press.

KANSAS CITY, Feb. 24.—The telegraph and telephone communication situation throughout Kansas, Northern Oklahoma and Western Missouri, demoralized by wet snow Tuesday and Tuesday night, was slightly improved today. As communication is established reports show the damage to have been far greater than was at first supposed. Hundreds of poles were snapped off and the wires rendered useless.

Accused Musician Hangs Self in Jail

By Associated Press.

REDLANDS, Feb. 24.—Just before the time set for his arraignment on the charge of having assaulted a 6-year-old boy, A. Narducci, well-known as a soloist with a number of brass bands at various California coast resorts, hanged himself in jail. His body was found by an officer who was sent to bring him to court. Narducci had used his shirt for a rope.

EXTRADITION IS CHIEF PROBLEM IN SCHMIDT CASE

DIST.-ATTY. WOOLWINE.

Los Angeles Prosecutor Tells Difficulties Encountered

"My chief concern at this time," declared Thomas Lee Woolwine, district attorney of Los Angeles county, today, in discussing the present status of the Caplan and Schmidt extradition proceedings for alleged complicity in the Los Angeles Times dynamiting outrage, "is to get the men into California and the jurisdiction of the Los Angeles county courts. Pending that accomplishment I am not giving much thought to the details of their prosecution. That will come later.

"Tracy C. Becker, a deputy in my office, is now en route to Port Orchard, Wash., for the purpose of returning Caplan to Los Angeles. He is armed with extradition papers and is accompanied by S. A. Woodford, a detective in the district attorney's office at Los Angeles, and by W. M. Ingram, a police officer of that city.

SCHMIDT REARRESTED.

"As yet I have received no return from New York upon our application for the extradition of Schmidt, although I note by yesterday's dispatches from that point the release of the prisoner by the local courts and his immediate rearrest as a fugitive from justice upon application from Los Angeles. A. H. Van Cott, deputy district attorney of Los Angeles county; Captain J. D. Hunter, chief of detectives in the district attorney's office, and H. I. Barring, also a detective in my office, went East to bring the fugitive to Los Angeles.

"I am not advised at this time to just what extent Caplan and Schmidt will fight extradition, but I am advised that they may resist the efforts being made to bring them to trial in this state. It is for that reason the two deputy district attorneys are accompanying the detectives.

"Both Schmidt and Caplan have admitted their identity, and were it not for the fact that they may fight extradition it would not have been necessary for legal representatives from the district attorney's office to attend their removal from their present places of incarceration to the county jail in Los Angeles."

Plural Marriage Bad for Race, Says Judge

CINCINNATI, O., Feb. 24.—George E. Brimhall, president of the Brigham Young Coeducational College of Utah, a delegate to the National Educational Association in session here, came out in favor of polygamy for the advancement of the race. In an address he declared that "strict neutrality" in the family as promoted by a plurality of wives maintains peace in the family of a many-wived husband, while a singularity of wives more often causes family discord and divorce.

That President Brimhall advocates a theory that would tend to set the race backward is the opinion of Superior Judge W. H. Donahue, who, in speaking of the remarks made by the college professor, said:

"As woman has been emancipated the world has grown better. History tells us that it was not so long ago that woman was denied higher education. Now she is admitted to all of our institutions, and where is there a man today that would deny her the right of education?

"Any declaration in favor of polygamy is a declaration in favor of a step backward. Such a theory as plural marriage is entirely out of the question at this day and age. It would be retarding the development of the human race."

Hurt Going to Work; Denied Compensation

By Associated Press.

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 24. — The State Industrial Accident Commission has advised Mrs. Anita Brewer, private secretary to Frank C. Jordan, secretary of state, that she is not entitled to compensation under the workmen's compensation act for the injuries she sustained in being struck by an automobile while going to work.

The commission ruled that no compensation can be collected for accidents which occur while the victim is on the way to or from work unless the accident happens on the premises of employment, or unless the victim has been sent on some errand which might carry him out of his usual course.

loyal soon organized itself and started out to attack the mutineers. The troops were joined by Europeans of all ages, who offered their services as volunteers. In the running fight which followed four-fifths of the revolting Indians are said to have been killed, and it is believed only about 100 men remain in the country surrounding Singapore. The troops which were attempting to quell the mutiny were reinforced the following day by sailors landed from French, British and Japanese warships. The revolt began at a time when there were no war vessels in port.

Other reports received here from Singapore are to the effect that there are [illegible] of unrest among the natives in Rangoon, Colombo and different parts of Java.

An official report given out at London last night by the bureau of information said that the revolt of the native troops was due to jealousy and dissatisfaction concerning promotions. It was stated that in "a serious riot" which followed there was a regrettable loss of life. The casualties given were twenty-five persons killed, including eight officers, and others wounded.

Communication issued later by the colonial offices said thirty-five persons had been killed, fourteen of whom were residents of Singapore. The statement added that some of the rioters were killed and that a large number surrendered or were captured.

COUNCIL OPPOSES WOODYARD FOES

Reason for opposing the referendum on the purchase of a site for a municipal shelter for the unemployed were adopted by the city council today. Edward Dalton filed a declaration last week with the city clerk that he intended circulating petitions to force the submission of the proposed purchase of a site to the voters by referendum. Dalton opposes the purchase of the site because he fears that the erection of a municipal shelter and employment office would depreciate property values.

It is purposed to purchase a site on the north side of Eighth street, east of Harrison, and to erect a two-story brick structure to house the men who are out of work and penniless. The men who are given shelter are willing to work, and are allowed to cut wood, which is sold to the community, in return for food and shelter. The present shelter is an old stable, which is woefully inadequate, is a recognized firetrap and a disgrace to the city.

The proposed site is in a business district, and is flanked by old wooden structures, inhabited, for the most part, by Chinese and Japanese. It was the best of forty sites investigated for the purpose by the municipal woodyard commission, headed by Robert Leet.

It requires only 5 per cent of the number of voters who went to the polls at the last regular municipal election to force a referendum at the time of a general election. This is 1079 signatures at the present time, or less than 1 per cent of the registered vote.

The reasons adopted by the city council for opposing the attempt to block the erection of a shelter for the unemployed in Eighth street are as follows:

The municipal woodyard has been conducted at its present location for three years in a quiet, orderly manner; its management has been efficient; no complaint against its existence, influence or operation has been made; and it has afforded a satisfactory means of assisting large numbers of the unemployed population of the city. The men aided are neither criminals nor idlers, and only such are afforded lodgings as earn the same by productive work. No opposition from retail dealers has resulted.

Similar institutions exist in the principal American and European cities, as a recognized municipal function and with beneficial results.

Removal is necessitated by the inadequacy of the present accommodations for the continuance of the work. The new location selected was chosen after careful examination of more than forty sites submitted and was deemed the most desirable by a committee of competent and disinterested experts and the city council. It is conveniently located in a distinctly business section of the city, an attractive building will be erected, the area of land is ample to permit the conduct and expansion of the work and the price is reasonable.

The purposed purchase involves no violation of the charter and will not appreciably increase taxation.

Aged Couple Seek Marriage License

Penheth is a widower and his bride was a widow. Penheth recently came to Oakland and the couple will make their home here, they declared.

POLICEMAN UNDER CHARGES.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 24.—Patrolman Patrick J. Murray of the Richmond station, may lose his star as the result of a charge of intoxication preferred against him today by Captain Kelly. It is claimed that he was in an inebriated condition when he reported for duty yesterday. On December 14 Murray was fined $100 by the police commission for being intoxicated.

MRS. SPEDDY SUES WEALTHY HUSBAND

or being first served, selecting the best and daintiest of everything, invariably taking the top portion of the cream for his own use at once."

In June, 1912, the couple came near to separation, Mrs. Speddy further relates, and on that occasion her husband said that he would be "willing to arrange for a separation in twenty-four hours, you can leave."

Then when Mrs. Speddy approached her husband with the plea, "Can't we love each other, just as we used to?" that he turned away and in a disgusted ton remarked: "Oh, don't talk about it."

On occasions when Mrs. Speddy wanted to go to the theater she says her husband always told her to buy the tickets and that he would repay her for them. After the show when she asked for the money, she alleges that he refused to give it to her, making it necessary for her to draw upon her own pin money.

ANGRY AT SON.

Once when their son was a small boy Mrs. Speddy tells that he was laughing at funny faces made by their colored cook behind Speddy's back and that the father became angry with the boy, refusing to let him explain the cause of his mirth.

On Christmas Day in 1910, during an exhibition of indoor fireworks, Mrs. Speddy complains that her husband became angry with the boy and struck him over the head. In addition to that he even went so far as to repudiate the son and to refuse allow him to take music lessons. After that he cancelled two life insurance policies because they were too expensive, his wife declares.

Speddy is president of the T. H. Speddy & Company, manufacturers' agents, of 95 Second street, San Francisco. In 1906 Mrs. Speddy says her husband cancelled 1200 shares of stock in the concern which he had previously presented to her.

According to the complaint, Speddy is worth more than $50,000 in his business and property holdings.

The couple finally separated on December 31st last after a continuous quarrel for ten years, Mrs. Speddy declares.

The company with which Speddy is connected is local agent for the Carnegie Steel Company. Recently Mrs. Speddy secured from her husband a deed to their Alameda property and she is said to have exchanged this for a ranch near Fresno, where she now is residing under a sixty days' leave of absence from her duties as school director. Mrs. Speddy was formerly president of the Alameda Center of the Women's Civil League, resigning therefrom some time ago.

FORMER LAW CASE.

Mrs. Harry Knight of Alameda is a step-daughter of Mrs. Speddy.

Mrs. Speddy is defendant in a suit for $10,000 alleged slander filed against her by T. H. Mills, an Alameda saloonkeeper, against whom Mrs. Speddy, as a member of the Board of Education, made serious charges at the time the City Council had before it the application of Mills for a renewal of his liquor license.

Mrs. Speddy filed an affidavit with the council to the effect that she had seen two minor girls go into Mills' saloon and the proprietor retaliated by suing her for alleged slander. The matter is still pending in the local courts.

Explains Revolver; Accident Is Result

While demonstrating the mechanism of an automatic revolver to his cousin, Folmer Pedersen, aged 15 years, Harvey Hendrickson, aged 19 years, accidentally discharged the weapon and the bullet passed through the right shoulder of the younger boy. Pedersen was rushed by the police to the receiving hospital, where the wound was dressed.

The accident occurred at 99½ Fifty-fourth street. Hendrickson lives at Hayward and was visiting his cousin. Both youths declared that the shooting was purely accidental. The affair was investigated by Inspectors McSorley, Drew and McCarthy.

Weather Prophet Not In Optimistic Mood

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 24.—A moderate storm central over Vancouver island and moving southeastward is responsible for general rain throughout California this morning. Up to 5 a. m. the showers had not extended as far south as the lower San Joaquin valley and no precipitation was reported from either Fresno or San Luis Obispo. The forecast, however, is for rain tonight and tomorrow for the entire State. There is just a possibility of the storm moving eastward and giving clear weather some time tomorrow, but by reason of almost unprecedented conditions and long wet spells, the weather bureau is not over optimistic on the subject of clear skies.

The heaviest rain fell in the upper Sacramento valley. Orland received .90, Red Bluff .98, Sacramento .42. On Mt. Tamalpais there was .64 and in San Francisco .25.

TURKEY IN DIRE NEED.

BOSTON, Feb. 24.—Widespread and increasing need, due to business stagnation and other war conditions throughout Turkey, are reported in a cablegram to the American board of commissioners for foreign missions from its treasurer at Constantinople, W. W. Peet. Typhus and typhoid fever are said to be spreading rapidly.

Storm Causes Crash; Seven Persons Hurt

By Associated Press.

ALBERT LEE, Minn., Feb. 24.—In a blinding snow storm, a Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul passenger train crashed head-on into a freight train three miles west of here last night, injuring seven persons. One of the injured, Engineer David Jones, of Austin, Minnesota, the only one of the engine crew who did not jump to safety, probably will die. Although on a straight track, the blizzard made it impossible for the enginemen to see the freight train until too late to avert a collision. The injured were brought to Albert Lee.

Cabral Resigns; Will Not Support Villa

By Associated Press.

DOUGLAS, Ariz., Feb. 24.—General Juan Cabral, sent to Sonora some time ago to take command of the military forces of that state, resigned today, saying that he could not support General Francisco Villa as the supreme Mexican chief. Several days ago Cabral had a conference with Governor Jose Maytorena, supposed to be a Villa adherent at Naco, as a result of which it was announced that all chiefs had reached accord in the support of Villa.

RUSSIA CONCEDES LOSS OF CORPS

owo the Russians crossed the Bobr river in two places. Near Sztabin they have already been driven back. Near Krazny*borg* the engagement continues.

"Near Przasnysz 1200 Russians were made prisoners and two cannon were taken.

AUSTRIANS AGAIN RETREAT

By Associated Press.

LONDON, Feb. 24. — Austrian troops and artillery have evacuated the positions they occupied on the Bukowina frontier, across the Pruth river from Mamornita, Rumania, says a dispatch to the Daily Mail from Mamornita dated Monday. The re*turning forces are said to have moved* back to Czarnowitz because of the accurate Russian artillery fire.

The Austrian fear, the Mail's correspondent says, is that the Russians are preparing a new offensive in the direction of Czarnowitz and there are no signs of an attempt by the Austrians to make a further advance. The roads are deep in slush and mud because of a thaw.

ENTIRE CORPS IS DESTROYED

By Associated Press.

PETROGRAD, Feb. 24.—The desperate resistance offered by the Twentieth Corps of the Russian army to the advance of the Germans in East Prussia after it had been cut off from the Tenth army is described in an official communication issued here last night. The report is based upon information received from various individuals belonging to this corps who managed to escape.

The Russians claim that although these troops were surrounded by a German army in the territory of Goldap and Suwalki, they inflicted heavy losses upon their antagonists. They repelled attacks on four fronts "until their strength was completely exhausted." The communication follows:

"The communication of February 21st which described the unusually difficult position of parts of our army corps during the retreat in East Prussia applied to portions of the Twentieth Corps commanded by Lieutenant General Bulgakoff, comprising the Twelfth division and three reserve regiments. Communication between this corps and the Tenth army was broken on February 13th and the corps found itself surrounded in the country between Goldap and Suwalki by a German army which constantly increased in numbers.

HEROIC BATTLING.

"This corps fought heroically until February 22d against an enemy which outnumbered it several times. During these days the troops marched about thirty-two miles, continuing to force a passage for themselves toward the southeastern part of the forest of Augustowo.

"According to accounts given by prisoners, our corps inflicted heavy losses upon the Germans who attempted to bar the way, particularly in the immediate lake region and the forest near Ghita.

"Reports just given out by various individuals belonging to this corps who managed to escape show the corps was ready to fight until its strength was completely exhausted, gallantly repelling attacks on four fronts, retaining its artillery and taking with it many German prisoners.

"Severe fighting continues on the right banks of the Bobr and Narew rivers. German detachments which took the offensive near Ossowetz on February 21st were forced back by the fire of our artillery.

"Fighting has been in progress north of Lomza on the roads to Radzilowo, Artchoutchina and Kolno. In spite of attacks by strong forces we hold Jedwabno.

"A German attack along the Kolno-Szczuczyn Road was supported during the fight of February 22d by armored automobiles and was unusually intense.

ON OTHER FRONTS.

"The German offensive continues in the Przasnysz district. Three attacks upon Przasnysz were repulsed, our armored automobiles assisting greatly in this respect.

"Their fire decimated the Germans at a distance of seventy-five paces. On the road to Plonzk some villages changed hands several times. South of the Moghely Farm, on the left bank of the Vistula, we exploded mines under a German trench, occupying the dugouts in the remainder of the German trenches. We captured three machine guns, trench mortars and bombs and also took a number of prisoners. The losses to the Germans caused by the mine explosion numbered 500.

"In the Carpathians, the Austrians bombarded a convent south of Mezolaborcz with twelve-inch mortars. We repulsed persistent Austrian attacks in the region of Mikov, Smolnika and Tiszovica and inflicted enormous losses upon the enemy in the region of Myto Kozlourka. Austrian troops have taken the places of the Germans south of Bolina. Obstinate fighting has begun at Stanislau against great forces of the enemy.

"Between January 21st and February 20th our army in the Carpathians captured 691 officers, 47,640 men, seventeen cannon and 118 mitrailleuses."

GERMANS LOSE 50,000 MEN

By Associated Press.

PARIS, Feb. 24, 6:05 a. m.—At least 50,000 men were lost by the Germans in their attack on the Russian positions along the Rawka river and in the regions of Borjimow, Gumbinnen, according to Ludovic Naudeau, the Journal's correspondent, who witnessed the operations. He considers the general situation highly favorable to the Russians and says:

"The Germans are being gradually but implacably worn down. Whether they attack or merely defend themselves their armies melt away from day to day. Their feverish activity and their frightful sacrifices of lives show they realize they are fighting against time."

ENGLISH WATERS ARE SEA OF PERIL

By Associated Press.

LONDON, Feb. 24, 1:30 p. m.—What with submarines and mines the situation in the waters surrounding Great Britain continues to furnish fresh developments, involving ships of neutrals in both Europe and America. The second American steamer, the Carib, has gone to the bottom of the North Sea with a valuable cargo of cotton and two British steamers have been torpedoed in the last twenty-four hours.

As a precaution England has closed the entrance to the Irish channel, excepting a narrow strip near the coast, in which navigation will be permitted only by daylight. These restrictions are patterned after those enforced in the English channel some time ago.

The Scandinavian countries, among which Norway has already lost four ships, are trying hard to find some solution of the problem, but so far without result, although it is purposed tentatively to provide some sort of a naval convoy for their craft. The matter is to be discussed further.

REPORT CREW SAFE.

The crew of the American steamer Carib, sunk by a mine off the German coast, is reported from German sources to have been saved, but the whereabouts of the sailors is a mystery. It was reported also that part of the crew of the American steamer Evelyn, sunk by a mine off the German coast, was being taken to Holland.

There are indications that the allied fleets in the Mediterranean are attacking the forts along the Dardanelles in earnest.

Though no details have been received relative to the recent bombardment, the statement of the British admiralty, referring to the interruption of operations on account of weather conditions, indicates that the English fleet is standing by, awaiting favorable opportunity to renew the action.

Germany still is celebrating Field Marshal von Hindenburg's advance over the Russian frontier from East Prussia, but official statements claim no substantial progress since the Russians fell back on their fortified line. In certain districts of East Prussia, formerly held by the Russian invaders, German civilians have been notified to return to their homes.

Germans Outline "Safe Course" for Vessels

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 24.—The German embassy in a statement today gave the courses which vessels bound for German ports should pursue to be perfectly safe. The statement follows:

"In connection with the deplorable loss of the Evelyn, all circles interested in shipping to the North Sea and the nearby waters are again advised to follow the German admiralty's instructions:

"A—Merchant vessels bound for the Eider, Elbe, Weiser and Jade rivers must first make Lister Deep Buoy; those bound for the Ems should make directly for its mouth. Piloting is compulsory from Lister Deep Buoy. Vessels are permitted to make the German coast and to enter or leave the mouth of rivers only between sunrise and sunset and in clear weather. Approximate positions of Lister Deep Buoy, latitude 55 degrees, 3 minutes, 45 seconds north; longitude 8 degrees, 17 minutes, 30 seconds east.

"B—Shipping north of the Shetland islands, in the eastern area of the North Sea and in a strip of at least thirty sea miles in width along The Netherlands coast, is not imperiled."

PRETTY MISS, MISSING, FOUND SAFELY WEDDED

Miss Stella Hess, a pretty 17-year-old girl, disappeared from her home, 511 Myrtle street, yesterday. Mrs. A. Hess, her mother, was greatly alarmed. She notified the police, giving a detailed description of the girl, her habits, her companions and the places she might be found.

The police investigated, and today they telephoned to Mrs. Hess.

"Your daughter is now Mrs. Antone Paul, 917 K street, Sacramento," explained Captain Lou Agnew. "She was married yesterday in Sacramento by Police Judge Hendrickson."

Mrs. Hess gasped. Then she decided to give her blessing as soon as it shall be asked for.

GERMANS SEEK TERRITORY

By Associated Press.

PETROGRAD, via London, Feb. 24, 12:55 p. m.—Officers of the Russian general staff believe that the German plan of operations in Northern Poland is to concentrate attention upon the Russian fortresses along the rivers Niemen and Bobr and with their left wing safely establish on Russian territory to make a general southerly movement, meeting the Austro-German forces advancing northward from the Carpathians and acquiring a large section of Poland in addition to that under their control.

The success of this movement is dependent upon the ability to capture the line of fortresses of which Ossowetz is the first to be singled out. The latest communication from the Russian general staff indicates that the Germans have achieved no success in this initial attempt.

In view of the difficulty of penetrating the fortified line at this point, where the marshy land presents a serious obstacle, the Germans are evidently shifting their troops on Lomza, hoping to encircle the fortresses instead of taking them by direct assault.

SHIP MISSING IN MINE ZONE

By Associated Press.

LONDON, Feb. 24.—A dispatch to the Daily News from Copenhagen says it is feared there that the steamer Specia of Stockholm has struck a mine and foundered. The steamer left Liverpool January 31 and was last reported February 2.

RUSSIANS TAKE OPTIMISTIC VIEW

By Associated Press.

PETROGRAD, via London, Feb. 24.—Claiming marked successes in the Carpathians and collapse of the German offensive in the north, which "never emerged from its period of preparation," Russian officers took an optimistic view today of the outlook along the whole front.

The German advance from East Prussia has been stopped largely by the flooding of rivers and the melting of snow, and their attempt to cross the Bobr likewise has been thwarted. A new battle line thus has been formed in the north along which there is uninterrupted fighting.

Operations in the Carpathians are developing rapidly and the Austrians' right flank now is threatened by the Russian offensive movement. Near Krasno, east of Lemberg, the Russians repulsed an Austrian division, thus checking the movements of Austro-German forces attempting to concentrate at Stanislau.

The situation in Northern Poland, however, is regarded as of greatest importance. The position of the Germans near Ossowetz is considered critical, since they are under attack from heavy guns of the fortress and are unable to bring up artillery, owing to the poor roads. A stubborn fight on the road to Lomza was won by the Russians.

The only location in that general vicinity still in dispute is Przasnysz, fifty miles west of Lomz. The Germans are said to have gathered a large force there.

Along the whole front the Germans have been proceeding in six groups.

The first in the direction of Eydkuhnen, the second toward Grodno, the third around Ossowetz, the fourth in the district of Lomza, the fifth in the direction of Przasnysz and the sixth near Plonsk and Nowo Georgiewsk. All these groups are keeping close to the railroads. Communication between them is by cavalry.

The Russians, now on a previously prepared line, are believed able to stop the German advance wherever it is decided to accept battle.

DYNAMITE PLOT AT FAIR IS HOAX

All Officials at Exposition Deny That There Are Any Grounds for Alarm.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 24.—Absolute denial of the story that a stick of dynamite was found in the Japanese section of the exhibits in the Palace of Manufactures on Sunday, and that efforts had been made apparently to place explosives in the Japanese display on the Panama-Pacific Exposition grounds, was made today.

The repudiation of the tale came officially from Captain F. A. Perry, adjutant of the Panama-Pacific Exposition guards, speaking for the commander, Captain Edward Carpenter, in charge of the policing of the fair grounds.

"No more foolish story was ever circulated," declared Perry. "It exists only in the minds of the narrators. There is absolutely no truth in it. No dynamite was found, there was no attempt to do any blowing up, there have been no explosives placed in the Japanese exhibit or in Japan Beautiful and there is no reason whatever for all this scare. The whole truth can be summed up in one word, 'hoax.' On Sunday a bit of wrapping from a dynamite cartridge was picked up, and it was old and it amounts to nothing. It was shown to a guard and reported here at headquarters. The somebody got hold of it and the story grew as it was repeated. You can take my word for it that we have not doubled any guards; we have not taken any precautions because there is nothing to it."

PINKERTONS DENY IT.

The superintendent of the Pinkerton Detective Agency declared he had received no report of anything of the kind. He asserted that had there been any dynamite placed, he felt that he would have been notified.

Judge George A. Crothers of the Superior Court explained that he had observed a case of 40 percent dynamite in the Palace of Manufactures which he thought had been placed there as an exhibit. "I picked up one of the sticks and examined it," said the judge. "I am familiar with explosives. My idea is that somebody carried a stick to the Japanese exhibit, where it was found."

Commissioner General H. Yamawaki stated that he believed it was a hoax and he did not think there was any reason to fear a plot to blow up the Japanese exhibit. The Japanese in charge of the booths professed the belief that there was nothing unusual in the discovery of the cap or stick of dynamite or whatever occurred and laughed at the idea of a dynamite plot.

Holland May Act, Is Indication at Hague

By Associated Press.

THE HAGUE, via London, Feb. 24, 12:05 p. m.—There is good reason to believe the political situation in Holland is such that most interesting developments may be expected at any moment. There have been recently numerous meetings between the representatives of various countries at The Hague, but the subjects discussed have been kept secret.

The name "Ryndam," in large letters, has been painted on both sides of the steamer.

New Obstacles Arise In Russian Invasion

By Associated Press.

BERLIN, Feb. 24.—(By Wireless to London, 9:35 a. m.)—Reports are heard in influential circles here that further obstacles have arisen to prevent the invasion of Russia. The feeding of the population in the part of East Prussia which had been occupied by the Russians is proceeding with difficulty.

GERMANY EXPLAINS PRISONER POLICY

Adopts Counter Measures Corresponding to Those Operative in Hostile Countries.

By Associated Press.

BERLIN, via London, 12:20 p. m., Feb. 24.—The steps taken by the foreign office in the matter of the treatment afforded German civil and military prisoners in hostile lands was described today in the lower house of the Prussian diet in connection with the budget for foreign affairs.

The government spokesman said the foreign office had, in the beginning, called attention to the provisions of The Hague conference bearing on prisoners. For civilians living in hostile lands at the outbreak of warfare, there existed no regulations, it was explained, and it was the view of Germany that these people should be permitted to leave the country.

Such agreements had been reached with Serbia and Japan. France, Russia and Great Britain, however, had refused to permit able-bodied belligerent aliens to leave the country and most of these in France and England were interned. It had been possible, therefore, to reach an agreement with these countries only for the departure of women and children and men of non-military age.

Many complaints of the improper treatment of German prisoners, the speaker continued, had been received and investigated by American diplomatic officials and other neutral persons, and a great number of abuses had been corrected. Germany had not hesitated to adopt counter measures corresponding to those operative in hostile countries in order to force better treatment for interned Germans.

OFFICIAL WAR STATEMENTS

By Associated Press.

PARIS, Feb. 24, 2:45 p. m.—The French war office this afternoon gave out a report on the progress of the fighting which reads as follows:

"With the exception of a few successful actions on the part of our troops near Auberide-Sur Suippe nothing of importance has occurred since the giving out of the communication of last night. We have made further progress toward the north of Perthes."

Sinking of Carib Is Reported by Van Dyke

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 24.—Official notice of the sinking of the American steamer Carib was received at the State Department today in this message from American Minister Van Dyke at The Hague:

ENTIRE CREW SAVED.

By Associated Press.

BERLIN, via London, 5:24 p. m., Feb. 24.—A dispatch received in Berlin from the American vice-consul at Bremerhaven declares that all the members of the crew of the American steamer Carib, reported yesterday as having sunk in the North Sea, have been saved. It is understood, the vice-consul continues, that the Carib struck a mine in the Bight of Heligoland the afternoon of February 22.

Russians Are Grimly Resisting Austrians

By Associated Press.

BERLIN, via London, Feb. 24, 10:30 a. m.—A dispatch from Vienna quotes the war correspondent of the Fremdenblatt as saying the fighting in the Carpathians has resolved itself into a series of bitter and stubbornly contested engagements. The Russians are showing desperate courage.

It is quieter in the Dukla Pass, where both sides have entrenched themselves. An important engagement is raging to the southward of Stanislau, in Galicia, where the Russians for the third time have opposed the advance of the Austrian right flank.

Austrian Territory Invaded by Serbs

GENEVA, Feb. 24, via Paris, 5 a. m.—Serbian troops invaded Austrian territory on the night of February 20 and 21, near Bjelina, opposite Raich and at Mitrovitz, penetrating from one to four miles across the frontier, according to a dispatch received here. The object, it is believed, is to force the Austrians back to the west of the troops operating against the Russians.

French War Prisoner Given Prison Term

BERLIN, Feb. 24, via London, 11:32 a. m.—Louis Audrain, a French war prisoner at Traunstein, has been sentenced to thirteen years' imprisonment for assaulting a guard. The prisoner is not considered entirely sound mentally and hence escaped the death sentence.

Germany to Issue Its Second War Loan

By Associated Press.

BERLIN, via London, Feb. 24, 5:45 p. m.—The imperial government will issue shortly its second five per cent war loan. This is to consist of $250,000,000 in treasury notes maturing at an average of five years. The issue price will be about $98.50.

Austrian Government To Distribute Bread

VIENNA (By Wireless to Berlin and London), Feb. 24, 9:35 a. m.—The government has taken over all stocks of rye, barley, maize and flour products. The distribution of bread will be undertaken in various districts.

CONSPIRACY CHARGE MADE IN HOCKING CASE

That the employes of the Panama Tea Company had entered into a conspiracy to defraud the concern and then apply the money collected to purchasing it under forced sale, was the testimony today of F. W. Ennis, a former employe, in the trial of E. J. Hocking, former manager, who is charged with embezzlement.

According to Ennis the plan was suggested by Hocking and some of the employes put it into effect with favorable results, until the proprietors "got wind" of the deal and caused Hocking's arrest.

TEUTONS EXULTANT OVER BIG VICTORY

"Most Complete in World's History," Is Comment of Press.

By Associated Press.

BERLIN, via London, Feb 24—The latest official report of Field Marshal Von Hindenburg's victory in East Prussia shows that it is far more complete than was at first thought. Enthusiasm has broken out anew in the German capital and those residents of Berlin who had taken in their flags after the announcement of the earlier phases of the battle are flying them again more profusely than last week.

The press reflects the exultant tone of the people. The Lokal Anzeiger's remarks indicate the general tenor of the newspaper comment. It says:

"Torn asunder and crushed to earth are the battle ranks of the Czar of all the Russians, the proud hope of the Triple Entente. The Russian Tenth Army, consisting of eleven divisions and a number of cavalry divisions, has practically ceased to exist.

"The achievements of our troops, consisting of veterans and new recruits, seem to have been superhuman. It is not vain glorious to say that Bleucher's victory of Belle Alliance (the Prussian term for Waterloo) following the pursuit of Napoleon and the annihilation of his best armies are eclipsed by what has just occurred.

"The victory which resulted in the largest number of prisoners ever taken in open battle, was also the most complete in the world's history."

Former Friend Charged In Suit for Divorce

Escapades to have been indulged in by Wiwona Queen Andrews Ward during the several months of her married life with Milton E. Ward, were related in Superior Judge Donahue's court today by Mrs. Edith Vedders, who, with her husband, Milton Vedder, formerly lived with the Wards in their East Oakland cottage.

Numerous alleged affinities of Mrs. Ward were named by Mrs. Vedder, who alternately smiled and wept on the witness stand. She said that her former friend had frequently boasted of her conquests with other men and of little trips taken to San Francisco and Sacramento.

Taking the stand in her own behalf, Mrs. Ward, whom her husband had charged was in the habit of calling him a "little simp.," denied that she was accustomed to using profanity about the house.

"I may have said 'damn'," Mrs. Ward admitted, but explained that she had read where a university professor had declared that word not to be profanity.

"My husband, though, said that it was swearing and that I ought to say 'rats' or 'fudge,' when provoked."

As to the allegations that she had mortgaged their household furniture, Mrs. Ward explained that she had borrowed $50 from a loan company on an unsecured note with the provision that she should pay $34 per year interest.

BUSINESS MEN PLAN BIG CAMPAIGN LUNCHEON

Plans for a great booster luncheon, to be held next Tuesday at noon in the interests of the million-dollar bond campaign for the Exposition, and plans for a big mass meeting, to be arranged for an early date, were outlined this noon at an informal luncheon attended by members of the Progress and Prosperity Committee in the Commercial clubrooms. The details of the mass meeting will be considered Friday night and the manufacturers' committee will co-operate with the Progress and Prosperity men in the work.

The meeting today resulted in the appointment of A. L. Gerhard, J. H. Chambers and C. J. Fairbairn to plan details of Tuesday's luncheon. The manufacturers, it was announced, would arrange a big parade for the near future, also in line with the bond campaign, and have started an educational campaign in local factories.

A. S. Lavenson and E. E. Bull spoke at today's luncheon, urging the business men to rally to the campaign.

CHICAGO MAYOR IS DEFEATED AT POLLS

CHICAGO, Feb. 24.—Robert M. Sweitzer was nominated for mayor on the Democratic ticket in yesterday's primaries. His plurality over Mayor Carter H. Harrison is approximately 75,000. Sweitzer is serving his second term as clerk of Cook county. He was supported by Roger C. Sullivan, who was defeated for the United States Senate in the last State election.

Almost complete returns show that William Hale Thompson is leading Judge Harry M. Olson by over 2000 votes for the Republican nomination, and it is practically certain that Thompson will be nominated.

Fear Germans Will Take Belgian Relief Goods, Is Declared.

By Associated Press.

LONDON, Feb 24.—The London Foreign Office has declined in a letter to Herbert C. Hoover, chairman, to give a direct subsidy to the commission for relief in Belgium, because it is said Germany has refused to stop cash requisitions in Belgium.

The letter is signed by Sir Edward Grey, the British Foreign Secretary. It is dated February 22 and reviews the work of the commission so far, the contribution of $5,000,000 by the British Government and the refusal of a previous request for a monthly subvention.

The letter says the British Government decided to grant a monetary subvention, however, "on condition that the German government would undertake to cease all requisitions for food of any kind and all levies and contributions of any kind whatever in Belgium with the exception, of course, of such taxation of the people as is admitted under The Hague convention."

Mr. Hoover, in reply to the letter of Sir Edward Grey, made the following statement:

"The failure of this particular negotiation does not alter the fact that seven million people in Belgium must still be fed nor that there are 1,500,000 absolutely destitute people in the country."

Broken Heart Valued At More Than $40,000?

Miss Maude Armfield, motion picture actress, who was awarded that amount last night in her $500,000 breach of promise suit against Millionaire Bryant Howard Jr., laughed bitterly today when she was quizzed on the subject of the value of lost love.

"I asked $500,000, but even that is a small drop of balm for a shattered heart. However, they have let me keep my baby, and that makes up for much else that wasn't allowed me."

The jury was out one and one-half hours after being charged by Judge Wilbur late last night.

Miss Armfield was married to Howard in San Diego, July 4, 1909. The marriage was annulled October 7, 1909, because, it was testified, Howard's divorce from his first wife was defective.

Miss Armfield's suit was based on the allegation that she agreed to the annuiment, with the understanding that Howard would remarry her when he secured a perfected divorce.

Howard, whose mother is wealthy, gave Miss Armfield an allowance of $20 weekly for a time. He said this was discontinued when her conduct no longer complied with certain rules he laid down.

Mildred Armfield, the young daughter of the plantiff, was repudiated by Howard in his testimony. Miss Armfield testified the girl was Howard's child.

Los Angeles Jobbers Want Rate Rectified

By Associated Press.

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 24.—Under the recent decision of the Interstate Commerce Commission, granting the transcontinental railroads permission to lower rates in order to meet competition of ocean freighters via the Panama canal, this city has been deprived of terminal rates, and a campaign was launched today by the Associated Jobbers and similar organizations to have the order of the commission rectified. Traffic experts of the Associated Jobbers made the statement today when the full text of the decision was received that the made a distinction between Los Angeles city and Los Angeles harbor without taking into consideration that the city, through annexation several years ago, took into the municipal corporation a "shoe string" strip of territory that extended twenty miles to the ocean front. Terminal rates were granted to the harbor district but withheld from the city itself and in consequence it will cost more to ship freight from the east by rail to Los Angeles than to San Francisco.

MANSION FOR PRISONERS.

By Associated Press.

LONDON, Feb. 24.—Nearly $50,000 has been expended by the government in fitting up Donington Hall in Leicestershire for use of German officers in England as prisoners of war. Twenty thousand dollars was expended for furniture. The ground floor has been converted into a clubhouse.

SCOUTS ON TRAIL OF INDIAN BAND

has expressed a determination to apprehend every member of the band, the number of which is estimated at from 50 to 100.

Mounted Indian police from Shiprock, N. M., are reported en route to Bluff to reinforce the whites, and are expected to arrive today. In the meantime Indian Agent Jenkins, accompanied by an interpreter and a few friendly Indians, was reported endeavoring to get in communication with certain members of the fugitive band, in an effort to induce them to surrender.

Another casualty was added to the list late last night when Havane, son-in-law of "Old Polk" and one of the six Indians captured Sunday, slipped off his manacles and leaped through a window of the temporary prison at Bluff, in an effort to escape. Henry McConnell and James Honaker, two members of the posse detailed to guard the prisoners, opened fire, and the Indian fell with two bullets in his body. Havane is said to be in a dying condition.

CAPTIVE WOUNDED.

DURANGO, Colo., Feb. 24.—Havane, a Piute Indian captured Sunday by the posse of United States deputies headed by United States Marshal Nebeker, now engaged to arrest Tse-Ne-Gat (Everett Hatch) on a charge of murder, was shot twice and probably fatally wounded late last night when he slipped off his manacles and made a dash for liberty.

Havane was being guarded by Deputies McConnell and Honaker when the Indian attempted to get away, according to the report received here last night from Bluff, near where the posse of deputies and the band of renegade Piutes are holding their positions. The Indian was shot twice through the body. He is a son-in-law of "Old Polk," leader of the Indians.

Reports received here from Bluff late last night say the town is strongly guarded. The situation there is considered serious.

CHIEF SAVED WOMAN'S LIFE.

By Associated Press.

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, Feb. 24.—Mrs. H. P. Dalley, of Salt Lake City, an early day resident in the vicinity of Bluff, owes her life to "Polk" and "Posey," the two Piute Indian chiefs now leading the hostiles. Mrs. Dalley, then Mrs. A. M. Barton, says in 1887 two Navajo Indians came to the trading post her husband conducted and engaged in a quarrel with him. One of the Indians was killed and Barton received a wound from which he died a week later.

The surviving Navajo was rushing to attack Mrs. Barton when "Polk" and "Posey" came on the scene and drove him off. The Navajo left for reinforcements, but before he returned with other Navajos the Piutes had spread the alarm and had gathered a sufficient force of their own tribesmen and white men to defend the place.

Tse-Ne-Gat, the outlaw whose escape caused the present trouble, was a little boy at the time and assisted "Polk," his father, to nurse Barton until his death. Barton's body was taken to Bluff for burial and the store was left in care of the Piute Indians for several days. Mrs. Dalley says she found everything intact on her return.

UTES JOIN FUGITIVES.

SALT LAKE CITY, Feb. 24.—A telegram from Bluff, Utah, says conditions still appear to be serious. It is reported that several Utes, formerly friendly, have joined the hostile Piutes under Olk Polk. The Indians maintain their position in Butler wash, west of town.

ASKS HEAVY DAMAGES FOR AUTO ACCIDENT

Suit for $20,000 damages was filed in the Superior Court today by Benjamin Wilcox, a rancher, against W. H. Godfrey for injuries alleged to have been sustained by Wilcox last August when he was run down by an automobile driven by Godfrey along the county road between Dublin and Santa Rita. Wilcox was riding in a light farm wagon and he alleges that Godfrey was driving on the wrong side of the road. Plaintiff sets forth that he sustained compound fractures of his right leg and numerous bruises and lacerations which cost him $400 in medical bills.

AGENT CONVICTED.

Ah Sing, a Chinese merchant, was found guilty of selling lottery tickets by Judge Mortimer Smith today. He was sentenced to pay a fine of $300 or to spend 150 days in the city prison.

JURY BRINGS VERDICT OF ACCIDENTAL DEATH

Despite the fact that the evidence showed that Charles A. Sinclair, who has been engaged as an electrical contractor by various firms and improvement clubs, engaged a room in a lodging house on San Pablo avenue and was found later with three gascocks turned on at the full in a room filled with gas, the coroner's jury last night brought in a verdict of accidental death. It was at first announced by Deputy Coroner Brennan that indications pointed to Sinclair having committed suicide. He had been despondent over financial troubles, and when he entered the lodging house he had been drinking. He asked for a room that was lighted with gas, and after being given the room he went out and got some more liquor. Mrs. Sinclair testified last night that she did not believe her husband had committed suicide. The coroner's jury deliberated for a few minutes and brought in a verdict of accidental death. The inquest was conducted by Coroner Grant D. Miller.

MISSING GIRL FOUND; ON VISIT, SHE SAYS

Following a frantic search by relatives, during which police aid was enlisted, Gertrude Boyd, pretty 16-year-old Concord girl, has returned to her parents, surprised at the hue and cry. She declares that she visited girl friends in Oakland, but had forgotten to notify her parents of her intentions.

She came to Oakland, she declared, intending to telephone back to Concord, but during several entertainments she overlooked this for a day. In the meantime her parents communicated with the police. She declares that she had intended to return today.

HOLDS A FORTUNE IN RAREST ORCHIDS FOR PHILIPPINE DEDICATION

WORTH FIFTY FOLD THEIR WEIGHT IN GOLD

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 24.—"It's hard enough to hold a thousand dollars' worth of gold, but it's child's play compared to holding a thousand dollars' worth of orchids. To hurt one petal would have cost several hundred dollars."

So declares pretty Elsa Schneider, St. Louis society girl, and probably the only girl in the world who has the distinction of having held in her arms one of the greatest fortunes in orchids ever assembled. The flowers, worth something like fifty times their weight in gold, are for the Philippine dedication of Friday. They were carefully gone over yesterday by the Exposition gardening experts. Among them are some of the most wonderful specimens in the world. They will decorate the building during the opening day.

HORSE SHOW TO FEATURE ST. PATRICK'S DAY FETE

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 24. — That the horse show will be the main attraction of the afternoon exhibition at the celebration in commemoration of St. Patrick at the Panama-Pacific International Exposition March 17 is the contention of Dr. J. C. Quinlan, who is in charge of that phase of the Irish Day festivities.

Dr. Quinlan has secured the co-operation of the California Driving Club, the San Francisco Driving Club and the Riding and Driving Club to make the horse show feature the most noteworthy of what the promotion committee claims will be the biggest day of the Exposition period.

The best whips and riders, as well as the best horses in San Francisco will take part in the Irish Day celebration. All the principal events of annual horse shows will be on the program. The entire afternoon will be taken up with this phase of the celebration.

POLICE GUARDS WATCH TO END TONG OUTBREAK

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 24.—Chief of Police White this morning took precaution to prevent more shooting in Chinatown as an aftermath of yesterday's clash between the Suey Sings and the Sen Suey Yings, resulting in the shooting of a white man and two Chinese.

Corporal Peter Mitchell of the Chinatown squad brought in several suspects this morning, in addition to Ah Duck, a Suey Sing gunman, who is being held in detinue.

Those wounded in the fray were Morris Krop, a porter of 559 Valencia street, hit by a chance shot in the right thigh as he was crossing Pacific and Stockton streets; Hong L. Ying, an interpreter of 739 Jackson street, shot through the left lung, and Yet Sing of 721 Clay street, wounded in the groin.

Hong Ying is the worst hurt, and is not expected to recover. He started to cross Pacific street, in Chinatown, to avoid three men who were following him, when one of the trio opened fire. The police say that the three Suey Sings were Yet Sing, Ah Louie and Dong Bing. Yet Sing, one of those wounded, is being guarded by the police and the other two men are still in hiding.

MISMATED COUPLES ASK COURT FOR DIVORCE

Alleging that her husband frequently locked her in the house so that she could not go on a visit to her mother, Margaret J. French has commenced suit for divorce against George French. On such occasions plaintiff says that she was threatened with death if she left the house.

Edna Koeger asks for a divorce from Harry Koeger on the ground that he wrote letters ridiculing her to his friends.

Harold F. Elliott was granted an interlocutory decree from Frances Elliott upon testimony that she took jewelry belonging to a friend of his and failed to return it.

EXPOSITION VOTED OFFICIAL PRAISE

Rain Postpones Fireworks Display; Permanent Exhibit, Plan.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 24.—High praise voted yesterday by the Exposition stockholders following the report of the activities of the year, was added to by an official resolution of congratulation and thanks from the Board of Supervisors of San Francisco. The Board has issued the following unanimously-passed resolution thanking and praising the Exposition officials:

"Whereas, on Saturday, February 20, 1915, the Panama-Pacific International Exposition opened its gates to the world; and whereas, the president and directors of the exposition have worked unceasingly for several years to bring about the magnificent result that we all witnessed last Saturday; and whereas, we all feel that the education and enlightenment that will go forth to the world as a result of the great exposition will be of immense and lasting benefit to our State and city; therefore, be it

"Resolved, that we, the Board of Supervisors, in meeting assembled as the representatives of the people, do hereby extend to the president, the directors and other officials of the Panama-Pacific International Exposition our congratulations and commendation for the wonderful work they have accomplished, and the vast benefit that will undoubtedly redound to the whole world and more especially to California and San Francisco as a result of said work."

Rain called off the fireworks at the Exposition last night, the special program of pyrotechnic display to be presented later. Hereafter special fireworks displays will be seen Tuesday, Thursday, Saturday and Sunday nights. The displays for the year will cost $100,000.

Chambers of Commerce and the California Development Board this year will outline plans by which a permanent state exhibition, for future expositions, shall be prepared. Warning was taken by the development board officers from the unpreparedness of several states to exhibit, and a plan by which California will always have an exhibit ready is now being discussed. William Hutchinson, Canadian Commissioner and an expert in such work, will co-operate with the California boosters in the matter. A meeting will be called in a few days to discuss details.

OHIO DEDICATION TO TAKE PLACE TOMORROW

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 24. — A distinguished group of Ohioans will participate at the dedication of the Ohio building at the Panama-Pacific International Exposition tomorrow afternoon. Frank E. Myers, chairman of the Ohio exposition commission, will be present, with Commissioners Newton H. Miller, John Uri Lloyd and D. B. Torney. Honorable Ralph D. Cole will represent Governor Frank B. Willis of Ohio. United States Senator Warren G. Harding will be a guest of honor, as will Albert Pretzinger, the architect of the building.

Speeches will be made by Charles C. Moore, president of the exposition company, by Governor Hiram Johnson of California and by Mayor James Rolph Jr., of San Francisco.

Following the ceremonies and the presentation of the bronze plaque of dedication by President Moore, there will be an informal reception in the rotunda of the Ohio building, to which all visitors are invited to meet Cole, Senator Harding and the members of the Ohio commission.

POLO PONIES ARRIVE FOR EXPOSITION MEET

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 24.—The first shipment of polo ponies for the International Polo Meet, scheduled to start on March 15, arrived at the live stock department of the Panama-Pacific International Exposition.

The lot included sixteen highbred ponies belonging to Henry Tevis, the well-known eastern polo star, who will be out here for the big tournaments that are to be played on the exposition field next month.

The polo events will be a big feature on the calendar of sporting events arranged as exposition features. One hundred thousand dollars will be distributed and as a result the greatest polo players from different parts of the world have been attracted.

D. O. Lively, chief of the department of live stock, has made special preparations for caring and caring for the polo ponies. Arrangements have been made to care for more than five hundred polo ponies.

SHINTO RITES AWE AT FAIR DEDICATION

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 24.—Just as the distinguished Japanese envoys and the accompanying exposition officials were preparing to celebrate the dedication of the Japanese exhibits at the Exposition grounds this morning, the sun burst forth from behind a deep maze of dark clouds and smiled on the interesting festivities. It was exactly 10 o'clock when the sacred, purification ceremonies of Japan were begun for the first time in public in the United States, or indeed in any foreign country. The rites were performed with all the mystic ritual of Shintoism and it was the first time that a woman of the Occident officiated at such an occasion. Miss Josephine Ito, daughter of President Charles C. Moore, pulled a ribbon in the interior of the Imperial Japanese building and the sacred waters were liberated to purify houses and gardens in accordance with the best Japanese tradition.

The custom is as old as the Japanese race and it was with punctilious regard for its ancient requirements that the Japanese entered into it with a spirit which made it an occasion of reverence and of awe for the assembled throngs.

The religious features of the Japanese celebration were the only ones occurring in the morning and were followed after luncheon by the formal opening festivities in Festival Hall.

These began at 1:45 a. m. when His Imperial Japanese Majesty's commissioner general to the exposition, the Hon. Haruki Yamawaki made his opening address. He was followed by Admiral Baron Kichi Uriu, the vice-president. Both commissioners congratulated President Moore and the members of the exposition board for the marvelous work that had been wrought and in turn were made the subject of congratulation by President Moore for the interest displayed by Japan in the exposition.

Addresses by William Bailey Lamar, United States National Commissioner, Governor Hiram W. Johnson, Mayor James Rolph Jr., Acting Consul General Yafutaro Numano, Right Rev. Bishop Hanna and Rev. Charles F. Aked, who were also on the program, together with the presentation of a commemorative bronze plaque. Anthems were sung in English and Japanese by the Japanese school children and following this there was a procession to the Stadium where outdoor exercises were on the program. A number of beautifully decorated floats had been prepared by the Japanese of the city and the officials of the exposition.

At 2:30 o'clock the big Philippine Constabulary Band opened its concert series in the Philippine building. The great band was heard in several numbers.

Tonight the great electric scintillator, in which a great collection of searchlights play on the clouds, will be seen.

EXPOSITION RESTORES TRAFFIC.

By Associated Press.

SEATTLE, Feb. 24.—Effective next Sunday, the Great Northern railway will restore its night train between Seattle and Portland, which was taken off several weeks ago because of light traffic, it was announced yesterday. Increasing traffic as a result of the opening of the San Francisco exposition is given as the reason for restoring the train.

"BULLY," SAYS COLONEL; WORKED HALF AN HOUR

NEW YORK, Feb. 24.—Theodore Roosevelt yesterday applied for work at a Brooklyn station of the mayor's unemployment committee. His application was passed at once, and he labored—if exclaiming "bully" and "splendid" can be described—for half an hour.

It was the first time the colonel had applied for a non-political job in the last seventeen years.

"Fine," he exclaimed. "Splendid; splendid from the standpoint of everybody."

Captain John Kingsepp of the Salvation Army asked the colonel if he'd like to have a job.

"Bully," said the colonel, taking a combination application blank time card and signing it. Kingsepp punched it to indicate that Roosevelt had worked a half hour and had been paid in proceries.

LAST RITES SAID FOR OAKLAND CAPITALIST

Funeral rites were said this afternoon at simple services held in Petaluma, over the remains of William Bolza, Oakland capitalist, who died at his home here, 645 Mariposa avenue, Monday. The deceased was a native of New York, and 71 years of age, and was prominent in Oakland's fraternal life, being a member of Live Oak Lodge of Masons and a member of the Oakland Scottish Rites bodies.

Bolza is survived by a widow, who was Miss Anna Bowles, daughter of the president of the Petaluma Savings Bank and a Sonoma county pioneer. The only child is a daughter, Mrs. Charles A. Reynolds, wife of the assistant deputy collector of customs in San Francisco. The body was shipped to Bolza's former home in Petaluma yesterday.

WILL CONTEST IS SETTLED BY HEIRS

San Jose, Feb. 24.—Announcement that a settlement out of court had been made by the heirs of the late Rebecca Smith, who have been contesting her $55,000 estate, was made today to Superior Judge Cosbey by the attorneys for the parties involved.

The jury which had been hearing the evidence in the case was accordingly dismissed. Judge Cosbey complimented the jurors upon the faithfulness to their duties which they had manifested and also congratulated the parties to the action for having come to an amicable settlement of their difficulties. George Frank Smith was then granted his petition to be made administrator of the estate. His bond was set at $25,000.

Fresno, Feb. 24.—H. S. Williams, aged 74, a pioneer resident of North Fork, is dying at a local sanatorium from serious burns received when he fainted and fell over an oil heater. The flaming oil burned Williams' back and it was more than an hour before he was found and the flames extinguished.

Martinez, Feb. 24.—In an examination held at Martinez yesterday for postmasters at Brentwood and Port Costa, only one candidate appeared, G. A. French of Brentwood. The incumbents will hold their positions until their successors are appointed.

Martinez, Feb. 24.—Mrs. Alice Halowell was awarded $7000 in Martinez yesterday by a jury in her suit against the Union Oil Company for the death of her husband, Charles Halowell in a fire in one of the company's buildings at Oleum, in December, 1913. She had asked for $10,000.

Martinez Feb. 24.—Joseph Silva, who pleaded guilty to having forged a pay check belonging to Manuel Fernandez, was sentenced to five years in San Quentin yesterday by Judge R. H. Latimer, but was given probation. Daniel Cantua was given three years in San Quentin also by Judge Latimer, but was accorded probation. The charge against him was burglary. His partner, Rafael Samora, was given five years in San Quentin and has already begun his sentence.

San Rafael, Feb. 24.—The exposition is not going to be cut off from automobile traffic from the north-of-the-bay counties by the impassable state highway if the Central Marin Chamber of Commerce can find an emergency remedy, and the indications are that it can.

The Chamber of Commerce has taken up the matter with the Supervisors, the San Rafael City Council and the Trustees of Belvedere and asked that the Alto-Tiburon road be placed in shape for the heavy traffic. All have agreed to do their share of the work immediately and the only remaining bad feature is the lack of proper transportation facilities between Tiburon and San Francisco. This matter has been taken up with the railroad company and probably a much improved boat schedule will be arranged.

Martinez, Feb. 24.—A decision which affects Contra Costa county was reached at the meeting yesterday at Fresno of the Assessors of Fresno, Madera, Stanislaus, Merced, Kings, Kern, Tulare and Contra Costa counties. The Assessors placed the rate on the pipe line of oil companies throughout these counties at $3250 per mile. The price on crude petroleum was fixed at 18 cents per barrel.

LET FILIPINO RULE, IS PLEA OF HIGH OFFICIAL

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 24.—"If the aim of the United States is to create in the Philippines a middle class to dominate the government, then the time for the withdrawal of the United States from the islands is indefinite. If it is the aim of the United States to withdraw on the creation of a stable government, as the Oriental understands that term, then it will not be necessary for us to remain much longer," said Vice-Governor W. H. Martin of the Philippines last, who is here on the way back to his post in Manila.

Martin will leave Saturday on the steamer Manchuria, with his wife and family. He has been in Washington testifying for the self government bill pending in Congress.

EMBASSY APPROVES CAMPS.

By Associated Press.

PARIS, Feb. 24.—A Havas dispatch from Toulon says the commissioners sent out by the American embassy in Paris to inquire into conditions at French concentration camps have concluded their investigations in the department of Bassee and Var, and report having found international regulations strictly observed. They left here for Corsica to continue their inspection.

ST. ANDREW'S HAS SURPRISE PARTY

Dr. A. K. Crawford, Past President Honored by Society's Sudden Invasion.

The St. Andrew's Society last night celebrated the sixty-third anniversary of the birth of another of its most popular members—Dr. Alex. K. Crawford—one of its past presidents and its present medical officer. But this event differed from other recent society celebrations of the kind insofar as it was not an invitation affair, the reveries of the member honored being ruthlessly disturbed as he sat in quiet ease and comfort at his blazing open fireside, by the sudden invasion by storm of his home-castle on Lakeside boulevard by a surprise party of a score or more of his fellow Scotsmen, reinforced by three or four friendly allies.

Of course, the victim took in the situation at a glance and gracefully surrendered unconditionally and promptly summoned the family to welcome the unexpected visitors.

The evening was then devoted to their entertainment with six-handed euchre as a prelude, followed by a hurriedly improvised collation, surreptitiously provided for by the invaders beforehand and deftly spread out by Mrs. and Miss Crawford, closing with an interesting program of song and speech-making, which President J. A. C. Macdonald handled skillfully as toastmaster and introduced with a brief explanation of the object of the raid on the doctor's home and extending in behalf of the St. Andrew's Society the hearty congratulations of its members and their best wishes to him and his family for many happy returns of the day. In response, Dr. Crawford briefly reviewed his personal and family career with a special reference to the singular manner in which the number 13 (popularly regarded by the superstitious to be unlucky) had contributed through life to his prosperity and to his domestic happiness. Incidentally, it may be remarked that it entered into his life record last night, as it was the thirteenth anniversary of his birth after passing the half century mark of his career.

Major Jeffries, the venerable father of Mrs. Crawford, followed with a sketch of his early friendship with his son-in-law, long prior to the latter's declaration of love for and solicitation of consent to marry his daughter, and the great joy with which he has witnessed their unalloyed happiness since, "for," he declared, "they are just as much in love with one another as they were then."

Other congratulatory speeches were made by Mr. Young, Andrew Dalziel, Alex. Ballingall and others. Robert Howden read the following poem, written by him, to "The Doctor" for the occasion, which was greeted with much enthusiasm.

THE DOCTOR.

What is the occasion of this throng,
This desecration of a home,
This noisy scene I look upon,
Interspersed with wit and song?
The Doctor.

Well, what has he done in life that we Tonight should here assembled be
And join in this frivolity
In honor of the man you see?
The Doctor.

What has he done? Lor bless yer soul,
'Twould take too long for to extol
In plaudiudes, and here unroll
The kindly acts of him we call
"The Doctor."

What has he done? Ask each St. Andrew's man;
Ask every member of the clan.
Tonight, each separate face I scan.
Each smiles to this particular one,
The Doctor.

Each Thursday night on which we meet meet
At St. Andrew's rooms on Webster street,
No meeting seems to be complete
Without the shake with which we greet
The Doctor.

Like priest or parson, when I'm sick,
Like them, I'm here inclined to stick
(Lest I be urshered to Auld Nick),
To him I send a message quick,
The Doctor.

The ladies all are heard declare
"Isn't he handsome. Such lovely hair."
'Twas such that won his lady fair's
Consent, with him to make a pair—
The Doctor.

This anniversary of his birth
Is good excuse for all this mirth.
So fill your glasses to the brim,
A toast: "Long life to her and him,"—
The Doctor.

The speeches were interlarded with patriotic songs by Mr. and Mrs. Garley, George Hall and Dr. A. K. Crawford, Mrs. Crawford acting as accompanist at the piano, and a splendid recitation by Mr. Farley of Kipling's ballard, "Gungar Din." The evening's entertainment closed before midnight with all hands joined in the singing of "Auld Larg Syne."

GRAND ARMY VETERAN IS SUMMONED BY DEATH

Following a sudden cerebral hemorrhage last evening, Hugh Sharp Smith, prominent in Grand Army circles, and brother of Dr. Kirby Smith, Oakland physician, is dead at his home, 715 Fifth avenue. He was a veteran of the Civil War, serving in Battery D, First West Virginia Cavalry (Carlin's troops).

He had lived in Oakland some 38 years, coming here shortly after the end of the war and settling in East Oakland. He was a mill man, and was prominently identified with early building operations in Oakland. A prominent member of Lyon Post of the G. A. R., he also took part in many prominent Oakland celebrations.

The deceased was a native of Ohio, and was 69 years of age. He is survived by four brothers, Dr. Kirby Smith, George W., Wagner S. and John F. Smith, and three sisters, Mrs. Sarah Hukill, Mrs. Belle Schultz and Mrs. Mollie Lodge. The funeral will be held with G. A. R. honors.

UNION OF POWERS IS APPROVED IN HOUSE

By Associated Press.

LONDON, Feb. 24.—The plan for a union of the financial and military resources of the entente powers, arranged early in February, was approved yesterday by the house of commons. During the debate David Lloyd George, chancellor of the exchequer, announced there would be another meeting of the finance ministers of the allied powers this time in London.

TROUBLES DUE TO RAIN.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 24.—When it was raining it was too wet to fix the roof. When the sun was shining what was the use of fixing the roof to prevent the rain from coming in when there was no rain? So, when it did rain, the water came in, and Mrs. Elsie Cotrell suffered an attack of rheumatism, which constituted severe cruelty and caused her to bring suit for divorce against James Cotrell, who wouldn't fix the roof. All these facts are contained in a divorce complaint filed today.

VOTERS TO DECIDE ISSUE.

By Associated Press.

DES MOINES, Ia., Feb. 24.—The Wilson bill for constitutional prohibition which came from the senate was passed by the house late yesterday by 92 to 14. This bill provides for the submission to the people of the question of constitutional prohibition if it is successful in the legislature to convene two years hence. Another constitutional amendment coming from the senate and providing for equal suffrage was passed by the house by 84 to 14. This bill has been passed by two successive legislatures and will go to the voters of the state.

EDUCATE POTTERS URGES REDFIELD

American Crockery Makers Must Improve Methods, Is Declared.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 24.—Secretary Redfield has made public the report of the investigation by the Department of Commerce into the pottery industry, begun co-incidentally with the enactment of the present tariff law and an announcement by the United States Potters' Association that any reductions in selling prices resulting from reduced duties "must be followed by a corresponding reduction in wages."

The tariff reduced duties from 55 to 35 per cent and from 60 to 45 per cent on undecorated and decorated earthenware, respectively. The report says the imports of pottery for the first twelve months of the tariff law increased less than a half million dollars over the last twelve months of the old law.

"1. The potters of the United States are without adequate knowledge of the costs of production in their own industry.

"2. Extreme costs of production were found in the different potteries of the United States. There were also large variations in earnings and profits.

"3. Large differences in the cost of production between the potteries of the United States and those of Europe were found to exist. The general level of costs was considerably higher in the United States. In fact, the lowest cost of production in any American pottery exceeded that of the highest cost of production in any European pottery, except one establishment in Austria.

"4. Competitive prices of American and foreign ware in the United States are not determined solely by the difference in cost of production at home and abroad. Other factors, including customs duties, transportation charges, and incidental expenses are sufficient as shown in the report to offset the difference in cost of production.

"5. Many of the American potteries are poorly situated and the plants are badly arranged, owing to the haphazard character of their development. There are few American potteries that have thoroughly modern plants equipped throughout with up-to-date machinery.

"6. In spite of the fact that the average wages paid in American potteries in the different occupations are higher than those paid in European potteries by from 90 to over 600 per cent, the labor cost per unit of product never shows so great a difference as 82 per cent (except in German china plants). This indicates the greater efficiency of American workmen.

"7. The standard list upon which American potters base their selling price is obsolete. It establishes for different articles selling prices that vary widely from the relative costs of production. Complete revision is necessary before American potters can intelligently sell their ware.

"8. There is a distinct need for more scientific methods of production which can be brought about only by highly skilled instruction and more scientific research work.

"9. Finally, this report has aimed to be constructive in its analysis of the pottery industry. There are means, and these have been pointed out by which the cost of production may be materially reduced. And these costs must be reduced, not only that the American industry may compete with foreign products brought into this market but in order that American products may compete in foreign markets."

The investigation was made in the potteries of England, Germany and Austria, and, in the United States, in 48 establisiments in New Jersey, Ohio, West Virginia, New York, Pennsylvania, Indiana and Maryland. The report deals exhaustively with the mechanical, scientific, labor and marketing processes connected with the industry.

RUSSIAN WHEAT WOULD LOWER PRICE, DECLARED

By Associated Press.

NEW YORK, Feb. 24.—If the Dardanelles should be opened by the allies' fleet, releasing grain from Russia and the Danubian countries, there would be a radical change in the situation which is keeping up wheat prices in the United States," declared C. H. Canby, president of the Chicago Board of Trade, testifying at the state's investigation into food prices.

"It was tremendous demand, not speculation, that put up prices," said Canby.

He knew on the best of authority, he said, that one European belligerent would gladly pay $2 a bushel for 50,000,000 bushels of wheat, if "it could make the purchase," he added.

"The situation is clearing up—what has reached its limit—and by the spring, when the shipments from Canada and Argentina begin, it will be well in hand."

BANKER DIES; BANK SAFE.

By Associated Press.

PONCA CITY, Okla., Feb. 24.—A few hours after C. R. Walterhouse, president of the State Bank of Ponca City, died as the result of a self-inflicted bullet wound examiners of the State Banking Board yesterday took the bank in charge and notified depositors they would be protected from loss under the bank guaranty fund law as soon as a balance could be determined. There was said to be $90,000 deposits in the bank. The assets were not determined. Walterhouse shot himself in the bank Saturday night.

NOT ENVIABLE LUXURY "TO LIVE LIKE A KING"

By Associated Press.

BERLIN, Feb. 24.—"To live like a king" is a phrase that no longer signifies in Prussia an enviable table luxury. Indeed, the emperor and empress always have eaten simply, in comparison with many wealthy Germans, but the war has made the bill of fare at court still simpler.

As early as November the so-called "K bread"—rye bread with an admixture of potatoes—was introduced at court. Since then it has been used daily. When a prohibition of night baking was issued, some weeks ago, fresh rolls immediately were banished from the imperial breakfast table. An egg, some warmed-up rolls and tea or coffee form the breakfast of the empress. At 1 o'clock in the afternoon there is soup and a fish or vegetable course. The evening meal contains one meat, generally one vegetable and potatoes. Often only cold meat and potato salad are served. This menu is but slightly altered when the emperor returns from headquarters, where his fare is of Spartan simplicity.

OREGON NAVAL MILITIA SIGNED BY GOVERNOR

By Associated Press.

SALEM, Ore., Feb. 24.—Governor James Withycombe has signed the bill passed at the recent legislature reorganizing the Oregon naval militia. Early in the session a bill to abolish the naval militia was introduced, but at the urgent request of Secretary of the Navy Daniels the measure which the governor signed today was substituted.

The new law appropriates $15,000; abolishes the present naval board and substitutes a staff to consist of the adjutant general and two commissioned officers.

BEGIN INVESTIGATION AT SANTO DOMINGO

By Associated Press.

SANTO DOMINGO, Feb. 24.—The American cruiser Tacoma, with the Sullivan investigating committee on board, has arrived here. Hearings before the committee began yesterday.

James D. Phelan of California is the special commissioner appointed by President Wilson to investigate the official conduct of James M. Sullivan, American minister to Santo Domingo. He is accompanied by special counsel. He already has held a hearing in the case in New York.

HOTEL ST. REGIS FILES SUIT AGAINST MANAGER

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 24.—The owners of the Hotel St. Regis filed suit for damages to the amount of $10,000 yesterday against W. Gaffney. It is charged that when Gaffney took charge of the management he guaranteed a profit to the owners of $250 monthly. Instead, it is claimed, he has plunged the hostelry into debt to the extent of $6000, refuses to show prospective purchasers over the place and is living there with his family, declining to vacate.

"O. ROSE" AND RAN AWAY.

By Associated Press.

SALEM, Ore., Feb. 24.—Authorities here are endeavoring to identify a young man, suffering from a lapse of mental memory, who, after being taken to a hospital for treatment yesterday, escaped from the institution last night and traveled to Pratnum in his night clothes. Search of his person revealed nothing but a photograph, upon which was written "O. Rose," and which indicated he was an actor.

Trade Mark

It's Different

Don't confuse the SCHAFHIRT ROOFLESS TEETH with bridge or alveolar work. It's different! To have teeth restored by these old-style methods, you must have at least two teeth of your own.

But by the SCHAFHIRT way, if you have lost one tooth, ten teeth or ALL your teeth, I can restore them without a plate over the entire roof of your mouth!

519 Jones St., Oakland.

Dr. Schafhirt:

Dear Doctor:—It gives me great pleasure to send you this little note of appreciation of the roofless teeth you made for me.

The several dentists I consulted before coming to you all said there was nothing for me but to wear a plate over the roof of my mouth, as I had no teeth to fasten alveolar work to and that your method was a fake.

At first it didn't seem to me that you could make teeth without a plate snug and firm in my mouth, as I had no teeth of my own to fasten a set to.

But the teeth are certainly a success. I scarcely realize they are artificial.

With good wishes I remain, Yours sincerely,
MRS. MARY L. MERCHANT.

SOCIAL & PERSONAL HAPPENINGS of DAY in the ISLAND CITY

CLUB WILL BE CONVENTION HOSTESS

BERKELEY, Feb. 24.—With tomorrow the big day for the Alameda District of Women's Clubs and with the launching of the fourteenth annual convention, all lesser club events will be blotted from the calendar. Over 250 delegates, alternates and club officers are expected to participate in the opening ceremonies and in the gay reunions planned by the hostess club—the Twentieth Century in Berkeley. Clubwomen and the interested portion of the public will also be in attendance. Mrs. William Colby will preside over the programs. Mayor Heywood is to open the convention at 2 o'clock with an address of welcome, which will be responded to by Mrs. A. N. Aitken, representing the delegates. Following the preliminary, greeting will be extended from the local board by Mrs. Aaron Schloss; from the Home Association by Mrs. J. F. Solinsky, from the Northern district by Mrs. A. F. Jones and from the San Francisco district by Mrs. Percy S. King.

The first of the scheduled four discussions, "The Study vs. the Civic Club," will then be entered upon, Mrs. Claude Leach and Mrs. F. C. Turner acting as leaders. After a presentation of "The Value to Clubwomen of Parliamentary Law," by Mrs. Annie Little Barry; the second discussion, "Shall the County Lines Bound the District?" will be given attention. Mrs. John Montgomery, Mrs. E. D. Knight and Mrs. J. Barrett are to lead the argument on this topic while comment from the floor will add animation to the question.

At 4 o'clock, after Mrs. Lillian Pray-Palmer has delivered the state president's message, tea will be served to members of the convention by the Town and Gown Club of Berkeley and tete-a-tete conversations will end the afternoon program.

The important opening social event of the convention will be the banquet and reception tomorrow evening in honor of the state and district officers. During this festive affair there will be speeches from Mrs. J. W. Orr, a past state president; from Mrs. Jessica Briggs; from Mrs. John Conant Lynch, past district president and from Mrs. E. G. Denniston of the general federation. Solos will be sung by Mrs. J. Elmer Morrish and at 6:30 o'clock the members and friends of the clubs will join the banquet throng at a reception.

In the Alameda district are forty-six clubs, including organizations from Contra Costa, San Joaquin and Tuolumne counties, so the quota of visiting clubwomen will be large. Many out-of-town delegates will be guests of local clubwomen. Elaborate plans for the entertainment of these guests have been made, but the special attractions of the convention are to be several addresses by distinguished speakers and the Friday evening program which will bring together a brilliant assemblage of representative women and men. Dancing exhibitions, music and reading will comprise the program.

The featured addresses are to be given Friday and Saturday afternoons. On the first of these two days Mrs. May Wright Sewall, peace commissioner for the Panama-Pacific Exposition, will be heard on "The True Spirit of Internationalism." Mrs. William Colby is to speak on "Industrial and Social Conditions," and J. Vance Thompson, the brilliant journalist and author will follow with an address on "The Problem of Unemployment."

Dr. Maria Sanford, distinguished professor emeritus of the University of Wisconsin, will lecture Saturday afternoon on "The Effect of Literature and Art on Character." Dr. Sanford, though in her 79th year, is an active traveler and vigorous speaker. Her lectures two years ago at the University of California summer school, met generous appreciation and made her many friends in the community who will welcome an opportunity to hear her again.

HAPPENINGS IN BRIEF AT STATE UNIVERSITY

BERKELEY, Feb. 24. — Rev. Clarence W. Woodman will address the members of the Newman club this evening, his subject being "The Fellowship of Life."

"Mining Methods in Kimberley," will be the subject of a lecture to be delivered by Gardner F. Williams today in the Mining building at the university. Methods of underground mining, tramming and hoisting will be the division into which his talk will be divided.

Rev. Albert W. Palmer pastor of the Plymouth Congregational church of Oakland, addressed the agricultural club last evening in Agriculture hall, his topic being, "Rural Churches and Their Problems."

Henry W. Prescott, Sather professor of classical literature, delivered the last lecture on the fall of Troy last evening in California hall.

U. C. GLEE CLUB HOLDS ANNUAL ORPHEUM NIGHT

BERKELEY, Feb. 24. — The third annual Orpheum night to be given by the Glee club of the University of California was held in the Oakland Orpheum last night and the program consisted of several numbers by the Glee club, together with the regular weekly bill.

The club has been rehearsing for this event for several weeks and the selections given by them last evening rivaled those of the regular performers. Several numbers given ensemble together with feature stunts and musical selections, both vocal and instrumental, composed the club part of the program.

Senior Memorial Fund To Be Increased By Sophomores

BERKELEY, Feb. 24. — The newly inaugurated presidents of the junior and sophomore classes of the University of California have appointed committees for the semester.

The junior class is looking forward to an informal dance and the members of the third year body are planning on backing the permanent senior memorial fund. Several other junior activities are being planned. Miss Vera Georgeson, president of the class, is spending considerable time in arranging the work of this group for the spring semester.

The sophomores are arranging for an informal dance, a boat ride, a smoker and are also in line to back the senior memorial fund.

The following committees have been appointed by the junior and sophomore class presidents:

Junior Informal committee — M. E. Hazeltine, chairman; S. K. Burke, floor manager; W. T. McFie, C. H. Straub, R. L. Gianelli, Marguerite Raeder, Florence Scott, Fay Watson, Roberta Holmes.

Permanent organization committee — R. B. MacFadyen, J. B. Whitton, R. M. Dorton and L. A. Wadsworth.

Sophomore Informal — C. S. Dimm, chairman; Anna Barrows, Florence Isaacs, Elizabeth Ruggles, A. H. Reynolds, A. L. Maguire, Valerie Foveaux, A. J. Nielsen, E. H. Rogers.

Smoker committee — L. F. Williams, chairman; R. K. Bontz, C. B. Cole, A. N. Earle, F. F. Janney, F. T. Elliot, J. H. Smith.

Debating medal committee — E. H. Herrick, chairman; E. A. Falconer, H. E. Fielder.

LENT SERMON SERIES AT THE NEWMAN CLUB

BERKELEY, Feb. 24.—A special lenten lecture will be delivered in Newman Hall Chapel, Ridge Road and La Loma avenue, Berkeley, this evening at half-past seven o'clock on the subject, "The Fellowship of Life." Rev. Clarence E. Woodman, C. S. P., resident lecturer at Newman Hall, will be the speaker.

At the benediction of the Blessed Sacrament which will follow the lecture, a program of sacred music arranged by Miss Marie Giorgianni, the organist of Newman Hall, will be heard.

TELEPHONE COMPANY CLAIMS SMALL PROFIT

BERKELEY, Feb. 24.—The Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company has filed with the city council its annual statement of receipts and expenditures on which fixing of rates is to be made. The value of the Berkeley plant is fixed at $1,762,000 upon which it is stated a net profit of only $33,5?6 was made last year or 1.8 per cent. The company gives its total operating revenues for the year as $286,765 and expenses of $2??,???.

BERKELEY PERSONALS

BERKELEY, Feb. 24. — Among the passengers on the Lusitania in her recent passage under the American flag were Mr. and Mrs. Allan G. Freeman of this city. The Freemans are visiting friends in England and expect to be away for some months.

At the First Christian church last evening, Miss Ada Cope of this city became the bride of Ralph C. Hess of Riverside in the presence of a large party of guests. Fourteen young people composed the bridal party which preceded the pair to the altar. A reception followed at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. C. W. Starr of Blake street.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles West of Sedalia, Missouri, visitors here for the exposition, were guests of honor Monday evening at a dinner party given by Mr. and Mrs. George H. de Kay of Delaware street.

SPEAKER SOUGHT FOR CHARTER DAY

BERKELEY, Feb. 24.—The anniversary of the founding of the university on its present site will be celebrated on March 23 at the annual Charter Day exercises. A speaker for the day has not yet been chosen. So many men, attracted westward by the exposition, will be available as speakers that President Wheeler has not been able yet to make his selection. An Eastern man of prominence is usually chosen and a number of well known statesmen and educators have been in the list of previous years.

Last years address was made by William C. Redfield, Secretary of Commerce. Others speakers in the past have been Alexander James Bryce, Theodore Roosevelt, Dr. Henry Van Dyke and Sir Richard McBride, premier of Canada.

BERKELEY WOMEN WILL LEARN PROPER WALKING

BERKELEY, Feb. 24.—Miss Violet Richardson, supervisor of physical culture in the Berkeley school department, will give illustrated address tomorrow evening at the Berkeley Women's Gymnasium, 2073 Allston Way, on "Good Posture in Standing, Sitting and Walking." The speaker will enlarge upon the common faults of improper carriage of the body, how they may be avoided and the principles of corrective physical culture. Though designed primarily as an introduction to the work of the gymnasium classes, which begin their tenth term on February 26, it is intended to make the lecture of interest also to the general public, which is invited to attend.

CLUBS TO DEBATE.

BERKELEY, Feb. 24. — The Forum and Assembly, two debating societies of the University of California, will meet this evening in their semi-annual debate. The question for discussion is: "Resolved, That the system of nonpartisan nominations and elections now in vogue with regard to the judicial elections should be extended to all elective offices in the State of California."

This is the first of a series of inter-club debates on subjects of vital interest and the winner of the tournament will be awarded a trophy.

CIRCLE "C" BANQUET.

BERKELEY, Feb. 24. — The Circle C society of the University of California named March 9 as the date on which the members would meet at the semi-annual banquet of this society. A. B. Showalter, M. E. Taylor, and George Hotaling were named as a committee to take charge of the arrangements.

ALAMEDA PERSONALS

ALAMEDA, Feb. 24. — Miss Emilie Lancel has changed the date of her social reception, owing to the demands of the preparation for the presentation by the San Francisco Musical society of Thuille's opera, "Lobetanz," on February 26. Miss Lancel will be at home two days this week, when a score or more friends will be her guests and will be entertained with a group of songs. Tomorrow Miss Audrey Beer will take part in the informal program at the present home of the Henry Lancels, 1102 Page street, San Francisco.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Hilborn are traveling in the east and are in Boston. They will visit New York and other points before returning home.

Mrs. Faris, formerly a member of the school department of this city, but now manager of a fruit ranch at Antelope, near Sacramento, is a guest of Mrs. E. D. Kove, 2301 San Jose avenue.

WAR UNWANTED IS JORDAN'S BELIEF

BERKELEY, Feb. 24.—"Above all nations is humanity," declared Dr David Starr Jordan, chancellor of Stanford University, at Hearst Hall last evening, taking his text from the slogan of the Cosmopolitan Club, under the auspices of which he spoke. The address was in sentiment a continuation of Dr. Jordan's previous addresses here in the cause of peace.

"Our system of nations is on trial," he said. "Our nations must serve the higher aim of humanity or pass on. Internationalism in its last analysis is despotism, and it is the sort of despotism that no honest and faithful people can trust.

"There has been in Europe but one man in a thousand who wanted this war. We who hated and despised it and who, had they known how, would have prevented it. Those who did want it were men whose ancestors for generations back have been nothing but fighters.

"They are tired of playing at war. They want to try out these new man killing machines. They want to shoot at something that wriggles when it's hit. This was the spirit that brought on the war."

He cited the Bosnia, the Morocco and Boer affairs where the great nations were kept from fighting because their large business men and the cooler leaders of the nation had time to act. War's new weapon, the ultimatum, has swept aside these checks and some other means must be found.

"Neither Alexander, Caesar nor Napoleon ever hesitated to claim their wars, he continued, but now a war has come so dreadful that no one dares claim it. Perhaps the horrors of this war will be great enough to prevent any one from starting another for fear of being found out.

"The long cost of this war is that the generations of tomorrow must be bred from the weaklings of today. It may take centuries to recover from it. The greatest virtue of peace is that the fittest survive."

M. L. Woo, president of the club, announced a business meeting to be held next Saturday to revise the club's constitution.

MISSING GIRL WRITES; KEEPS ADDRESS HIDDEN

BERKELEY, Feb. 24.—"I am old enough to take care of myself, so don't worry about me."

Thus writes Miss Julia Wilde, beautiful Russian girl reported missing from her home in East Oakland, to her uncle in this city, Michael H. Ots. Far from solving the mystery of the girl's disappearance or allaying his fears, the letter has but added to his anxiety, and he has asked the police to renew their efforts in search of the girl.

Miss Wilde resided in East Oakland with friends, and left their residence Monday morning to come to Berkeley to accept a position with the family of W. S. Andrews, an attorney, as a domestic. When she did not appear they reported the matter to her relatives who were at a loss to offer an explanation and enlisted the aid of the police.

Miss Wilde had been suffering for some time from illnes from which she had but recently recovered. The effects of this and of an unhappy love affair worried Ots into a suspicion that she might have taken her life. Her letter leaves Ots still in doubt as to the motive behind his niece's mysterious movements, but reassured him that she did not commit suicide as he had feared. She said she was old enough to take care of herself and that he should not worry about her. Ots could not make out the point of mailing, the postmark being blurred. He discovered yesterday that she had drawn her savings, amounting to more than $160 from a San Francisco bank last Friday.

BAG OF COIN TAKEN; MYSTERY IN CRIME

BERKELEY, Feb. 24.—A bag of money, hidden away in a secret corner of the store of Herbert Jones, haberdasher, 2171 Shattuck avenue, was stolen last night by persons for whom the police are searching with several clews to assist them. An element of mystery was added to the burglary by the fact that the cash register, which contained an amount in small coins and which was unlocked, was not touched.

Entrance was effected to the store, it is believed, by a rear window which had been left unlocked despite the orders of Jones to his employes. Nothing in the store was touched with the exception of the bag of money. Jones discovered his loss at opening the store in the morning.

The residence of Mrs. Hattie Oliver at 1923 Bonita avenue was entered through a rear window by a burglar last night and $20 in money stolen. The same or another burglar entered the home of Mrs. P. Hottel of 2222 Bonar street, secured a watch worth $55 and $15 in coins. There is no clew to the intruder in either case. In both instances the family was away from home at the time.

CELEBRATES BIRTHDAY.

ALAMEDA, Feb. 24.—Little Miss Frances Schlagl celebrated her birthday anniversary with a pretty party on Monday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Schlagl, on Pacific avenue. There were sixteen of the young friends of the hostess who has just entered into her "teens" and the entertainment provided for the enjoyable birthday party was greatly appreciated by all. Those who enjoyed the afternoon were the Misses Aileen Conners, Margaret Lawler, Muriel Gamble, Dorothy Bell, Myrtle Corey, Alice Halvorson, Adeline Getz, Gertrude Rawlinson, Pauline Bruzzone, Loretta Heinz, Louise Koll, Minnie Greaves, Edith Lawler, Eugenie Dungan, Adele Schlagl and Adolph Schlagl, with the hostess.

MRS. BAKER ENTERTAINS.

ALAMEDA, Feb. 24.—Mrs. Fred G. Baker was a bridge hostess today, entertaining at her home on Bay street in compliment to her two daughters-in-law, Mrs. Leslie Baker of Fresno and Mrs. Russell P. Baker, who until her marriage last week, was Miss Maude Fischer of this city. Mrs. Baker asked thirty or more of her friends to meet the young matrons who are soon to leave for their homes in the interior of the state.

PROBST PETITION FILED.

ALAMEDA, Feb. 24. — The nominating petition of Councilman Ernest J. Probst was filed yesterday afternoon with the city clerk. Probst aspires to re-election from the seventh ward, which comprises the western section of the city.

LIQUOR EFFECTS NEARLY COST LIFE

Minor Testifies at Hearing Against Saloon Before Alameda Commissioners.

ALAMEDA, Feb. 24.—Following an investigation by the Police and Fire Commissioners last night into the charges brought against the Crescent Bar, it was decided to review the testimony and render the final recommendation to the City Council after another meeting, which will be held at 5 o'clock Monday, March 1st.

Jack Hiester of 1116 Park avenue told the commissioners that he had received liquor in the Crescent Bar and that the effects were so serious that he nearly lost his life. It is claimed that young Hiester is under the legal age to be served liquor, but Jack Jennings, the bartender, stated that the first time Hiester came into the place it was with his father and that he never questioned the age of the boy on this account.

George Caya of 870 Cedar street testified that he had received liquor at the bar under question while intoxicated. He later stated on the cross-examination of District Attorney W. H. L. Hynes that he "was sore at the place and would like to see the license revoked." At this time the boy was about 17. Jennings and Officers Keyes, Rogers and Forbes testified. The evidence will be again weighed and the finding made into a report at the next meeting.

J. R. KNOWLAND'S SISTER COMPLIMENTED AS BRIDE

ALAMEDA, Feb. 24. — Mrs. Lucile Knowland, daughter of Mrs. and the late Joseph Knowland and sister of Congressman J. R. Knowland, with Dr. Robert S. Hill, whose marriage is to be an event of the near future, were the complimented guests at an elegantly-appointed dinner given last evening by Mr. and Mrs. E. K. Taylor at their home at Lafayette street and Santa Clara avenue.

The color scheme was in the orchid and gold tones, with gold baskets of violets and lilies-of-the-valley, and cloth of gold roses tied with tulle of the same shades, formed the table decorations, with corsage bouquets of the same for each lady in the party and boutonnieres for the men guests. The gold candelabra with the shades of the same, completed an exquisite effect with the handsome gowns worn by the hostess and her guests.

During the evening following the elaborate dinner there were music numbers contributed by Miss Rose Harrison, soprano, who was at her best and in brilliant voice, with Harold Hardwick, baritone; and vocal numbers by Mrs. Josephine Swan White were a feature of the delightful evening.

The guests were Mrs. Lucile Knowland, Miss Mollie Conners, Judge and Mrs. Elmer N. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas W. White (Josephine Swan), Mr. and Mrs. Welles Whitmore, Dr. Robert S. Hill and Dalliba Thompson.

POLICE TO STOP SCHOOL NUISANCE

The "Male September Morns" of the Hawthorne school back stop are still on the job! Despite the fact that the Board of Education referred the puzzle of their presence to the playground commission, they appeared again last week. Now the police will be called in to cope with the situation.

M. Sundberg, who complained a week ago that boys used the Hawthorne school back stop as a baseball dressing room, to the considerable embarrassment of the neighborhood, last night informed the Board of Education that this practice was still in vogue and insisted that action be taken. Last week the matter was referred to the playground commission, but no action as taken.

The board suggested that the police be notified pending the construction of a field house at the school by the playground authorities.

Sundberg complains that several baseball teams of larger youths undress and change to their baseball uniforms at the back stop. Several complaints have come from the neighborhood.

Plans for the new Tompkins school were submitted last night by Supervising Architect J. J. Donovan and will be finally passed upon Thursday night by the board. The plans are for an elaborate structure and were made in consultation with the board throughout.

Routine bills will be passed upon at Thursday's meeting, the last of the month, when different financial matters will be disposed of and other business completed.

DOGS INDULGE IN FIGHT AT THE FERRY

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 24.—A harmless-looking shepherd dog, held in leash by a pretty young Marin county belle, and a bulldog of the fighting type, in the care of Dr. Joseph Spottiswood and his brother, Phillip, mixed things at the Ferry building, with disastrous results, yesterday, and in consequence of a sequel to the battle the Spottiswood brothers were arrested and booked for disturbing the peace. Both are prominently known here, and Police Judge Sullivan, although finding them guilty, dismissed the case this morning.

Policeman Guerin, who rescued the shepherd dog, was bitten. Meantime, not knowing the aftermath, the girl took her pet and disappeared through the Sausalito waiting room.

SEEK RATIFICATION.

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 24.—Renewed efforts are to be made by the administration for ratification of the treaties with Colombia and Nicaragua at the present session of Congress. Chairman Stone of the foreign relations committee discussed the situation today with President Wilson before attending a meeting of his committee at which the treaties were considered.

LUMBERMEN IN SESSION.

By Associated Press.

CHICAGO, Feb. 24.—Every branch of the lumber industry was represented at the opening here today of a meeting of lumbermen from all parts of the nation. The meeting was under the auspices of the Forest Product Federation.

OAKLAND AUTHOR TO STAGE OWN PLAYS FOR MOVIES IN ALAMEDA

ALAMEDA, Feb. 24.—Herman Whitaker, Oakland author, is to be a movie playwright. With Alameda as the scene of his plays, save for such scenes as are needed in Mexico, California actors will present film versions of a number of his books, a large studio to be built in Alameda to handle the work.

The studio is to be erected on the former property of the San Francisco-Oakland Terminal railways, on Webster street and Atlantic avenue. "The Planters," a Mexican story, will be the first Whitaker work produced, and following this several other plays will be offered. The company to manufacture the pictures is composed of Californians.

FARM ADVISERS ON NEW PROBLEMS

HAYWARD, Feb. 24.—Farm Adviser W. H. Nixon and his co-workers throughout the state are getting into harness again after the important conference of the staff of the University Agricultural Extension department in Berkeley last week. Eleven farm advisers attended the conclave, which discussed scientific farming. Various subjects concerning agriculture were explained by the staff of the College of Agriculture the last two days of the conference.

Two newly appointed farm advisers, J. W. Mills of Solano county and W. H. Hellemann of Glenn county were present, as were also the farm advisers of Alameda, Yolo, San Joaquin, Humboldt, San Diego, Napa, Ventura, Madeira and Kern counties.

The following program was carried through by the conference:

FORMER HAYWARD BELLE VISITING OLD HOME

HAYWARD, Feb. 24. — Mrs. Howard Reamer, nee Miss Helen Parsons, whose wedding here was one of the social events of last season, is visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. B. Parsons from Fairfield, where Reamer is engaged in engineering work.

Several affairs are being arranged in her honor by her friends. Miss Lorraine Ramage entertained for Miss Parsons at an informal affair at the Ramage home this afternoon. Miss Leone Smith will give an affair at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Smith on Castro street Saturday afternoon in honor of the visitor.

HAYWARD NEWLY-WEDS ON HONEYMOON TRIP

HAYWARD, Feb. 24.—Mr. and Mrs. Henry Mathisen, nee Miss Jennie Christianson, are on a honeymoon in the south following their wedding at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Christianson on lower B street Saturday afternoon. The couple were attended by Miss Annie Christianson, a sister of the bride, and Harold Heningsen of Castro Valley. Rev. B. D. Naylor of the Congregational Church, officiated. The ceremony was witnessed by members of the two families. The newlyweds will make their home here.

VERSES TO ADVERTISE TOWN, SAY BOOSTERS

SAN LEANDRO, Feb. 24.—The latest San Leandro slogan is modeled after "It's a Long Way to Tipperary." Here's the jingle composed by a local club woman, to be used in advertising the town:

It's a short way to San Leandro
Where the flowers and cherries grow;
It's a short way to San Leandro
By the S. P. ferries, go.
Goodbye Exposition.
Farewell Union Square.
It's a short way to San Leandro,
So I'll stay right there.

MAYOR LOSES VOTE ON COUNTY BOND ISSUE

SAN LEANDRO, Feb. 24.—If the million-dollar Exposition bond issue loses by one vote, Mayor J. J. Gill will be vexed. Residents of this city who have moved from one precinct to another since registering and failed to transfer before last Wednesday will not be able to vote for or against the bonds. Mayor Gill was a strong supporter of the proposed bonds. But he moved to his new home on Joaquin avenue and did not transfer in time. Thus he is done out of a vote in the bond issue.

FAME FOR PARADERS.

HAYWARD, Feb. 24.—The Hayward paraders who took part in the Exposition opening day celebrations have since found they were singled out for distinction. They all carried branches of almond, cherry and peach blossoms. The movie camera men filmed this picturesque and novel section of the parade and the Haywardites afterwards saw themselves on the screen in a number of cinema theaters on both sides of the bay.

RASMUSSEN FUNERAL FRIDAY.

HAYWARD, Feb. 24.—Funeral services will be held Friday for Rasmus N. Rasmussen, who died Tuesday morning at his home in Eden Canyon. He was 55 years of age, a native of Denmark. Surviving him are his widow, Mrs. Annie Rasmussen; six brothers and two sisters, Chris Miller of Irvington, Carl A., Hans, Andrew, Nelis, John, Mrs. J. Jorgensen and Mrs. Christine Beu.

CLUBWOMEN ARE DELEGATES.

SAN LEANDRO, Feb. 24.—The Alta Mira Club will be represented at the Federation of Women's Clubs meeting in Berkeley this week by Mrs. H. B. Howell, Mrs. Charles Jeffrey and Mrs. L. F. Langworthy. The alternates appointed by the club are Mrs. Charles Miller, Mrs. D. U. Toffelmier and Miss J. Linderman.

ALAMEDA NOT TO HAVE TENT CITY

Such Is Indication From Passage of the New Ordinance.

ALAMEDA, Feb. 24. — Those who would erect a tent, doll house or dog house on their premises in this city must now apply to the city for a permit, or they will be subject to a fine of $500, or six months in the city jail, or both fine and imprisonment.

This is the result of the passage last evening at the city council of a new ordinance framed to give the city control of the establishment in Alameda of tent cities.

Councilman George W. Stewart voted against the measure. The ordinance was voted for by Councilmen William Hammond Jr., F. H. Bartlett, George T. Morris, A. L. Morgenstern, E. B. Bullock and C. W. MacRae.

There was lengthy discussion concerning the passage of the measure. Residents of the neighborhood of Encinal avenue and Grand street raised their protests against the proposed Oklahoma tent city at that point. J. P. Forbes spoke in favor of the project, declaring that it would be the means of giving Alameda the best publicity. The council had the city attorney alter several of the sections and it was finally adopted, after the various amendments had been adopted seriatum.

PROTEST RESERVOIR.

The health board requested the council to condemn the old reservoir of the Peoples Water company on High street, north of Lincoln avenue, claiming it to be insanitary. The council referred the matter to the city clerk, directing him to communicate with the water company and ask that the reservoir be filled and the nuisance eliminated. The clerk was also directed to ask the water company to have the Chinese clam-digging settlement removed from its property on Fernside boulevard. The city attorney reported that the company is now endeavoring to have the settlement removed, but that the Chinese are fighting the matter in the courts.

The city attorney rendered an informal opinion that the water company can be compelled to extend its service where reasonable, this having been the decision of the Supreme Court. The council filed the opinion.

The council considered the coming municipal election April 12 and the bond election April 14. At the former several initiative amendments are to be voted upon by the electors of the city, one being the proposition of providing a regular relief fund and the other a fund for street improvements.

The council last night decided to ask the voters to pass a measure providing that each year the city make a tax of one cent on each $100 valuation for relief work among the poor and also to ask the adoption of a new law that a certain sum be set aside each year for the repair of streets. The amount of the latter fund was not determined last evening.

SCHOOL BONDS.

The city attorney was directed to provide in the bond election proclamation that $270,000 is wanted for improvements of the Porter, Lincoln, Washington, Longfellow and Everett elementary schools and $30,000 for the High school. For waterfront improvements the following sums will be asked for: Tract 28, located east of the United Engineering Works—Wharf, $122,500; filling, $28,000; warehouse, $5000; hoisting apparatus, $13,000. Grand street—Wharf, $15,000; filling, $3600; warehouse, $4000; hoisting machine, $9500.

An ordinance fixing the grade of north Park street at seven feet was adopted by the council. This will but slightly raise the present grade of the street and is preparatory to the permanent improvements to be made.

An ordinance was adopted requiring that all cement contractors place their name on the work and that it must be passed by the street superintendent.

ACCUSED OF CLAM DIGGING.

ALAMEDA, Feb. 24. — That a writ of habeas corpus will be secured by the attorney for John Davies, who was arrested some time ago for digging clams in the property of Wong Gee, was the phase of the situation introduced at the trial yesterday when Davies was found guilty.

The case hinges on a technicality of law and the sentence has been set for March 1.

IF KIDNEYS AND BLADDER BOTHER

Kidney and Bladder weakness result from uric acid, says a noted authority. The kidneys filter this acid from the blood and pass it on to the bladder, where it often remains to irritate and inflame, causing a burning, scalding sensation, or setting up an irritation at the neck of the bladder, obliging you to seek relief two or three times during the night. The sufferer is in constant dread, the water passes sometimes with a scalding sensation and is very profuse; again, there is difficulty in avoiding it.

Bladder weakness, most folks call it, because they can't control urination. While it is extremely annoying and sometimes very painful, this is really one of the most simple ailments to overcome. Get about four ounces of Jad Salts from your pharmacist and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast, continue this for two or three days. This will neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer is a source of irritation to the bladder and urinary organs which then act normally again.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmless, and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is used by thousands of folks who are subject to urinary disorders caused by uric acid irritation. Jad Salts is splendid for kidneys and causes no bad effects whatever.

ETHICS INVOLVED IN BOND QUESTION

Oakland Business Men Succinctly Present Issue for Coming Election.

"We have come into the work for just the reasons for which we ask the voters to support it, because we think the then Chamber of Commerce did the right thing at the right time in assuring Congress of our interest in California's fight, and because the benefits to come to us from the exposition demand that we help in some larger proportion than the remote counties. We felt that way about it when all there was to the exposition was a series of mud flats. Why should we not feel that way today, when the exposition is a fact and has grown beyond the imagination or dreams of any but those who conceived it."

That concretely expressed the attitude of the Oakland business men toward the million-dollar exposition bond issue to be voted upon March 19. It succintly presents the issue, which is not one of promises or pledges, but one of justice and right.

With the interest in the bonds developing daily, the men who are giving their time and energy to the success of the issue have established general campaign headquarters at 1527 Broadway and a general information bureau at 1427 Broadway.

Of prime importance to the taxpayers of the county is the cost of the bond issue, and this has been computed on figures supplied by the county assessor and discloses that the tax the first year on each $100 assessed valuation will be approximately 3½ cents, while the average yearly tax during the remainder of the term of bond will be 1½ cents.

Encouraging support is developing in all sections. In Oakland the bond issue has received the indorsement of the Oakland Real Estate Association, C. Fred Burks, secretary; the House Movers' Association, D. J. Snell, president; the Wheelmen Athletic Club, M. M. Moffitt president, Frank C. Merrett secretary; the Fourteenth Street Improvement Club, Carl Massey president, B. H. McNutt secretary; the Laundrymen's Club of Alameda County, George B. Ferguson president, George W. Blethen secretary, and the Fruitvale Board of Trade, R. S. Grant president, A. F. Werum secretary.

Not only have these organizations indorsed the issue, but each has pledged its members to get out and work for the success of the bonds. These men feel it to be their duty, and therefore they stand to do what they believe to be just and right and fair.

In Berkeley, Alameda, Albany, Piedmont, Emeryville, Elmhurst, San Leandro, Hayward, Niles, Pleasanton, Livermore and other districts throughout the county movements are under way to establish working committees to get behind the bonds.

JURISTS PASS LIE AT WILSON TRIAL

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 24.—A spirited wrangle, during which the lie was passed, and United States District Attorney John W. Preston and Attorney W. H. Metson crossed verbal shafts until jail was threatened by Federal Judge Maurice Dooling, enlivened the trial of J. C. Wilson, B. A. Wilbrand and Peter Burkett, charged with conspiracy to abstract money from a national depository.

Wellington Gregg, cashier of the Crocker National Bank was on the stand when the lawyers began their wordy wrangle. Back and forth flew hot words until Judge Dooling, curtly declaring that any more display of temper would result in some one going to jail, broke up the argument and ordered that the business of the court be resumed.

Gregg was being interrogated as to the acquaintanceship of Wilson with attaches at the bank. An objection was made to a question by Metson. Preston informed the opposing counsel that he was "conducting the case like a rat."

Metson angrily declared that the entire case was a "frameup" on the part of the government officials and that Preston himself had admitted as much.

Preston jumped to his feet, angrily declaring that he hadn't—and then the judge took a hand in the argument and restored compulsory peace.

Charles F. Baker, former assistant cashier of the Crocker National Bank, was brought from San Quentin to testify in the case, but was not put on the stand. He was removed to San Quentin again after a conference with the United States district attorney's officials.

UNITED IMPROVEMENT CLUBS HOLD MEETING

It the time is opportune to acquire a water supply and distributing system for the east bay cities was the sentiment of the delegates forming the federation of civic organizations known as the United Improvement Clubs east of Lake Merritt.

At last night's session of the federation it was announced that on March 4th a meeting will be held at the Oakland Chamber of Commerce to debate a certain public utilities act presented to the Legislature, an act which would be acceptable to the taxpayers, and under the provisions of which the people of Alameda county could form a municipal water district. Ex-Councilman A. P. Stiefvater, Dr. Carl Walliser and Attorney George Ingraham were appointed delegates to the March meeting, when Mr. Rudolph Spreckels will present his views in reference to the acquisition of the properties of the Peoples Water Company.

The next item brought up for debate was the need of an amended charter for the city of Oakland. Dr. Walliser explained the work accomplished by the charter commission appointed by the Tax Association of Alameda county.

MAKES SURE OF SUICIDE: USES GAS AND BULLET

T. Williams, a laborer committed suicide this morning in his room at the Rex Hotel by turning on the gas and shooting himself in the right side of the head with a new 38-caliber army revolver. The proprietor of the place, Jose Zeidel, says that he knows of no motive for the suicide.

Williams recently moved to the Rex House from one of the other lodging houses owned by the same proprietor, but has not been working for the past few weeks. Nothing is known of his family connections, and he left no information concerning his action.

Williams was taken to the emergency hospital in the hope of saving his life, but he died a few hours after his admission.

TRAVELERS' AID SOLICITS SUPPORT

Society Invades East Bay Cities in Fund Campaign for Local Work.

The army of the Travelers' Aid Society of California is invading the east bay cities in a campaign to raise a sufficient fund to maintain its work in Alameda county. Under the co-operation of the Alameda county auxiliary of the woman's board, Panama-Pacific Exposition of which Mrs. A. C. Posey is chairman, Miss Mollie Conners, vice chairman, and the executive committee of Alameda county, Travelers' Aid, Mrs. L. P. Crane, chairman; Frank W. Bilger, vice-chairman, the work is proceeding. The local committee has been given rooms in the First Savings Bank building at Sixteenth street and San Pablo avenue and it is from there that the active campaign is being directed.

The local Travelers' Aid committee is composed of Mrs. Crane, F. W. Bilger, H. C. Capwell, O. D. Jacoby, F. B. Maiden, Frederick Kahn, Miss Grace Fisher, Mrs. Thomas Hogan, Mrs. J. B. Richardson and Mrs. H. N. Rowell. Miss Dana B. Kinard is acting as campaign secretary. The woman's auxiliary is represented by Mrs. Posey, Miss Conners, Mrs. A. C. Gott, Mrs. William F. Kett, Mrs. Henry Zeimer, Mrs. C. S. Chamberlain.

Already a hearty response is being made to their appeal and prominent men and women throughout the county are sending their checks that the work may be enlarged and carried on this side of the bay.

SOCIETY'S HIGH PURPOSE.

The purpose of the Travelers' Aid is to protect tourists who come to California as strangers, particularly women. This state has the distinction of being the first in which an exposition has been held to offer adequate protection to its women travelers. In this system of safeguarding girls of every station in life guides, information and social service bureaus, endorsed lists of hotels and apartment houses, and whatever aid may be needed by girls alone or with small means, is being prepared. Every incoming train and steamship is being met by aids, who are finding a constant demand from the women tourists.

Whatever is raised on this side of the bay will be expended in local work as the necessity for this sort of services is found to be urgent here. The society is supported entirely by contributions and memberships.

Miss Ida Green, formerly general secretary of the Oakland Young Women's Christian Association, has been elected executive secretary of the society and has her offices in San Francisco. Orin C. Baker, general secretary of the New York society, arrived last week to remain through the year as advisory secretary. He will perfect the work of the Western organization and direct the efforts of the society during the exposition period.

MRS. HEARST PRESIDES.

Mrs. Phoebe A. Hearst is honorary president. Other honorary officers are: Bishop W. F. Nichols, Mrs. Charles Alexander, Mrs. Louis Sloss. The officers are president, M. H. Robbins; vice-presidents, Bishop Hanna, Bishop Hughes, Rabbi Meyer; treasurer, William J. Dutton; secretary, Mrs. William G. Hitchcock; chairman of executive committee, Milton Esberg.

Among the directors from this side of the bay are Wallace Alexander, Warren Olney Jr., Mrs. L. P. Crane, Miss Grace Fisher, H. C. Capwell, Adolph Uhl, O. D. Jacoby.

The following appeal has been issued by the local workers:

Oakland Office, First Savings Bldg.

To Our Friends, the Public: The Alameda county executive committee of the Travelers' Aid Society of California, and the Alameda county auxiliary of the Woman's Board, P. P. I. E., invite the men and women of this vicinity to share with them the opportunity of extending safety and courtesy to the strangers who are coming to us. The history of mighty gatherings such as California will witness this year in toll of misled and misguided women and girls has been tragic.

California is looked to as the state of opportunity which cheapened railroad and steamship fares will make possible. Girls and women alone and with small means, are flocking here by the hundreds. They must come to a safe state and find protection in its men and women. They must be welcomed, warned and guided. There must be no story of thousands of women dropped from life as has happened in other exposition states.

The Travelers' Aid Society of California has burdened itself with this undertaking. The committee of Alameda county is asking that a sum be raised sufficient to carry on the work in its own territory. The campaign has opened. It is your privilege as well as ours to assist. We ask that you contribute what you can, believing that you cannot afford to disregard this appeal.

Checks may be sent direct to our depository, the First Savings Bank of Oakland. Monthly contributions, gifts and memberships are asked for. Sincerely yours in the work.

COBURN ROBBER CAUGHT: VOGEL CLEW ELIMINATED

John Barnet, wanted by Sheriff Barnet on a warrant charging him with burglary in connection with the robbery of J. C. Coburn's store in Emeryville two months ago, is under arrest in Sacramento, according to information received by the Oakland police today.

With the location of Barnet, one of the persons sought by the police in connection with the murder of Jacob Vogel and his wife on February 12 last has been eliminated as a possible suspect. Barnet has been under arrest in Sacramento since January after he was caught in the act of boring a hole in the floor of a pawnbroker's establishment.

William Brown, a youthful companion of Barnet, who confessed that he had burglarized the Coburn store, is in the county jail here awaiting action on his request for probation. Brown named Barnet as his pal in the Coburn robbery.

After the robbery Brown was given a position in the store by Judge Coburn but a slip of the youth's tongue before Marshal Edward Carey of Emeryville to the effect that he had committed the robbery, brought about his arrest in spite of the fact that Coburn had forgiven him. Brown sought to find Barnet, following a second robbery of the Coburn store, but his companion had fled.

Deputy Sheriff Edward Sweeney will go to Sacramento today for the purpose of interviewing Barnet who is fighting the charge against him there.

CIVIL SERVICE BOARD HEARS COLLINS' APPEAL

Testimony concerning an altercation on the waterfront which led to the discharge of H. J. Collins as foreman on harbor work was given before the civil service board last night at a hearing of the appeal made by Collins against the action of Commissioner of Public Works Harry S. Anderson. Collins was discharged for insubordination and inefficiency. The case was continued after a lengthy hearing to obtain certain documents that would throw light on the case. Collins was represented by Attorney James P. Montgomery.

COLORADO TEMPERANCE BILL PASSES HOUSE

By Associated Press.

DENVER, Feb. 24.—The house of representatives by a vote of 62 to 0 finally passed the temperance bill today for the enforcement of the state-wide prohibition constitutional amendment. The bill differs from the measure passed by the senate in that it would prohibit the sale of liquor by drug stores or by any other agency or individuals. The measure will be sent to conference.

Religion of Labor Movement.

According to Keir Hardie, labor leader and member of the parliament of Great Britain for an extended term, captains of labor and of socialism in Europe have "been discovering that behind nature is a power, beyond death must be something, else were life mere wastage." As a result Hardie declares the driving power behind the labor movement in Europe must be the Christian religion. "In the gospel," says Hardie, "we must find our charter. If I were thirty years younger I would proclaim anew the full message of Jesus. We are off the track. What is wanted is a fresh version of the truth that Christ gave His life to proclaim."

There have been many comments on this utterance and others of like character made by men of prominence in the European labor movement. The statement has been declard as one of the most significant since the thesis of Luther, the Declaration of Independence and the French proclamation of the rights of man. It contradicts the theory of Marx that "the idea of God must be destroyed," and the assertion of Engels, that "the first word of religion is a lie."

The position assumed by Hardie is much more easy of adaptation than that of either Marx or Engels, for, since the time man awoke to his first faint dream of Deity there has been a feeling existent that this life is not all there is of existence and that if perchance it should be, many of us are being cheated all of the time. It is difficult to see the justice of a condition that would obliterate altogether the man who has lived a lifetime of drudgery and reward him with no further opportunity after he passes out.

But even if that should be the correct premise and after this there should be nothing, the inspiration of religion, particularly that of the Nazarene, would have a beneficial effect on human endeavor and would tend to equalize conditions now altogether unequal. The rigid application of the second of the great commandments expounded to the lawyer:

"Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself," would, if universally adopted, solve every ill afflicting the body politic. For, it follows that after the universal adoption of that precept, there would be no oppression by man of his neighbor, no unfair dealing, no taking advantage of misfortune. The human race would be one great and happy family.

But when we add to the application of that principle the belief that by pursuing a course of conduct in consonance with it we shall not only live better lives here and be happy in the possession of the knowledge that we have made others happy, there awaits us a new existence in which still greater achievement will be ours it is not difficult to determine the effect both will have on human life, nor to decide the motive inspiring Hardie to speak as he has spoken.

Statistics show that 872.9 persons of each 100,000 of the population of Washington, D. C., are insane. Doubtless mad because they failed to land positions under the administration.

The St. Louis Post-Dispatch puts a scare head over the ennouncement that fourteen jitney buses are now operated in that city. Fourteen! Huh! Oakland's police force arrested twenty-five Monday for violating the ordinance and made no perceptible difference in the number still in operation.

Better Housing Conditions.

The exhibit of photographs of the best types of homes for workingmen, gathered east under the auspices of the Commission of Immigration of Housing of California, on exhibition in the city council chamber in the Oakland city hall, is worthy of inspection.

The eastern states have recently awakened to the fact that the homes of its toilers are not what they should be in the matter of light, air, sanitation and general conditions and in hundreds of instances the old tenements, not fit for animal, much less human habitations, are giving place to clean and well ordered dwellings.

California has refrained in a large measure from building tenement houses on the plans formerly obtaining in states on the other side of the Mississippi, and even farther westward, and the presentation of the pictures alluded to, together with explanatory matter accompanying them, is indulged in by the state commission for the purpose of showing the superiority of the new method as compared with the old, thus giving property owners information that will enable them to avoid falling into error.

Adverse conditions eastward have been due in a large measure to lack of space on which to build in the best manner possible for the comfort and health of tenants. But here in California where there is so much room, conditions prevailing in other sections of the country can be evaded. The general trend of suggestion is that in addition to light, air and sanitation in buildings there shall also be provided small areas of ground which can be utilized by tenants to good effect, either as flower gardens, vegetable gardens or playgrounds for little children or all three, thus making life more worth living, and also to provide for a plan by which homes can be secured on a plan similar to the payment of rent, thus affording the worker encouragement in securing a home of his own according to his means.

The showing is a creditable one and well worthy the attention of prospective builders of homes for rental or sale.

Secretary Bryan says every man should own the newspaper for which he writes. The logical conclusion following analysis of this statement is that if applied this rule would transfer the ownership of The Commoner to Dick Metcalfe, Mr. Bryan's associate.

Child Labor Law Passes House.

By an indirect attack the national house of representatives has evidently found a way to make an anti-child labor law effective. Congress lacks the power to enact a statute that will directly apply to the several states, but it has power to regulate inter-state commerce. Hence the bill recently passed provides that the products of mines or quarries produced in whole or in part by children under sixteen years of age, and the products of other industries employing children under fourteen years of age, shall not be shipped beyond the borders of the states in which the industries are located.

The first provision alluded to strikes at the anthracite coal industry of Pennsylvania, where boys of tender years have been employed since mining began to be profitable as "slate pickers," the little fellows being charged with the duty of sorting the slate from the coal as the material passed down the chute to the monkey rolls. Formerly the hours of labor of these boys were much longer than now and their duties more arduous, but even under improved conditions the life of the little slate picker is not an enviable one. With the abolition of the juvenile element wages for this work will rise and there is little doubt that the prices of anthracite will be advanced and the ultimate consumer will find additional weight in his burden of expenses.

However, it is not fair to presume that the mass of ultimate consumers will protest this increase when it serves so worthy a purpose.

With respect to other industries there are so few of them employing child labor who do not engage in interstate business that this law will operate almost universally in forbidding the transmission of goods that the factories will be obliged to suspend child labor or go out of business.

As will be the case with the coal industry, the other manufacturing interests will be affected in a manner calculated to advance prices for reasons that are obvious and need no discussion. But conditions will adjust themselves in time and the advantages derived by industries now employing children over those in states that have forbidden such employment will no longer exist. All this presumption being based on the action of the senate in passing the measure, which it doubtless will, although doubtless not at this session.

AFTER A DAY ON THE ZONE

BY THE OAKLAND TRIBUNE CARTOONIST.

TWENTY YEARS AGO TODAY

The convention of delegates from the local labor unions called for the purpose of declaring whether or not organized labor should endorse any of the local candidates now in the field, was held in the hall of the Federation of Trades. Messrs. W. D. Powers, R. M. J. Roberts and E. M. Bernstein were appointed a committee on credentials. A. J. Read was elected chairman and J. W. Lattimer secretary. A resolution was introduced and adopted, declaring that organized labor had decided that it must take its grievances to the ballot box and stand shoulder to shoulder in order to receive proper recognition and to vote only for such candidates, regardless of party, as are known to be favorable to organized labor.

Hermann has realized the fondest hopes of Oakland's theater-goers, and of Manager Charles Cook of the Macdonough theater. The beautiful playhouse was packed to the doors and hundreds turned away. Hermann is a phenomenon. His tricks are marvelous. "The Asiatic Trunk Mystery" is the best thing of the kind Hermann has ever produced. Madame Herman executes some spectacular dances that are beautiful.

A new lodge of the Knights of Macabees, called the Oakland Tent, has been organized. The charter in Oakland has started with a membership of about twenty-five. Sir Knight Commander Dr. Brinkerhoff was elected chief and Frank J. Mitchell was chosen lieutenant-commander.

Professor Putzker of the State University has recovered from his recent illness.

Marriage licenses were issued to the following: Frederick James Russell and Nellie Potter Morrill, both of Hayward; Charles E. Young and Mary C. Ainsworth, both of Oakland; Thomas Wilson Bratton and Mary Agnes Maloney, both of Oakland.

"Contempt" by Publication

The publication of cartoons, editorials and news comments on a case pending in court has led to the fining of the Toledo News-Bee $75 and the writer $[illegible], by Judge John M. Killits of the federal court of that district. The action of the judge is in direct defiance of American principles of jurisprudence, the right to comment on pending cases always having been successfully insisted on by the American press. The law in England is different. We venture the guess that the fines will never be paid, and that the higher United States courts will not [illegible] at this or any other time that sort of assault on the freedom of the press guaranteed as the United States constitution.

The correct American view was taken [illegible] a few months ago by Judge Anderson of the federal judiciary in Indianapolis. A newspaper had made [illegible] of a grand jury investigation in a state court. The judge of that court had [illegible] the publisher and the writer arrested for "contempt." Judge Anderson granted a writ of habeas corpus, sustained the writ, discharged the prisoners, and notified that state judge that he would hear from him if he took any further action. No further action was taken, and the rights of Americans were thus vindicated by the national authority.

Courts have enough to do in trying cases. Judges may as well abstain from attempting to edit newspapers. If they were ever to succeed in such usurpation nobody would read the newspapers.—Brooklyn Eagle.

Optimistic and Otherwise

PREFERS SOUNDLESS LIBERTY BELL.

Hanford's Sentinel disagrees with THE TRIBUNE in its plea for recasting the famous Liberty Bell, using the following argument:

"Recast the Liberty Bell and you have an imitation of the real thing. Change it in the slightest particular from its historic condition and you change that around which clusters some of the most inspiring of revolutionary memories. We love the bell for its associations, crack and all. We gaze on it with the same awe as we gaze on the little cannon exhibited at the top of Bunker Hill monument, the same cannon which helped to make possible the independence of America. The bell has fulfilled its mission. No longer is there need of inspiring the spirit of independence. The old bell deserves a soft bed on which to rest through the coming ages. Let the good old bell moulder into atoms if so be it. Time brings such changes, but never let us alter one iota the Tongue of our Independence."

Following the same line of reasoning, there should have been no reprint of the Declaration of Independence following the destruction by exposure to light and air of the original copy. As this paper remarked, the bell has been recast twice already since its purchase in England, and if the arguments of the Sentinel in this respect are correct, it is twice "an imitation of the real thing." Of course we all love the bell, crack and all, but we would love it better if we could hear the same tone that proclaimed the signing of the Declaration on that famous day in July, 1776.

NO REST FOR NEWSPAPER MEN, HOWEVER.

Visalia's Times, alluding to the number of holidays in this month, after enumerating four Sundays, four Saturday half holidays, Lincoln's Birthday, Washington's Birthday and the opening of the exposition, opines that State officials have the best of the remainder of us poor mortals, newspaper men included.

POKER DEALER SOME ARTIST.

Reports from Knoxville, Tennessee, relate that in a poker game between business men, one player held a straight flush against another man's royal flush and that a fellow from New York "broke" a native in the betting. It would be interesting to know which one of them dealt.

CAPITAL OPERATION ON CUSH.

The Middletown reporter for the Napa Callistogan says: "A capital operation was performed yesterday in Lower Lake upon a man named Cush, who swallowed a needle backwards." Cush or the needle?

FATHER SPOILED THE STORY

Harvey E. Garman is private secretary to Representative Rucker, and a Democratic member of the legislature from Denver. He was once a newspaper man but got discouraged early in his career.

"I worried along as a reporter for a week," says Mr. Garman. "I didn't get anything very startling into the columns of my paper, it's true, but at the end of the first week I thought my fortune was made. One of my friends told me of the intended elopement of a girl of a prominent family. She was going to marry a man much below her in social position. It was an event that would set the town by the ears, and I told my city editor I had a sensation to spring on a set date. After the date had passed he asked me about it.

"'Oh, it's all off now,' I answered. 'The story is dead.'

"'What's the matter?' he asked. 'What was it about?'

"I told him of the projected elopement and added, 'But there's nothing in it now. The girl's father showed up with a shotgun and spoiled the story.'

"After the city editor had finished commenting on my 'news sense'," Mr. Garman said, "I decided to forsake journalism for politics."

MORE ARTISTIC COINAGE

A movement has been started by the New York Numismatic club looking to the adoption by the government of better and more artistic designs for our silver coinage. The chairman of that organization, who has been quite active on previous occasions in working for changes in the fashion of our hard money, brings a rather heavy indictment against that which is in most general circulation. He passes by without comment the Saint Gaudens eagle and double-eagle, which have been a product of the mint since [illegible] in the new century, but thinks there is room for considerable criticism of Bela L. Pratt's half and quarter eagles, which present a dull and indefinite appearance after being in use for some time. The buffalo 5-cent piece is too inconsequential to be either praised or abused, but he declares that "after all the attempts of our government to improve our coinage, the most abominable products of our mints, the half-dollar, the quarter and the dime, remain. The figure of Liberty on the coins is a mere caricature. The head as it appears at present is an insult both to the Goddess of Liberty and to the beauty of American womanhood," while the figure on the reverse he characterizes as "that nondescript called an eagle."—Boston Transcript.

COSTS MONEY TO STOP TRAINS

"Let 'em stop. It don't cost them much," is an expression that is often heard in railroad circles, not so much among railroad men themselves as among the people on the outside. According to a signal engineer of the Frisco, who has investigated the matter on his own account, simply to learn how much it costs to stop a train has figured it out that stopping a train of 540 tons and returning to a speed of 30 miles an hour is 42 cents. The cost of stopping a train of 2000 tons from 35 miles an hour is $1.

The official has figured that each stop of a six-car passenger train from 45 miles an hour costs 35 cents each. To stop a 1500-ton train traveling at fifteen miles an hour costs 35 cents. The time that is lost in making a stop on a level straight track he has estimated at 145 seconds.—Springfield (Mo.) Republican.

EIFFEL TOWER'S DURABILITY

Not long ago the Eiffel Tower celebrated its twenty-fifth birthday, and no doubt a lot of Parisians looked up from their war bulletins long enough to remark that it was pretty tall for its age. The Eiffel Tower is still the standing joke of Paris.

If this tallest of all man-made structures possessed the human senses, it could tell an absorbing story. For a quarter of a century it has braved the elements, shrinking in the cold and expanding in the sun, the most extended thermometer [illegible] many degrees known to man. From its summit twice a day Greenwich mean time is sent out by wireless telegraphy, and the timeless chronometers are thereby regulated.

Scientists have found it useful in ascertaining variations of atmospheric pressure, and the result of their observations shows that the tower is a mighty barometer as well as thermometer. It offers the means for many other observations of an interesting nature.

In short, the great structure, which was designed as a world's fair wonder, a public attraction, a show feature, a marvel, a toy, has developed factors of scientific value of which it is doubtful if the ambitious designer ever dreamed.

Now it passes its quarter-century birthday, erect, rigid, sound in brace and bolt. Long may it stand.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

OF INTEREST TO MERE MEN

But the [illegible] we are better worth showing off from the waist up. "Waistcoats should be decidedly shapely, with a collar, and should define the figure sharply. Coats should be [illegible] and of moderate length, more shapely than the Chesterfield [illegible] to be [illegible] to the waistline when made of coarse fabrics and either fly front or double breasted." We fear the tight, "shapely" style will prove a bit cruel to the old naturally double-breasted good livers with five fronts—yet these look 'swell' in any kind of clothes.

'CHURCH MADE AT BANQUET:' WHEELER

"The difference between John the Baptist and the man of Nazareth was that John the Baptist was an ascetic with a sour face, who stayed away from people and who didn't dance because he thought dancing was off color. The man of Nazareth was a man of the world, in touch with all its needs.

"The fact that St. Paul did not go to baseball games was simply due to a lack of differentiation. The son of man came eating with people at their dinners," declared Dr. Benjamin Ide Wheeler in a colorful speech last night at the Y. W. C. A.

Incorporated with these comments on religion he added that the important person in an achievement was its maker, and that the name that should be known to the public is not that of the donor, but of the creator.

With five hundred people seated at its friendly board the "human" dedication of the new Webster street Young Women's Christian Association took place last evening. All the "at homes" in which the public were received with music and welcome and personally conducted tours through the edifice were a preface to the dinner which finally launched the establishment on its career of hospitality.

There were girls in shirt waists and women in evening dress. There were men in all the severe glory of evening dress and men in the beloved business tweeds, but good-feeling and warmth made the occasion auspicious, while sartorial discrepancies blended in one delicately spectacular whole in the setting provided by the chaste interior of the court.

One special event of the evening was the election of Miss Julia Morgan, the architect, to honorary life membership—the highest tribute in the bestowing power of the organization. Another climax was an ovation to Miss Grace Fisher, president of the association and the presiding officer of the banquet. A third was the witty sermon of Dr. Wheeler.

Beginning with a reception in the foyer, the gathering broke up with a general chorus. From 6 o'clock to 6:30, while the throng poured in, the association orchestra, directed by George Smith, played in the mezzanine gallery. At 6:30 the dinner began, the officers and directors seated in the court, while the major part of the throng filled tables that crossed the spacious cafeteria in long unbroken lines.

Arrangements of daffodils and fern, combined with the green and gold of candle shades, carried out the colors of the association. In the court, which had the look of a classical feasting hall done in pastel, a round table in the center accommodated the officers and guests of honor while the directors sat at rectangular tables across the court corners and long tables down the arcades.

During the dinner the Tokalon Club, which was celebrating its birthday, together with a number of the other girls' clubs connected with the Y. W. C. A., sang club songs to popular airs. Mrs. Fred C. Turner, presiding as toastmistress from a low platform in the entrance of the square, introduced Dr. Benjamin Ide Wheeler as the first speaker.

What the president of the University of California had to say might have caused more than a stir but for the manner of it. In his best and wittiest form he expressed himself on Christianity, good taste and creative achievements.

"The Christian church grew out of a banquet," he commented, after saying that social life was essential to religion. "Oxford University grew out of a kitchen. For a kitchen is the most human thing there is."

For the reason that the son of man "came eating with people at their dinners," he said, "he felt that a large and congenial dinner party was quite the appropriate, human and symbolical manner of dedicating a modern expression of Christianity such as the new Young Women's Christian Association."

"The Man of Nazareth was a man of the world," he pronounced. "He was a man of the world in touch with all its needs. The difference between him and John the Baptist was that John the Baptist was an ascetic with a sour face, who stayed away from people, and who didn't dance because he thought dancing was off color."

To this description of the originator of the Christian religion as a social being, President Wheeler added remarks on the social character of Christianity that rivaled Billy Sunday in piquancy, though grammatically less sensational.

NO Y. W. C. A. THERE.

"There is no mention of the Young Women's Christian Association in the Epistles of Paul. There is no mention of dumb-bells in the Epistles of St. Paul, but there they're, just the same. The fact that St. Paul didn't go to baseball games was simply due to a lack of differentiation. Modern Christian religion had been differentiated, like education, to fit the needs of human life," he said, tracing the spreading and adaptation of religion through the centuries. "In becoming social it simply went back to the spirit in which it was evolved."

Condemning Protestantism that is somber and anti-social as a failure, President Wheeler pronounced the building a modern application of Christianity, out of the mechanism of the church, as a clear-cut need. He paid a tribute to Miss Julia Morgan, the architect. At the same time he expressed himself on the importance of the creative artist in the scheme of things.

SHOULD HONOR MAKER.

"Not the givers of money, though they are essential—but the makers—are those we should honor," he said. "I always think of the good taste and sense of fitness shown by James Phelan in giving the football statue to the university. When he first saw it he discovered his own name in large letters as the donor on the front, while Douglas Tilden's in small letters was hidden on the back. 'No,' he said, 'Tilden's name belongs in front here. Put mine, if you like, in the other place.'

"How many people know who was the creator of the Greek theater? How many people know who was the architect of the Sather campanile?"

Miss Thirnuthis Brookman, girls' secretary for the national board at the Exposition Y. W. C. A., appealed to the banqueters for aid in protecting the girls at the Exposition, and in assisting those out of employment to find positions. She added a dramatic plea to "clean up San Francisco" and to pass charter amendment number 24. Miss Brookman, who is investigating conditions on the Zone, said that conditions there were superior morally to those "downtown. "But," she said, "we've got to stop the laughter of the older woman at the show that isn't decent. We want the visitors to hold on for the sake of the girls."

When Miss Fisher was called on for a resume of the past year the hundreds filling court rose and waved their handkerchiefs in applause. After explaining the difficulties that had been overcome, and expressing gratitude to the bank and the many who had helped, she agreed with Dr. Wheeler that Miss Morgan, whose "rarely combined vision and practicality" had architecturally realized the association's idea, was the "genius of the undertaking."

Mrs. Walter Henry then rose and proposed that Miss Morgan be made an honorary life member, and a unanimous vote was immediately taken. The evening concluded, after a prophecy of a successful 1915 by Miss Marion Hopkins, the general secretary, with the singing of a specially written song.

On the reception committee, which included many of the most prominent Oakland women, were the following: Mrs. Frank Havens, Mrs. J. B. Richardson, Mrs. Walter Henry, Miss Charlotte Playter, Mrs. Samuel Breck, Mrs. John J. Valentine, Miss Mollie Conners, Mrs. O. E. Hotie, Miss Grace Fisher, Mrs. C. M. Hill, Mrs. L. G. CITY CO-OPERATION IS STATE PLAN

MAYORS MAY ORGANIZE UNION

OAKLAND EXECUTIVE ADVANCES IDEA

MAYOR CHARLES F. O'NEALL AND MRS. O'NEALL, WHO WERE GUESTS OF MAYOR FRANK K. MOTT.

Team work among the mayors of California cities was the theme of a talk between Mayor Mott of Oakland and Mayor Charles F. O'Neail of San Diego when Mayor O'Neall was entertained here and taken for a tour of inspection of the city. Mayor Mott entertained Mayor O'Neall at luncheon at the Hotel Oakland and later took him for an automobile ride, during which the city hall, the municipal auditorium, the technical high school and other places of interest were visited.

The two mayors discussed the desirability of greater harmony and co-operation among the executives of the cities of California. A tentative plan was formulated to bring the mayors into closer association with each other.

SIMILAR PROBLEMS.

"The cities of California will have the same problems to meet as a result of the opening of the Panama canal and the influx of immigrants," explained Mayor Mott. "Mayor O'Neall and I visited the splendid exhibition prepared by the state immigration and housing commission now on display in the council chambers at the city hall. The mayor was greatly interested.

"Municipalities must plan ahead, to meet the problems and be ready with an intelligent solution. The day of letting things go has gone by forever in American cities.

"A great step forward will be made when cities realize the value of establishing industrial and residential zones. Small shacks and little homes that have remained in districts that have become strictly industrial must not be allowed to block industrial progress. On the other hand, industries, factories and similar businesses must not be permitted to establish themselves in residential districts."

BUILDINGS PRAISED.

Mayor O'Neall expressed the highest admiration for the city hall, auditorium and technical high school.

"You are doing great things here," said Mayor O'Neall. "Living so near, where he can see what you are doing, I wonder that Mayor Rolph does not come to Oakland to live."

The value of the municipal auditorium to the city was spoken of by Mayor O'Neall.

"People are inclined to lay emphasis on its value as an advertising feature," he said. "But it has even greater value as an educational center, to raise the taste of people, and to give them an opportunity for intelligent and uplifting recreation."

FOUR MAYORS ARE GUESTS.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 24.—The Down Town Association played host at luncheon today to Mayor Charles O'Neall of San Diego, Mayor H. H. Rose of Los Angeles and Mayor Frank K. Mott of Oakland. The three mayors, together with Mayor James Rolph Jr. of this city, were given seats of honor about the board set at the St. Francis Hotel and more than 100 business men of the city were in attendance to welcome the visitors and assure them that all the bay cities were glad to see them and hoped that they would take back good reports of the fair and the country.

Frank Turner presided and there were a number of toasts, one of which was responded to by Byron Mauzy, who was chairman of the luncheon committee. Each of the mayors in turn gave a short talk.

Oakland Boy Shot In Gun Accident

While examining a 32-caliber automatic revolver last night, Folmer Peterson, 16 years old, living at 993 Fifty-fourth street, was accidentally shot in the chest by the weapon in the hands of his cousin, another youth. The accident occurred in the Peterson home at 993 Fifty-fourth street, about 9:30 o'clock. An hour later young Peterson, accompanied by members of his family, appeared at the emergency hospital for treatment. Following an examination by Drs. Irwin, Reinie and Cone it was found that the bullet had entered below the collarbone on the right side and emerged at the back of the neck. The police were notified of the accident and after investigating the affair, appeared satisfied that it had occurred as related by the boys.

Convict 36 Plumbers Under Sherman Law

By Associated Press.

DES MOINES, Feb. 24.—Thirty-six master plumbers who have been on trial here since February 10 on charges of violating the Sherman anti-trust law, were convicted by a jury in federal district court today. Judge John C. Pollock will pass sentence later.

SHOOTS WIFE AND WOUNDS HIMSELF

Angered at Divorce, San Leandran Attempts to Commit Murder.

SAN LEANDRO, Feb. 24.—With four bullet wounds in her body, two of them through her lungs, inflicted by her husband, physicians at the county infirmary despair of saving the life of Mrs. John Foster. Her condition today is critical. Her husband, who afterward turned the revolver on himself, will recover.

The shooting occurred last night at the Stenzel ranch, where Mrs. Foster had gone to live with her brothers, Frank and Joseph Enos, after obtaining a divorce from her husband yesterday. Carrying out his expressed intention of killing his wife, Foster, who is a member of a well-known San Leandro family, followed her to the ranch and fired four shots at her, afterward turning the revolver on himself before officers, hot in pursuit, could intercept him. The 5-year-old daughter, clasped in Mrs. Foster's arms at the time of the shooting, escaped unharmed.

BROODS OVER DIVORCE.

Foster had been brooding over a divorce decree granted his wife by Judge Waste in Oakland yesterday on the grounds of cruelty. He purchased a revolver and, becoming intoxicated, told acquaintances about town he intended to shoot himself and his wife. Shortly before the shooting he walked into the store of Vincent Cardoza and repeated his threats. Cardoza at once got into communication with Marshal Joseph Peralta, who set out after Foster.

Before he could be located Foster walked out to the Stenzel ranch, where his wife was staying with her brothers. He knocked at the door and was admitted. Mrs. Foster was sitting at the fireside with a friend, Mrs. Mary Andrade.

"I am going to kill you," he announced, calmly. "Lay down that child."

Clasping the child closer to her, Mrs. Foster did not answer, but started to run. Foster opened fire, the bullets hitting Mrs. Foster in the back, chest, arm and right hand. Shielded by its mother's body, the little girl, Florence, escaped the bullets.

SHOOTS HIMSELF.

Foster leveled the revolver at his own head, but his aim was bad. The bullet took a roundabout course and emerged without inflicting fatal injury.

Under the impression he was dead, Mrs. Andrade sent in a call for assistance, and neighbors removed Mrs. Foster to the county infirmary. After giving the woman assistance and probing for bullets, Dr. C. A. Wills asked for her husband. He was told Foster was dead. When taken later to the hospital, however, it was found that his wounds were only superficial.

Foster, who lives on Dutton avenue, is well known here. His wife was the daughter of a San Leandro rancher. She started her suit for divorce six months ago. She accused her husband of unjustly charging her with associating with other men and said that on one occasion he attacked a neighbor, declaring he had been too friendly with her.

Deputy District Attorney A. A. Rogers represented Foster in the divorce proceedings and effected a property settlement. Foster did not contest the suit and Mrs. Foster was granted her decree yesterday and permission to use her maiden name of Minnie Enos.

"I learned Foster had a revolver and had threatened to use it, and I started out to intercept him, but could not locate him in time," said Marshal Peralta. "I did not know where Mrs. Foster was stopping at the time and, before I could find out, still further delay was caused, in which time Foster had made his way to the Stenzel ranch and had carried out his purpose."

RUN DOWN BY AUTO.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 24.—Holding an umbrella over his head in a downpour of rain, Patrick O'Brien, a miner from Colusa, temporarily stopping at 17 Jackson street, essayed to cross Market street at 4 a. m. and was run down by an Owl jitney. The driver, Abraham Burr, picked him up, took him to the harbor hospital. He was treated for concussion of the brain, a lacerated eye and a lacerated scalp. Burr was booked for battery by Officers Joyce and Jurgens.

CAPITALIST DIES OF INJURIES.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 24.—Addison Merserau, retired capitalist, 82 years old, who resided at 2230 Mission street, died at St. Joseph's hospital this morning. He was struck by a jitney bus on Monday night.

TRUST CASE PUT AHEAD.

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 24.—The government's anti-trust suit against the International Harvester Company was advanced today by the Supreme Court for argument on April 5.

A WAY TO PREVENT FORGETTING

Good News for Wearers of Glasses.

Many mornings you arrive at the office, take off your distance glasses and search for your reading glasses, only to find that you have left them home—forgotten them. Evenings at the theater you discover that you have brought your reading glasses instead of distance. It's very annoying and disappointing, to say the least. Now, here's the remedy: Wear the new patented "Caltex Onepiece" Bifocals, made from one single piece of optical glass, which combines both reading and distance glasses in one lens. They do not look different than regular glasses, but the pleasure and comfort derived from them cannot be over-estimated. Ground only by the California Optical Company at their three establishments, 1221 Broadway, Oakland, and 151 Post street and 2508 Mission street, San Francisco. —Advt.

SHOTS FAIL TO CHECK SUSPECTS

Police Pursue and Fire at Three Men in the Streets.

Shots were fired by the police in a man hunt through the streets early this morning near the scene of the murder of Jacob Vogel and his wife two weeks ago. Three men were seen lurking about the place, and when the police approached them they ran. A chase over back fences and through vacant lots followed, in which the police fired nine shots at the fleeing men, but apparently without any of the missiles hitting the mark.

It is thought possible that the men were members of the gang which has been terrorizing the Fruitvale and Melrose districts and who are believed to have committed the Vogel murder, the attack upon Thomas Combs and the robbery of Mrs. Alice Chope.

Chief of Police Petersen admitted today that he has obtained information which has thrown considerable light on the Vogel murder mystery. He refused to make known the information, but stated that it had made it possible for the police to work out a satisfactory theory of the manner in which the banker and his wife were murdered in their home, 3108 Galindo street.

The chief indicated that he might be able to make public certain facts in his possession within a few days.

The police were placed on the alert last night when A. Souza, a harnessmaker, informed them that he had seen two men attempting to force the lock of Gier's saloon, Thirty-fourth avenue and East Fourteenth street. When Souza approached the men ran away and disappeared in the darkness. Souza reported the fact to the Melrose police about 3 o'clock this morning. Lieutenant William Woods gave orders to his men to be on the lookout for suspicious characters.

While standing at the corner of East Fourteenth street and Fruitvale avenue, which is not far from the scene of several of the crimes committed in this district, Patrolmen Habernig and Anderson saw three men coming north on Fruitvale avenue. The three were stealing quietly along the street, taking advantage of the shadows to conceal themselves. When they saw the policemen they started to run, pursued by the two officers. The three ran through a lot at the rear of the postoffice on East Fourteenth street, climbed a fence and ran toward Twenty-third avenue on East Fourteenth street. Habernig and Anderson followed, firing at the fugitives.

The patrolmen scaled the fences, but were outdistanced by the suspects, who scattered and escaped in the darkness.

Patrolman Gunter, who was stationed on the Twenty-third-avenue beat, joined in the chase. The Central station was notified and orders were given the men throughout the city to be on the lookout.

Captain von Bredow to Wed a Von Bismarck

By Associated Press.

Captain Leopold Von Bredow of the German army, well-known to members of Oakland society as the former husband of Miss Frances Clara Newlands, daughter of Senator Francis G. Newlands of Nevada, who died in 1907, is soon to marry Prince Von Bismarck's eldest grandchild, Countess Hannah Von Bismarck, according to word received here today.

The betrothal was announced through court circles, and it is rumored that the wedding of the titled couple will be looked upon with favor in court.

Captain Von Bredow has seen considerable service in the fighting along the French border, where he has made a fine record. The date of the wedding has not been officially given out, but it is expected that it will occur within a short time.

American Proposal to Belligerents Guarded

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 24.—Administration officials today continued silent regarding informal proposals the United States has made to Great Britain and to Germany for an understanding on the questions of foodstuffs for the civilian population of the belligerent nations and submarine warfare against mercantile shipping.

The nature of the proposals has not been disclosed on account of the delicacy of the negotiations. In diplomatic circles, however, it generally was believed that the suggestion had been made that American consular representatives or American organizations supervise the distribution of foodstuffs to the German civilian population.

NO PASSES FOR ALIENS.

Senators Rise Early To Clear Up Bills

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 24.—In the effort which is being made in Congress to clear up all pending legislation before adjournment of the session, the Senate met two hours earlier than usual today in continuation of its work on the big appropriation bills.

The postoffice appropriation bill, carrying $317,945,869, again was taken up, while the general deficiency bill carrying $9,000,000, was ready for consideration in the House. The fortifications bill, carrying $6,000,000, was sent to the Senate today following its passage by the House.

Consideration of the postal supply bill was begun in the Senate late yesterday, following the passage of the army appropriation bill, carrying $103,000,000. The Senate sustained the action of its military committee in eliminating from the army bill as it passed the House the provision to prohibit expenditures for scientific shop management and stopwatch experiments in government plants.

Suspect Arrested as Last of Bank Bandits

VANCOUVER, B. C., Feb. 24.—D. Zansololl, allegedly the only man who held up the bank at Sedro Woolley, Wash., who had not been arrested or shot, was arrested in a local hotel here yesterday afternoon on a vagrancy charge, which was amended today. Sheriff Wells of Skagit county and the manager of the bank are coming here to identify him.

Seals Take to Camp Today; Field Captain Ness Speeding West to Join Oaks

NEW WHITE SOX TO MAKE OAKLAND DEBUT NEXT WEEK

By BILLY FITZ.

The White Sox will make their bow to Oakland fans the afternoon of March 4, against the 1915 Oaks, meeting on the San Pablo street grounds, one week from tomorrow. From then for approximately three weeks, the famous athletes who sport the colors of Charles Comiskey will be residents of Oakland, playing either in this city or in the Valencia street grounds across the bay, the second squad giving way to the first string men after ten days have passed.

Eddie Collins and "Pants" Rowland will be the big drawing cards of the Oaks-Seals-White Sox series, and there should be plenty of excitement. For one thing, California fans will be the first in the country to observe how Buck Weaver, at short, and Eddie Collins, at second, will work together. Upon the success of this combination will rest to a large extent the chances of the Chicago American league club giving the Boston Braves the predicted tussel for the World's championship. Baseball writers all over the country are giving expression to a hunch that Comiskey's pale hose clan will pinch the pennant in their own league this year, and that the Boston Braves will repent. Oakland will form their opinion after watching the visitors in their spring skirmishes.

Of course there will be other stars, though Oaklanders will miss Tommy Quinlan in action. The ex-Oak appears to have slipped a cog somewhere, and is not with the Sox. He wrote to friends here recently that he had not been sent a contract up to February 1, and was not at all anxious to play with Chicago this year, preferring to remain on the Coast another season. Tommy is at his home in Pennsylvania yet.

In addition to seeing Collins, Ed Walsh, Buck Weaver, Shano Collins, Jack Fournier, Larry Chappelle, the famed $10,000 hickory nut, Ray Schalk, Jim Scott, Reb Russell and Joseph Benz will also be placed on exhibition.

CLIFF MEANS "FIGHT."

Cliff Blankenship is making a grand little start as a Coast league manager. Cliff has so far failed to make a boast of what he will do to the Coast league team with the aggregation he is gathering; on the contrary, he frankly admits that he is at a disadvantage in stacking up against such old-timers as are now managing Coast teams. Not that Blankenship lacks confidence, for in a recent statement he vows that Salt Lake is out to win games, and if the present roster cannot do the work, he will get players who can.

That the manager of the new club in the Coast league will be a popular man with the fans is indicated by the following statement recently handed out by him.

"No one in the world hates to lose worse than I do and therefore I will give them all I have just as I have as a player. You can say this, though: They'll always know they have been in a battle when they get through with Salt Lake. Salt Lake won't stand for a loser, nor will I. We'll be up there somewhere when it's all over."

If there is one thing the fans like it is scrap, and it will make no difference whether the Bees are on the top or not; if they put up a hard game every time they start a nine-inning contest the fans will turn out to see them.

This fact was shown last year when the Tykers were the biggest drawing card on the Coast. Hogan's men were at no time seriously considered championship timber, but the bugs turned out to see them just the same. A little less alleged league class, and a lot more fight will go a long ways making the national pastime more popular in this neck of the woods, and here's hoping Cliff Blankenship and his herd will show the fans a little of the old-time jazz.

The first game to be played by the Chicago White Sox will take place next Sunday in San Jose, when Manager Rowland's high-priced crowd will stack up against the Salt Lake team. Manager Rowland announced that he would probably send Eddie Collins and Buck Weaver to the Garden City, as he is especially anxious to get a line on how the new combination will work.

Pitcher Charley Pruiett, the Oswood b. b. shooter, accompanied by Pitcher Le Claire, once with the American Association, showed up at Pleasanton last night and was warmly greeted. Pruiett seems to have recovered completely from the injury to his knee.

Outfielder Bill Daniels is in Oakland and will go to Pleasanton Sunday.

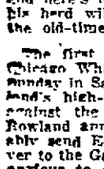

"Speed" Martin, the young Oakland pitcher, has received a second contract from Dugdale of Seattle, this one calling for a nice boost in pay. Martin will sign. Dugdale also asked Martin to try and induce Catcher Bath, formerly with Medicine Hat, to sign a Seattle contract, the two youngsters being great friends. Martin thinks his chum catcher will do so. Barth can hit .277, according to his friends.

The Seals go into camp today at Boyes Springs, and the Salt Lake Bees will hie themselves to San Jose. Nothing much will be done at either camp until next week, the wet grounds precluding active work.

MUGGSY BELIEVES NOT IN JINXS, BUT!

John McGraw was fanning recently and declared himself as not in the least superstitious. "This stuff about jinxes and all the rest of it doesn't mean anything to me," he said. But then he remembered something, and modified his statement. "I'll admit," he remarked, "that there was something which happened in a world's series that I took as a lucky sign, and it came through, too. It was back in 1905, and we were playing the Phillies. And Coakley was in there pitching. As Mack had been a little slow in selecting him, his name was not put on the scoreboard until the first inning was under way. Two men were out when Mike Donlin came up, and he met the first ball Coakley pitched and smashed it on a line into right field. It hit the name Coakley on the scoreboard and knocked it off the fence. Yes, we knocked Coakley out of the box two innings later."

JESS AND JONES QUARREL; NEGRO STICKS TO CUBA

EL PASO, Tex., Feb. 24. — Jess Willard and his manager, Tom Jones, had a disagreement today in the lobby of a hotel here. As a result, Willard declared that he would not continue his training until Jack Johnson appeared at Juarez for the boxing bout which has been postponed indefinitely from March 6 for fear of overtraining.

Jack Curley, promoter of the fight, had announced that the battle would not take place for at least a week after Johnson arrived at Juarez.

HAVANA, Feb. 24. — Indications point to the probability that Jack Johnson, the heavyweight pugilist, will abandon for the present his intention to proceed to Tampico in order to reach Juarez for the proposed fight with Jess Willard. Johnson declares the risk too great.

Local promoters are now trying to have the match arranged for Havana for some time in March, Johnson having agreed to such a plan.

LAUGH AND GROW THIN, SAYS OAK BASEBALL BOSS

PLEASANTON, Feb. 24.—One of the biggest jobs that confronts a manager when he starts the spring training season is the problem of getting his men to take off the excess baggage they have been piling on their backs during the winter months. What a manager would not do to get about two hundred pounds of beef off his team without reducing their number was never thought of, but [illegible] townsman and manager of the Oaks to formulate one of the most novel methods of getting his men in condition. By special arrangement, Tyler has provided that nothing but comedies shall be shown to his ball tossers at the local movie palace.

Shakespeare said, "Laugh and grow fat," but Tyler disagrees with William. Laughing is a great help in taking off weight, according to the Oakland boss.

"Not only does the actual operation of shaking your sides take off unnecessary girth, but when you get the boys happy they will work harder. You can't get a grouchy ballplayer to work, and first, last and always, work is the essential thing in getting down to normal weight. It is about as easy to get a ball player to laugh as it is to get a duck to swim, and when you have a happy bunch of boys in training camp, there will be more real work done. It is a well-known fact that the ball tosser who plays instead of works on the diamond is a more valuable man. When the boys are happy they play ball spontaneously, and then is when it does them good."

"If they have to be driven to work their sole thoughts will be on the minor hurts and aches which are the natural product of beginning work after a long lay-off, but if they play because they want to they will never think of the little inconveniences."

I want the boys to see as much funny stuff as possible—Charley Chaplin preferred. His kind of slap-stick work is the humor I want; the good old rib-cracking variety.

Glavinich, the new Oak slabster, reported for duty yesterday afternoon, and brought word that Prough and Boyd will be on the job today. If these two report today, it will bring the total Oaks now at Pleasanton to 15, including six catchers, one outfielder and eight pitchers.

Christian had the boys out for a little walk in the morning, followed by some light practice. Five miles of stiff road work completed the day. This program will be the diet of the Oaks until the weather clears up, and a few more tossers get on the job.

Only British Golfer to Try for Title This Year Is Vardon

HARRY VARDON.

England will bid for just one international athletic title this year, according to word received from London. Participation in practically all sport branches is knocked out by the war, but Harry Vardon will try to grab the national open golf championship. Only Francis Ouimet and Chick Evans are conceded chances of beating the Englishman.

Among American golfers it is conceded that the Westerners have their golden opportunity this year. With the amateur championship staged over the links of the Detroit Country Club the first week of September and the women's championship played at the Onwentsia Club, near Chicago, a week later, the Western golfers have their best opportunity since 1910 to wrest a national title from the Eastern contenders.

Francis Ouimet, Jerry Travers, Walter Travis, Oswald Kirby, Fred Herreshoff and Findlay Douglas will lead the Eastern attack, and the task of the Western contingent, headed by Chick Evans, will be far from an easy one. However, with the advantage of playing close to "hum" in their favor, the West may prevail.

This should be Evans' year to win. Chick is today the best all round golfer in the country—but the unluckiest. Playing the greatest golf of his career last year in the national open championship golf that left all the best known professionals and all the simon pures behind him, he was nosed out for the title by a single stroke by a young and practically unknown "pro," Walter Hagen of Rochester. Playing in his own territory, Evans faces the chance of his young lifetime to overcome the hoodoo that has pursued him for years and become the national champion—to come into his heritage, as it were.

OVERCONFIDENCE MAY BEAT WEST OAKLAND'S PRIDE

Kid Parker Predicts That Mallet Will Win from "Red Trunks" Tavas.

No less an authority than the old-time featherweight, Eddie (Kid) Parker makes the prediction that Pete Tavas will meet his Waterloo tonight when he goes up against Johnnie Mallet, at the West Oakland club. It was not much out of the ordinary when Bubbles Robinson announced that Mallet would win, but when Kid Parker also is of that belief, we begin to ask questions. "Who is this Mallet boy, what is his stock in trade and where does he come from?" Kid Parker gave us the inside as follows:

"Mallet should win for several reasons. In the first place this fellow Tavas is getting too cocky. He's swelled up like a matinee idol, and is so full of confidence that it will be impossible for him to be careful. About the most disastrous thing that can happen to him is carelessness, for Mallet can punch like a burley drill, and is tough as nails.

"Tavas can hit fairly well, but he has never yet been tested for staying powers. I think he will blow up if he is hit once by a good square blow. These overconfident boys are always that way. They think they have everything their way, and when they find out different, they do not know what to do. It is a case of losing their head.

"Mallet is a natural fighter, but is not over-skilled in boxing. He makes up for this, however, by his strength. There is nothing very fancy about him, but he is certainly built for service.

"I think that the best bout scheduled for tonight is the one between Jimmy Dundee (formerly Kid Lucky) and Eddie Byrne. Lucky is about the gamest little human I ever saw, and has a fair amount of skill. He is not a clever boxer, but his long experience has made him a good many little tricks. Byrne is a clever little fellow, and will no doubt hold his own. I wouldn't pick a winner in this bout, they are an evenly matched pair, and their different styles of mixing make the outcome a ticklish thing to predict."

CHICAGO VARSITY NINE TO COME WEST

Graduate Manager Wilcox of the Stanford university has received a letter from H. O. Page, manager of the Chicago varsity nine, who wants to arrange for a series of games, two with Stanford and two with the University of California, between September 4-10. The Chicago team is one of the best in the Middle West, and the contemplated trip to San Francisco figures to be one of great interest.

HOW DID THEY HAPPEN TO BECOME PRIZE-FIGHTERS?

(By "MR. MULDOON.")

ARTICLE NO. II.

How did they happen to become prize-fighters?

This is due to the fact that very few of the great latic gladiators are born among the green fields of the country.

The majority of them first see the light of day in the over-crowded tenement districts of our large cities and learn to battle their way as soon as old enough to walk.

On the other hand, some great boxers have come from the better walks of life, Jeffries' father, for example, having been an Episcopal minister, while Corbett at one time held a position in a San Francisco bank.

This difference in the birth and surroundings of the boxers compels me to answer the question in various ways.

Leach Cross was raised in the Ghetto in New York City among the poorest of the poor. He was a school boy when he had his first real fight.

From the street he went into a cheap boxing club and one night winning a purse he set out to learn dentistry. He studied in the day time, and running shy of cash he returned to the boxing club for another stake. He won it so easily that he continued in the fight game until he had amassed a fortune. He still fights, but in the Ghetto he is known only as Doctor Cross. And he is going back to dentistry as soon as his skill and strength as a boxer gives out.

Like Gus Ruhlin, who could lift immense rolls of paper and who went from the paper house to the prize-ring; Isaac Perrins, who long ago fought Tom Johnson for the championship of England, was brought to be a pugilist by reason of his show of great strength.

Perrins in condition weighed 238 pounds and carried his ponderous figure with the ease of a stripling. He could lift eight hundred pounds of iron into a wagon and perform other feats of strength almost beyond human credibility. But with his great power he was gentle and considerate to all, and above all things always sought to avoid giving offense to those weaker than himself. His fight with Johnson was that of a battle between a giant and a dwarf. Perrins was the giant and Johnson, the dwarf, won.

* * * * *

Jack Looney, the old political boss of St. Louis, who fought Jim Cooum of New York a seventy-round fight with the bare knuckles out on the Gravois Road in St. Louis away back in the sixties, started out in life as a shoemaker. Tired of beating the last, Looney went out other worlds to conquer, and in his day he was considered the best rough-and-tumble fighter in the world. He was a power in St. Louis politics in the days when fists were trumps. He was also a power in the prize-fight world and he refereed many a battle. While refereeing the fight between Tom Allen and Ben Hogan at Omaha, the latter's friends surrounded Looney and one of them pointing a gun at Jack's head shouted: "Give Hogan the decision."

Ben Hogan, beaten by Tom Allen for the heavyweight championship, was a wild western cowboy before he entered the ring at Omaha. A bad lot of cowboys backed him up in that fight and threatened to shoot Allen, the referee and all the rest who differed with them as to Hogan's fighting ability. But Allen licked Hogan so decisively that he quit the ring for the pulpit, and for a long while he raked in the shekels as an evangelist just as Billy Sunday, the ballplayer, is doing now.

* * * * *

Dick Hollywood, at one time lightweight champion of America, was on the detective force at Indianapolis in his early days and he began his pugilistic career by malleyrewing all the tough customers that happened along. Dick was champion in the days of Billy Edwards, Sam Collyer and that crowd, and he could give anyone of them as good as they could send.

* * * * *

Mike McCoole, who fought Tom Allen for the heavyweight championship of the world, was a stalwart roustabout on the Mississippi in his early days. A St. Louis sportsman, noting his strength, picked him up, put him in training and matched him with Allen. McCoole proved so successful in his two fights with Allen that two years later he was back on the river carrying sacks again.

California Coach Adds Two Boats to Equipment

The University of California made one of the best little investments possible when they engaged Charles Stephenson to coach their varsity crew. Stephenson has proved a great coach, and is immensely popular with the boys. Rowing at the university has taken a great jump since the veteran Australian oarsman took charge of affairs, and more men than ever before are turning out for what is sometimes termed the most healthful of college sports.

Besides his coaching ability, Coach Stephenson is giving the Students' association the services of an expert cabinet maker. "Steve" is one of those men you very seldom see who just cannot keep his hands idle. Trained to regular habits, the blue and gold coach is on the job at the varsity boat house early in the morning, digging away with his tools.

As a result, the California rowers are now the possessors of two good shells, reconstructed out of the mutilated remains of several shells that have been wrecked during the last ten years. The new shells are being used daily, and save the wear and tear that would otherwise be put on the new boats.

Harmon Gym May Be Scene of Oakland-Berkeley High Classic

The annual Berkeley-Oakland High basketball struggle, which represents the prep classic of the east bay region in this sport, will probably be played at Harmon gymnasium at the University of California.

Piedmont Pavilion is hardly lighted well enough for afternoon games of a critical nature, and the scheduled struggle will be particularly spirited. The capacity of Piedmont Pavilion is its one big advantage.

The St. Mary's College gym can hardly hold more than 400, while the Oakland Y. M. C. A. gym has a seating capacity of hardly 200.

The last two games played between the Oakland and Technical and the Fremont and Berkeley teams attracted a thousand spectators on each occasion, while the Oakland-Berkeley game, which is the A. C. A. L.'s Stanford-California strife, will need a pavilion where at least 2000 fans can be seated.

BASKET BALL

OLYMPICS EASY WINNERS.

The Olympic Club basketball quintet earned their right to contest in the semi-finals of the P. P. I. E. basketball championship last night across the bay when they trounced the St. Ignatius College five by a score of 44 to 12, thus eliminating the collegians from the race.

The game served only as a practice one for the Post streeters, who used their second string men in the first half. "Red" Kemp, Berndt and Ray Gilbert went into the game in the last half and from then on the Olympians scored at will. Johnnie Gilbert and "Red" Kemp registered 11 field goals, Kemp scoring six of them in the last half alone.

The Olympians play the Oakland Y. M. C. A. Golds tonight in the most important game of the series, as the Oaklanders have already defeated the champion Illinois team. The Olympians have met the Oakland team on three occasions already this season, both teams contesting against each other in a three-game series for the P. A. A. championship. The Olympic Club won the first game by a close score, while in the second match the Golds came back and did likewise.

The deciding game was won by the Olympic Club last Friday night at the St. Mary's College court, the final score being 30 to 24. The Golds led in the first half and had an excellent chance to win out, but they crumbled in the second.

WHITTIER WINS AGAIN.

The Whittier College five of Los Angeles scored their second victory of the tournament last night when they outplayed the Los Angeles Y. M. C. A. quintet and romped home with the long end of a 54 to 24 score.

Whittier displayed better team work than did the Y. M. C. A. boys. At half time Whittier led by a score of 14 to 8. McBurney, the giant center for Whittier, together with Douglass, registering a majority of the points for Whittier. Kuhl and Hill shovel up well for the "Y" boys in the second half.

Tonight's game between Whittier and St. Mary's, along with the main event between the Olympic Club and the Oakland Y. M. C. A. five rounds out an excellent basketball card for the fans. The Saints have been playing fine ball of late, May, their star forward being a feature by himself. Chardelaine and Carbonre will take care of the other forward position for the Saints, while Perles at center, together with Quinn and Prentice at guards round out the team.

Basketball in the Alameda county athletic league will be continued tomorrow when the Oakland high school basketball five lines up against the Fremont high quintet and the Oakland Technical high team meets the Alameda high five at the Piedmont pavilion, at 4 p. m.

The Oakland-Fremont game promises to be the fastest struggle of the day, as both teams are evenly matched. Coach Frank Bock of Oakland will play Ernie Heyns, the team's star at center, while Eddie Chew and Phillips will be the forwards. Welslander and Watt will round out the team as guards. Charleton, Hook, Macdonald and Watt will be the substitutes.

Drew at center, with Leon Woolsey and Hopkins as forwards for Fremont promise to put up an invincible style of ball, while Wetzel and Manhardt will be the guards. Oakland has been Fremont's most bitter rival in the past, and a fast and exciting contest is expected.

Technical figures to come out ahead in their game with Alameda, although Ritter's teams can always be depended upon to put up a hard fight. Alameda is taking up the basketball sport for the first time this season.

Louis Boyle, "Ham" Lorimer and Lawson will be the forwards for "Tech," while Hjelte will be seen at center. Vaughn Miller, Mal Levy, Vinnie Irish and Otis Eyre will be the guards.

With but one more game to be played in the Intercollegiate basketball series, the trophy is not yet cinched. In fact, there are three teams in the running, and it is far from impossible that all three of them will be tied for first place. The one game to be played is between Stanford and California, and although the latter appear to have the edge in the going, the Cardinal team is the one aggregation which has a chance to take the blue and gold boys off their present exalted perch.

It is always easy to dope out a winner in a match, but in predicting the outcome of games between Stanford and California, the dope is about as often out of kilter as it is right. The Stanford teams will fight to the last notch against a California bunch, and the same goes the other way. If Stanford should beat California, those two teams and the University of Nevada would all be tied for first place with four won and one lost.

So far the California tossers have gone through the season without a single defeat, and only one team has given them a good run. The St. Mary's team, champions of last season, played the California a hard game on February 6, the latter winning only by a 29 to 23 score, and to those who saw the game, that was not a very large margin. The Nevada team was defeated by the Berkeley boys, but as the Sagebrush team was fresh from their journey, it was conceded that they were not in the best of form.

The Nevada team is the only one which has so far beaten Stanford, but the same out of form verdict might be taken for the latter on their trip to Reno, so it may be that Stanford has more of a chance of beating the blue and gold tossers than is generally believed.

The time and the place of the coming contest which will decide the Intercollegiate championship of California and Nevada has not yet been decided, but it is expected that the game will take place within the next ten days.

SWAIN GETS $2150.

Charles Swain was presented with a check for $2150 yesterday at a luncheon tendered by the committee which handled the successful benefit game. Cliff Ireland further reported that about $200 more would be forthcoming, which will swell the fund materially.

MISS ALICE HALL, WHO WILL BE MARRIED TO LIEUTENANT BRUSH THIS EVENING.—Webster photo.

Miss Alice Hall and Lieutenant Rapp Brush will be married this evening at a "violet wedding" at the Hall residence in Fourteenth street. It will be a small, but distinctively pretty affair, with decorations of violets and lavender shaded spring flowers, tied with streamers of lavender tulle. Only relatives and one or two close friends will be present at the ceremony, at which Rev. Albert W. Palmer will be the officiating clergyman. Miss Priscilla Hall will be her sister's only attendant, and Lieutenant McKinney of the groom's regiment, will be best man.

The honeymoon will be spent in the East. Lieutenant Brush having been granted two months' leave of absence. The young couple will be guests of his father, General Daniel Brush, U. S. A., retired, at his home in the East, returning to Texas in May to rejoin Lieutenant Brush's regiment on the Mexican border.

Miss Hall is the daughter of Mrs. S. P. Hall and the late Judge Samuel Hall and a niece of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Moore. The family has been prominent in Oakland for many years and the bride has been one of the favorites of the younger set in society.

The engagement was announced on the return of Mrs. Hall and her daughters from a visit to the Whipple Halls in Manila, where the young couple met last spring. Since then Miss Hall has been entertained at many affairs given in her honor. She is a sister of Mrs. James Kenna, Mrs. Anthony Caminetti, Miss Priscilla and Miss Natalie Hall, Channing, Chaffee and Whipple Hall. A wedding supper will follow the ceremony this evening and the guests will number about thirty.

OAKLAND DINNER DANCE.

The Oakland Dinner Dance tomorrow evening will draw many of the dancing set as well as those who may only dine and "look on" at the dancing. Mr. and Mrs. Victor Relter will have an interesting party at the table, the guests including Signor Constantina and Madame Bertane of the National Grand Opera Company, and Mr. and Mrs. Jules Pages of Paris, who returned to San Francisco from Southern California for the opening of the Exposition.

Miss Jessaline Horton will entertain guests and Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Hogan will have several in their party. Others to entertain guests will be Mr. and Mrs. Carson Angel, A. R. Moulton, C. F. Beadle and Mr. Pladwell.

AT DEL MONTE.

Mr. and Mrs. Erle Palmer Barker (Madeleine Chambers) are spending their honeymoon at Del Monte, where they went after their wedding last week. They expect to return the last of this week for a visit to the Chambers home in Linda Vista, before going south to occupy the charming new home in Pasadena, which was a gift of the groom's father. The bungalow is built around a patio with fountain and palms and is furnished throughout.

LLOYD-HILTON WEDDING.

The wedding of Miss Olivia Irene Lloyd and Harold Hilton will take place this evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Lloyd in East Oakland. It will be quite a large affair with nearly 200 guests and the house will be elaborately decorated in a color scheme of yellow, with branches of acacia, baskets of daffodils and long streamers of yellow tulle. Rev. William Lloyd, uncle of the bride, has come from his home in southern California to officiate at the wedding. Miss Birdella Cluff will be the bride's only attendant. She will wear a gown of orchid shaded chiffon and carry a shower of yellow roses. The bride will be gowned in white crepe metier with pearl trimmings and a long tulle veil falling from a band of pearls. The bridal bouquet will be a shower of lilies of the valley. Alfred Graff of Berkeley will be best man. After the honeymoon the couple will make their home on the Hilton ranch at Lafayette. Both bride and groom are talented musically and have appeared at concerts for charity. Miss Lloyd is a pianist and Mr. Hilton, who is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Anson Hilton of Fruitvale, is an accomplished violinist. The honeymoon will be spent in the south.

TEA AT THE OAKLAND.

Members of the Pi Beta Phi Sorority Alumnae were entertained at tea at the Oakland yesterday afternoon, occupying a flower-decked table in the dining-room, which is now used for afternoon tea instead of the lounge. Among the members, most of whom were present, are Mrs. Vance McClymonds, Miss Dora Woodburn, Mrs. Edward Maples, Mrs. P. F. Carney, Miss Elizabeth Coats, Dr. Alice Goss of San Francisco, Mrs. H. P. Bell, Mrs. Sidney Lawrence, Mrs. C. B. Robb and Mrs. Edith Darneal.

✡ ✡ ✡

WHEELERS TO RETURN.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stetson Wheeler and Miss Jean Wheeler, who are at present in New York, will leave for California next week, after an absence of two months. They were visitors in New Haven this month and Miss Wheeler had the honor of leading the grand march at the Junior promenade, which is one of the important annual social events at Yale. Her partner was Henry Crocker, son of Mrs. Henry Crocker of San Francisco. Gordon Tevis, who is also a student at Yale, gave a tea for Mrs. and Miss Wheeler during their stay in New Haven.

MISS WEAVER A HOSTESS.

Miss Helen Weaver, the fiancee of Kenneth Ables of Oakland, will give a dinner dance tomorrow evening at the Chester Weaver home in San Francisco, in honor of her house guests, Miss Katheryn Carlisle of Chicago and Miss Mary Forbes of Los Angeles.

Tomorrow afternoon Miss Weaver will share honors with Miss Camille Dorn at a luncheon to be given by Miss Ramona Hamburger to a dozen girls of the younger set across the bay.

CHAFING DISH PARTY.

Miss Elise Osborne gave a chafing dish party last evening at the Osborne home in Clay street, San Francisco, entertaining Lieutenant and Mrs. Fred Seydel of Fort Scott, among other guests. Miss Osborne was a bridesmaid at the Caswell-Seydel wedding early in the winter.

✡ ✡ ✡

Mrs. Wilkinson was hostess at an informal tea at the Oakland yesterday afternoon, entertaining half a dozen guests.

✡ ✡ ✡

AT THE ST. FRANCIS.

Miss Amy and Miss Sally Long were among the attractive younger girls at the St. Francis tea dance Monday afternoon when Mrs. Oscar Fitzalan Long chaperoned a party of young people.

SOUTH AMERICAN HONEYMOON.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Jacobson will spend their honeymoon in South America. They left immediately after their sudden wedding in San Francisco on Monday for Palm Beach, Fla., where the first fortnight will be passed. Mrs. Jacobson was Mrs. Dolly Heynemann Greenbaum, one of the prominent young matrons of society across the bay, where she was a member of the Dolce Far Niente Club, and prominent at the tea dances. She was known as one of the best gowned women in San Francisco and her costumes were always striking and original. Mr. Jacobson is a Portland man, and the future home of the couple will be in the northern city. They will tour South America for several months.

GUESTS AT LUNCHEON.

Dr. and Mrs. George Lyman (Dorothy Van Sicklen) were among guests of Mr. and Mrs. Van Coonen Torchiana at a luncheon given in the Netherlands building at the Exposition Monday. Others present included Baron and Baroness J. C. Van Eck (Agnes Tillman), Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Hanchett, Miss Lucy and Miss Alice Hanchett of Miss Ransom's school, Mr. and Mrs. William Seanon and Captain Harry Howland.

✡ ✡ ✡

FOR BRIDE-ELECT.

Miss Wilhelmina Krumb, who will be married to Leroy Bolt in March, will be guest of honor at a tea to be given by Miss Ruth Fowleron the afternoon of March 5. On Friday, March 12, Miss Krumb will again be complimented at a bridge party planned in her honor by Mrs. Vernon Clark.

Joyful Anticipation of Motherhood

There is apt to be a latent apprehension of distress to mar the complete joy of expectation. But this is quite overcome by the advice of so many women to use "Mother's Friend." This is an external application designed to so lubricate the muscles and to thus so relieve the pressure reacting on the nerves, that the usual strain upon the cords and ligaments is not accompanied by those severe pains said to cause nausea, morning sickness and many local distresses.

Many people believe that those remedies which have stood the test of time, that have been put to every trial under the varying conditions of age, weight, general health, etc., may be safely relied upon. And judging by the fact that "Mother's Friend" has been in continual use since our grandmother's earlier years and is known throughout the United States it may be easily inferred that it is something that women gladly recommend.

"Mother's Friend" is prepared only in our own laboratory and is sold by druggists everywhere. Ask for a bottle to-day and write for a special book for expectant mothers. Address Bradfield Regulator Co., 307 Lamar Bldg., Atlanta, Ga.

CHINESE GIRL ECHO OF PAST

Bound Feet Toddle Down Broadway; Crowds Stare

A Chinese "little-foot" woman toddled out of ancient China down Broadway yesterday at noon. She was strange and shy in the crowds that openly stared, and at the Fourteenth street crossing leaned rather desperately on the arm of a 1915 model Chinaman in sack suit and soft hat, who supported her. His queue had been sacrificed to progress, and he wore American boots in place of padded slippers of his youth. But the lady on his arm was of the past.

She wore a dark blouse and trousers and her hair glistening with paste, was simply dressed. Only her feet were gorgeous. They were less than three inches long, encased in vivid green satin slippers thickly embroidered. The satin heels were in the center of the soles, and the lady stepped like a small boy on stilts.

She was the first of her kind encountered in years. Down in Chinatown there are still grande dames of a passing generation whose tiny feet were bound and deformed sixty years ago in China. But they never venture abroad. They are remembered of the 1890's. Surely not later.

In China there are "little feet" women of the old aristocracy, but civilization is assured that the fashion is passe. The feet of the Oriental "new woman" are not bound when she is born.

It was the obvious youth of the lady of yesterday that made her seem most strangely of an ancient past surviving in the present.

WOMAN ALSO ACCUSED OF BREAKING MANN ACT

By Associated Press.

CHICAGO, Feb. 24. — Jens M. Pedersen, Chicago manager of a Cleveland, O., concern, and Miss Sadie Smallow, his stenographer, were arrested by Federal officials here last night the first arrests under the Supreme Court's new rule on the Mann act that women who conspire to break the law may be prosecuted as well as the men.

In default of bail they were committed to jail. They were charged with having conspired to violate the white slave act on August 20, 1914, in coming from Milwaukee to Chicago.

Pedersen denied that he ever had been in Milwaukee. He said he was prosecuted by his wife, from whom he was recently divorced. Miss Samollow refused to discuss the charge.

SON OF ACTRESS WAITS DIVORCE SUIT ACTION

By Associated Press.

PORTLAND, Ore., Feb. 24.—The divorce case of Ralph Modjeska of Chicago, son of the late famous tragedienne, will be delayed, owing to the death yesterday of C. C. Beekman, prominent Oregon pioneer. Mr. Beekman's son is one of the counsel for Modjeska.

Mrs. Modjeska, her son C. E. J. Modjeska of Cornell University, and her daughter, Marylka, arrived yesterday. Another son, Felix, is in Los Angeles. Over the possession of the children the divorce will wage.

Modjeska, who for personal reasons changed his name from Modjeska to Modjeski, is one of the foremost bridge engineers of the country. The daughter announced she and Felix would stand with their mother.

RENO'S DIVORCE BILL IS GIVEN FINAL O. K.

RENO, Nev., Feb. 24.—Reno last night celebrated its rejuvenation as the "easy divorce" mecca of the United States, accomplished late yesterday afternoon when Governor Boyle signed the bill providing only six months' residence before a divorce suit can be filed. One year's residence has been the law in Nevada since the former six-months' law was abolished.

There is no expectation here that any referendum action or any other means will be invoked to change the course of the new law which becomes immediately operative. The legislature has already shown by its action in regard to one such measure that nothing of the kind will meet with its favor.

NEVADA AGAIN IS BECKONING DIVORCEES

CARSON CITY, Nev., Feb. 24.—Governor Boyle signed the six months' residence divorce bill late yesterday. The bill restores the law relating to divorce as it was two years ago. The governor said he was constrained to accept the measure as the will of the people and that he believed the legislature would now enact a law which would permit an early submission to a referendum vote of laws passed by the legislature.

"JACK" NOYES TO WED.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 24.—Clubmen yesterday found much for pleased discussion in the cards announcing the approaching wedding of John Harvey Noyes, familiarly known as "Jack" Noyes. The cards announce that he is to be married on March 11 at the First Presbyterian church, Portland, to Mrs. Bessie Selover Bennion, daughter of Mrs. Evelyn Selover. Mrs. Bennion is widely known in San Francisco social circles.

BRIDE WILL ENTER CONVENT AFTER TRIP

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 24—A bride of 21, who, after a brief honeymoon, will be secluded in a convent, was brought to Los Angeles yesterday by her wealthy, forty-year-old bridegroom, after a quiet marriage which closed a courtship combining the elements of snowbound Alaska and sunshine-covered Southern California.

For it was out of Alaska that Carlyle Racine, the husband, a hardy old Klondiker of three-score years, came to win a bride scarcely a third his age.

But what difference do forty years make to love?

Not so much as the difference between Los Angeles and the Yukon, declared both the adoring groom and the bride, who until a few days ago was Miss Frieda Weertz.

Racine came out of the North with as much spirit as that of young Lochinvar when he came out of the West.

He went to Whittier, where he has a winter home, and it was in that neighboring city that he met and loved Miss Weertz.

The ceremony took place at the groom's winter home in Whittier, with Rev F Kimmel of that city officiating. Everything was done so quietly that none of "the boys," as Racine calls his friends in Alaska, gained even the slightest inkling of it all.

Then there was a hurried closing of the groom's home, a quick "get-away" in an automobile and a spin to Los Angeles and a wedding dinner at the Hotel Hollenbeck.

The happy couple boarded the steamer Congress for San Francisco and from that city they will sail soon for Honolulu for a quiet honeymoon.

And when that is ended, Racine will place his bride in a convent, in order, he explains, that "she may learn all there is to know that is good about the world," although the bright-eyed little wife is not lacking in education and wit.

MOTHER OF HEIRS IS ACCUSED IN LAWSUIT.

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 24.—To prevent a 2-year-old child and a 10-year-old boy from receiving $2000 per year incomes while in school, William E. Phillips of Chicago has started a court battle over the codicil of the will of his father, the late Thomas P. Phillips, former Pasadena millionaire oil man.

A few weeks before Thomas P. Phillips died in December, 1913, he wrote a codicil to his will in which he specified that Nelson Vance Phillips, 10 years old, and Thomas P. Phillips Jr., 2 years old, should be given $2000 per year. William E. Phillips in his contest declares this change was due to undue influence on the part of Mrs. Alice C. Phillips, mother of the boys.

In the main body of the will the millionaire spoke of the dangers besetting wealthy and idle young men and he decreed that his heirs should not receive more than $50 per month until they are 10 years old. From 10 to 15 they were to have $75 per month; 15 to 20, $100 per month; 20 to 25, $125 per month, and 25 to 30, $150 per month.

On July 17, 1913, the complaint alleged, Thomas P. Phillips was stricken with paralysis and that after that time he was dependent upon his wife for advice in all his affairs. The fact that the codicil giving the boys $2000 was written in October, was pointed to by William E. Phillips in his complaint as evidence that it was written while the father was under the immediate care of his wife, who is the contestants stepmother. Undue influence was alleged.

MRS. JACK ROUF SEEKS DIVORCE; ROMANCE ENDS.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 24.—That the married happiness of Mr. and Mrs. Jack A. Rouf had ended but two years after their marriage at the St. Francis hotel become generally known yesterday, when the notice that Florence Rouf had filed suit against Jack Rouf on the ground of desertion appeared in the list of actions made public.

Another chapter is thus added to the romantic history of the wealthy local contractor and the former wife of the late "Skinny" Madden, labor leader and Chicago politician.

Jack Rouf and the then Florence Miles were schoolmates in St. Louis many years ago, and when barely out of their teens became engaged, only to quarrel after she drift apart, she moving to Chicago, where she met and married Madden, whom she sued for separate maintenance after six years. Rouf had in the meantime come to San Francisco, and with the growth of the city had prospered in the contracting business.

Twelve years after their quarrel and parting they accidentally met in the St. Francis hotel here. Madden was dead, and their early romance was renewed and the couple were married. It was only recently, according to their friends, that any trouble had arisen, and the action for divorce will come as a surprise to all except their intimates.

SOCIETY GIRL SURPRISES FRIENDS BY MARRIAGE.

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 24.—Giving Los Angeles society one of the most thrilling surprises it has known in years, Miss Elizabeth Wood, the beautiful daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Modini-Wood, became the bride here last night of J. Langford Stack, Chicago millionaire polo expert, who has been taking part in the tournament at Coronado. The bride is well known in New York society.

The wedding ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Turk of the First Congregational church. Mrs. Joy Clark, formerly Miss Florence Wood, attended her sister as matron of honor. Frank Carlisle, an old-time friend of the bridegroom, assisted as best man.

BRIDE FINDS HUSBAND IS WEALTHY MAN.

NEW YORK, Feb. 24.—Harold Lee Judd, who recently married the rich young widow of Charles G. Gates, came into stock worth $180,000 today through the death of the $1,05[illegible] trust estate of his grandmother, Josephine Judd, at New Britain, Conn.

SMALL GIRL SAVES BABY FROM BLAZE.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 24.—Dorothy Gordan, 11 years old, proved herself a brave girl and the possessor of a quick thinking brain yesterday when the apartment of her cousin, Mrs. M. Morgan, 1347 Lakuna street, caught fire.

Little Dorothy was taking care of Mrs. Morgan's 11-months-old baby. When she discovered the fire Dorothy quickly snached up the child. After wrapping it tightly with blankets she carried it through the smoke-filled apartments. She was burned about the hands and arms. After seeing the baby safe she notified the neighbors and an alarm was turned in.

MISS BUSCH TOOK IN SIGHTS OF EXPOSITION.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 24.—August A. Busch of St. Louis, head of the family and estate of the late Adolphus Busch, multi-millionaire brewer, arrived in San Francisco yesterday morning, accompanied by Mrs. Busch and their daughter, Miss Alice Busch. They came from Pasadena, where they have been at the bedside of the Carl Busch, brother of August, who is seriously ill.

Shortly after their arrival at the Hotel St. Francis, it became known that Miss Marie Busch, beautiful debutante daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Busch, had been in the city several days. Accompanied by her aunt, Miss Clara Busch, and a friend, Miss Edna Conradies, and a maid, Miss Busch arrived in time for the opening of the exposition. It was said yesterday that she marched to the grounds Saturday morning with the other 200,000. Miss Busch herself would say only that she has been having a lovely time and seeing San Francisco and the exposition thoroughly in just the way she wanted to.

ELLEN TERRY, ACTRESS, UNDERGOES OPERATION.

NEW YORK, Feb. 24.—Ellen Terry, the actress, underwent an operation for the removal of cataracts at the New York Eye and Ear Infirmary yesterday. Later in the day Miss Terry sent out this word to inquirers:

"I am getting along beautifully. Thank everybody for this interest in me, but really I would rather have nothing said about the operation."

At the hospital the statement was made that Miss Terry's condition was entirely satisfactory.

GIRL WAR VICTIM WILL BE BRIDE.

NEW YORK, Feb. 24.—A Polish family whose property has been lost and scattered by the European war, has arrived from Naples. The head of the family is Bruno von Brzezicka, said to be of a noble house, and the others are his wife and eighteen-year-old daughter, Sophie, who is on her way to San Francisco to marry an American newspaper man. They lived near Lemberg.

Sophie, who is the only one of the three who speaks English, said she had fallen in love with a war correspondent during the fighting around Lemberg. As their property has been lost and their home destroyed, her father had decided to come to this country for her marriage.

Sophie's brother, Paul, was captured early in the war by the Russians, and her father learns that he had been sent to Siberia. Recently they got word from the brother, who said that he had managed to escape and had reached Shanghai, where he was stranded because he had no money.

"We have decided to join my brother in China," said Sophie, "and my father will try to start life anew out there."

AFTER SUFFERING TWO LONG YEARS

Mrs. Aselin Was Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Minneapolis, Minn.—"After my little one was born I was sick with pains in my sides which the doctors said were caused by inflammation. I suffered a great deal every month and grew very thin. I was under the doctor's care for two long years without any benefit. Finally after repeated suggestions to try it we got Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. After taking the third bottle of the Compound I was able to do my housework and today I am strong and healthy again. I will answer letters if anyone wishes to know about my case."—Mrs. JOSEPH ASELIN, 606 Fourth Avenue, Minneapolis, Minn.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs, contains no narcotics or harmful drugs, and today holds the record of being the most successful remedy we know for woman's ills. If you need such a medicine why don't you try it?

If you have the slightest doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will help you, write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass., for advice. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman, and held in strict confidence.

Wedded Couple and State Senator Try Bar Examinations

By Associated Press.

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 24.—For the first time in the history of the third district court of appeal a man and wife appeared yesterday to take the bar examinations to become attorneys.

The two applicants are Augustus J. Adams, a clerk in the state engineering office, and Martha Augusta Adams, both of this city.

The largest class the court has ever examined is aspiring to be lawyers. Senator J. W. Stuckenbruck of Acampo and Chris Mahoney, former Coast League baseball player, are two of the class.

WINS BASKET BALL SERIES.

PULLMAN, Wash., Feb. 24.—Washington State College defeated Idaho University last night, 28 to 14, in the last game here of the college conference basket ball series. This makes eight straight games for the state college.

WILL FIGHT ONCE MORE FOR HEART BALM

SAYS LOVE WAS ALIENATED

FIRST SUIT ENDED IN A $25,000 VERDICT

MRS. LESTER HAYWARD, WHO CHARGES RELATIVES WITH SPIRITING AWAY HUSBAND.

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 24.—With $100,000 at stake and ardent love letters as the center about which the battle will be waged, Mrs. Lester Hayward, member of a prominent Washington family, will engage next Thursday in a second court war against Dr. Henderson Hayward, owner of the Hayward Hotel, and members of his family, for heart balm.

The first encounter ended last July with a verdict of $25,000 for young Mrs. Hayward.

Mrs. Lester Hayward is the wife of one of Dr. Hayward's sons. She asks $100,000 for their alleged refusal to recognize her and their alleged alienation of her husband's affections. Young Mrs. Hayward declares Dr. Hayward and members of his family induced Lester Hayward to leave her and hide from her.

LOVE LETTERS OFFERED.

Secret love letters that passed between Lester Hayward and his wife play a prominent part in both prosecution and defense of the suit.

Mrs. Hayward met Lester Hayward, she declared, while he was a soldier at a fort in Virginia. With money obtained from her grandmother's estate she said she aided him in obtaining his discharge.

They were married. They came to Los Angeles and then she declared her troubles began.

Prior to the alleged alienation she declared she received many letters from him expressing ardent devotion. After the alleged alienation she declared she did not know where he was.

The answer of Dr. Hayward is that young Mrs. Hayward did know where her husband was and that she maintained a correspondence with him, coached him in what he was to do and say and told him what he was not to do.

A sidelight in the trial is the skirmish between the attorneys. Colonel J. W. Richardson, who represents Mrs. Lester Hayward, and Attorney G. E. Milliken, representing Dr. Hayward.

BROKE, BUT DEVOTED.

The principal letters upon which Mrs. Lester Hayward relies for her proof of devotion from her young husband follows:

"My Dearest Darling Wife—I am penniless here (Detroit) and that is why you did not receive a Christmas present from me. I love you and you only. Have heard nothing from my family at all. Will write them for money if you think I should. Lovingly, your Lester."

Another letter reads:

"My Dear Louise—I have lots to tell you when I see you. About the way they treated me. I will listen to you now. I love you, oh, I love you. I will never listen to anyone again as to anything with you. Have lots to tell you in reference to your lots that will help you, my darling. Lovingly, Lester."

A third letter reads:

"My Dear Wife—I have lots to tell you. I am done with my family after the way they have treated me. I love you, my darling, with all my soul. Lovingly, Lester. Love and kisses."

A fourth letter reads:

"My Dear Louise—I was delighted to [illegible] to hear of the conditions you are living under. I am your husband and my place is to stick by you at all hazards. Their promises [illegible] as far as I am concerned or you are concerned. I am ready to tell all I know. I want your love and confidence above everything else in the world. My people—I do not care a rap for their offer for help—it does not interest me unless it benefits you as well as myself. No, I will not—and never will—turn you down. I love you and will always love you. I am anxious to join you and be a good, honest husband to you. I have had promises from the Haywards, but have [illegible] them all along. Lovingly, Lester."

COACHES HER HUSBAND.

Letters upon which Dr. Hayward depends to prove that his son's wife knew of his whereabouts and coached him for the trial follow:

"My Dear Louise—[illegible] I have no right in the world to sue you for divorce, but I am about to bring suit against your family, Laura, Tom and your father, for alienation and interfering between man and wife and shipping you away from me without my knowledge and consent. I have them all scared sick. Your father has been twice personally to see my attorney. Now, you must keep quiet and don't tell anyone you have written to me, especially Tom. Keep quiet.

"I am in hopes your father will settle out of court.

"I have your father just where I want him.

"Don't write to any of your family and tell them you have written to me, and, above all things, don't tell anyone I have written you. I don't want anyone to know we are corresponding.

"Now, don't tell anyone; it will spoil everything. Yours in haste." (No signature.)

"Monday, Nov. 24, 1913.

"My Dear Lester—I want you to read this letter very carefully and please stop drinking. I cannot send you $50 to come here with because I have not got it. Tom and your father shipped you away from here and I intend to make them bring you back.

"KEEP QUIET AND STICK."

"Now, just keep quiet and don't write to Tom or any of them, because they all hate you and don't care what becomes of me. Above everything, don't say I did not stick to you. That is not true. I never refused to live with you if you could pay my board, etc. Now, Tom is going to say I closed the door in your face and all that rot, but I shall deny it and you stick to me. You say you still love me and want to be with me. Well, do as I say and I will get you here.

"Please stop drinking and be a man. Just keep quiet and deny that we ever had a word between each other except in love, which is true. You were always very affectionate.

"I am going for them tooth and nail.

"Now, do as I say if you want to get back to me again. Deny everything you have told Tom. He has no witnesses and is no friend of yours. Yours only.—Louise."

ONLY DEMANDS MONEY.

Another letter reads:

"My Dear Lester—If anyone writes you through general delivery, Detroit, Mich., wishing to meet you, don't be afraid. It will be some friend of mine who will aid you. You must do as I ask and any suggestion as made to you, you must act upon if you wish to aid me and love me. Hastily, your only Louise."

Another one reads:

"My Dear Lester—Lester, my dear, you do nothing but weary me and like me for money. Do you realize how dreadful that looks? You have never written me a line since February 27, except a letter demanding money on the 19th of March.

"Why, dearest, don't you get something to do? You are big and strong and healthy—so foolish of you to keep saying you are going to ask people to aid you. Surely you could get a job for board and lodging. Yours only.—Louise.

RECIPE TO STOP DANDRUFF

This Home-Made Mixture Stops Dandruff and Falling Hair and Aids Its Growth.

Bay Rum.....1 oz.
Barbo Compound.....a small box
Glycerine.....¼ oz.

These are all simple ingredients that you can buy from any druggist at very little cost, and mix them yourself. Apply to the scalp once a day for two weeks, then once every other week until all the mixture is used. A half pint should be enough to rid the head of dandruff and kill the dandruff germs. It stops the hair from falling out, relieves itching and scalp diseases.

Although it is not a dye, it acts upon the hair roots and will darken streaked, faded, gray hair in ten or fifteen days. It promotes the growth of the hair and makes harsh hair soft and glossy.—Advt.

BUTTER AND EGGS IN PRICE SEE-SAW

One Goes Up as Other Goes Down, While Cheees Maintains Balance.

The most conspicuous factor in the fruit market of late is the slow sale of apples, which, with the exception of Oregon Spitzenbergs, have consequently weakened in price. The latter, due to scarcity, have brought from $1.60 to $1.75 per box.

Yesterday afternoon and this morning the first green onions came in, selling at $1 per lug box. Fresh arrivals of asparagus brought 25 cents a pound for No. 1 and 20 cents a pound for No. 2 stock. The lettuce available was of two grades also. Much of it was badly affected by water that had seeped in and this was offered at $1 to $1.25 a crate.

Fancy head lettuce brought the better range of $1.25 to $1.50 per crate.

All tomatoes but a remnant of Mexican variety in small boxes, had cleaned up, but other arrivals were looked for.

Sweet potatoes climbed to a much higher rate of $2.25 to $2.50 per hundred pounds, but demand was weak.

QUOTATIONS.

Butter went up and eggs went down today, leaving cheese the only motionless word on the quotation list of dairy products. One and one-half cents rise made the price of butter 30½c per pound. Fancy eggs sold at 21½c—a 1-cent drop—and pullets slid down half a cent to 20 cents per dozen.

The following are the quotations established this morning on the floor of the San Francisco Dairy Exchange. The regular jobbing prices are generally 3c per lb on each square of butter, and 2c per dozen on eggs over these prices:

Per dozen: Old ducks, $4@6; young ducks, $6@8; young Pekin ducks, $7@8; old pigeons, $1.50@1.80; squabs, $2@3; geese, $2.50@3 per pair.

Rabbits—Per pound: Belgian hare, ——.

Game—Per dozen: Hare, $2@2.50; cottontail, $2.50@3; gray geese, $4@5; brant, $2.50@3.50.

REPORTS FROM EGG MARKETS.

PETALUMA, Feb. 24.—Extra ranch eggs dropped two cents in price in this city yesterday, and the best offering was 21½c. The drop was unexpected. There was a heavy delivery of the prime stock, and the dealers bought freely. The price of select pullet eggs dropped to 18 cents, and there was a fair delivery of this grade. The poultry prices changed and the delivery was light. Feed prices remained unchanged.

STOCKTON, Feb. 24.—Ranch eggs declined two cents yesterday on the local produce market, firsts selling for 20 cents and seconds and pullets 18 cents per dozen. Ranch butter remained firm at 30c and 22½c per lb.

GRAIN

CHICAGO, Feb. 24.—Wheat made a lively upturn today, influenced by the comparative strength of quotations at Liverpool and by reduced estimates on the exportable surplus in Argentina. Opening prices, which varied from 1½c to 2½c higher, were followed by further gains, but then a moderate setback.

Afterward, the replacing of lines that were thrown overboard yesterday tended to bring about a fresh ascent in wheat. The close was firm at 2¾@2⅞c to 3c net advance. Many traders acted later on belief that selling of corn yesterday had been overdone. The close was unsettled at ⅞c to 1c to 1¼c net higher.

Lightness of offerings helped to bring about a sharp advance in corn. After starting a shade to 1⅜@1⅝c higher, the market went up an additional fraction.

Oats climbed with other grains. Selling was slight in volume until prices had a substantial bulge.

Rye—No. 2, $1.22; barley, 72@82c; timothy, $5.50@6.50; clover, $10.50@14.

Corn—May, 74⅛c; July, 76⅛c.

Oats—May, 57⅜c; July, 54⅜c.

Pork—May, $17.70; July, $18.10.

Lard—May, $10.45; July, $10.62.

Ribs—May, $9.90; July, $10.30.

SAN FRANCISCO GRAIN MARKET

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 24.—Barley—December, $1.48, $1.50 asked; May, $1.44¼ bid, $1.45 asked; cash feed, $1.47½@1.52½.

PORTLAND GRAIN MARKET

DESTROYER'S PROPELLER DRAWS TWO TO DEATH

By Associated Press.

SAN DIEGO, Feb. 24.—Two sailors believed to have been Robert Schwab and Ralph Cottener of the destroyer Whipple, were drowned this morning when the small boat in which they were seated was capsized by the destroyer's propeller. The bodies were sucked underneath the boat and were with difficulty recovered. The destroyer was mooring to the coaling dock at the time.

FACTORY CENSUS EXPERT READY TO START WORK

Charles S. Sloane, who recently came from Washington, D. C., to direct the census taking of the manufacturers for the Bureau of Census of the United States Department of Commerce, called at the Oakland Chamber of Commerce-Commercial Club Consolidated today and outlined the preliminary activities of his department.

"Blanks," he said, "have been mailed to every manufacturing firm in Alameda county, on which information required by the bureau is provided for, and I am going to urge them all to fill out and return the forms at once. Our plan is to get the census taken in record time and in order to do this we must have the cooperation of the manufacturers."

Sloane also wished to get a list of the new factories which located here in the past year, and was supplied with a list of 62. Resolutions have been passed and indorsed by the members of the Oakland Chamber of Commerce-Commercial Club Consolidated asking all the manufacturers to comply in all respects with the wishes of Sloane.

W. S. COX FILES HIS CANDIDACY, DECLARATION

William S. Cox, an attorney and former secretary of the civil service board of Oakland, filed his declaration of candidacy for Commissioner No. 2. Cox takes the position that while the present tax rate is justified by the fact that the public parks, playgrounds, schools and public buildings have all had to be provided within a few years, it is now time to call a halt, and that the normal course would be a reduction in the rate for the coming fiscal year.

WHY HAIR FALLS OUT

Dandruff causes a feverish irritation of the scalp, the hair roots shrink, loosen and then the hair comes out fast. To stop falling hair at once and rid the scalp of every particle of dandruff, get a 25-cent bottle of Danderine at any drug store, pour a little in your hand and rub well into the scalp. After a few applications all dandruff disappears and the hair stops coming out.—Advt.

"DADDY LONG-LEGS" WILL HAVE SPECIAL MATINEE

So great is the demand for seats at the Macdonough for "Daddy Long-Legs," Henry Miller, the eminent star who is appearing in the title role, has condescended to miss seeing the world's fair for the fifth time in order to give a special extra matinee at 2:30 p. m. Friday, February 26. This will bring the total number of performances of "Daddy Long-Legs" in Oakland at the Macdonough up to ten, one every night this week and three matinees on Wednesday, Saturday and the one just arranged on Friday afternoon. Mr. Miller had planned to visit the fair for the fifth time Friday afternoon, but was prevailed upon to give the extra performance so as not to disappoint the hundreds who are clamoring for admission.

Mr. Miller is an enthusiastic booster of the fair and Oakland. "Never before have I had the pleasure of witnessing such a splendid spectacle as the Panama-Pacific Exposition. Not in all my travels, and I have traveled in every part of the world, have I been so impressed as I have been by the thousand wonders of the exposition. It is truly the eighth wonder of the world. The good it will do you people of Oakland cannot be fully appreciated now. It should bring hundreds of new residents to your city, who will no doubt settle here forever. Personally, I don't think that they could find a better place to settle." Thus spoke the famous star to a reporter in conversation at the Hotel Oakland this morning.

FOUR MEET DEATH IN EAST ST. LOUIS FIRE

MERCHANTS HOLD BIG CELEBRATION

Twentieth Anniversary of Exchange's Founding Observed.

Harking back to the night, twenty years ago, when a handful of pioneer Oakland business men gathered to form the organization that now occupies one of the high places in Oakland's business life, the Merchants' Exchange last night held its anniversary celebration in the newly equipped headquarters of the body on Twelfth street. Pioneer directors and founders of the organization, including Mayor Frank K. Mott, who, it is declared, was the real founder of the exchange, were present. Stories of old times and plans for the future were the topics of informal addresses, and an impromptu musical and vaudeville program followed.

Pioneers in Oakland's commercial life were present in force at the reunion of the boosters. C. W. Hunt, George L. Fish, W. V. Witcher, now of Stockton, former Mayor Mott, S. Samuels, Fred Becker, Walter Meese, Fred Sinclair, Webb N. Pearce, Fred Kahn, George Hoffmann, Fred Farwell and John Davie were among the former directors who were the honored guests at the celebration.

A feature of the festivities was the presentation to the exchange of a bust of George Washington, the gift of former Director George Hoffmann. E. A. Sherman Jr., son of Major E. A. Sherman, the Grand Army leader, and noted soldier in the civil war, made the presentation speech.

"It is fitting and proper," he declared, "that we should have an organization composed exclusively of the merchants and devoted to the merchants in this city. I remember with considerable pride my part in its formation, when I had Mr. Fish and Mr. Cushing here, and a few others, get together and form this body. We were dissatisfied at that time with Oakland's prospects. When we consider the achievements that have been ours since, we may well be proud. The exchange has done much for the city, and will do much more in the days to come."

George Fish spoke of the early days of Oakland and the exchange. He told of its formation and growth, and Samuels added further details in the many reminiscences of the past.

A vaudeville program of an informal nature followed. Mrs. Leon Kowalsky sang several songs. Assemblyman George Gelder posed as a German comedian for the nonce. Fred Button was heard in a monologue and W. H. Graham told stories.

FORMER OAKLANDER KILLED IN TEXAS

Maurice Rosenberg Murdered Near El Paso: Suspect Is Sought.

Maurice Rosenberg, formerly a junk merchant in Oakland, who went to El Paso a year ago with his young wife to engage in business along the border, was found brutally murdered last night near the Indian village of Ysleta, twelve miles from El Paso. His body was discovered by workmen in an irrigation ditch.

From the condition of the body it was evident that Rosenberg had been the victim of robbers, as his money, watch and diamond rings were missing. His head had been beaten with a heavy club and then the body was thrown into the ditch, where it was partly covered.

Rosenberg left his place of business in El Paso Thursday to transact some business and when he failed to return home in due time his family caused a search to be made for him on both sides of the Rio Grande.

Workmen who reported the finding of the body also stated that they had seen a man the day before driving away from the vicinity of the place where the body was found. He had, they said, stopped at the ditch and washed his hands, which were covered with blood, explaining to those who saw him that he had accidentally cut his wrist. The authorities have been furnished a good description of the supposed murderer and if he is taken into custody will be easily identified. Rosenberg is believed to have had a large sum of money on his person when he left El Paso.

ESCAPED LUNATICS ARE SOUGHT BY OFFICERS

MARTINEZ, Feb. 24. — Terrorizing farmers about the county who, behind locked doors, are guarding their ranches, three escaped lunatics from the county infirmary are playing hide-and-seek in the hills with a sheriff's posse, obtaining food from farm houses and so far successfully eluding capture.

The three men are Walter C. Dickerson, William Ross and John Antoli, the latter being the man captured some time ago in Richmond after he had been shot by a constable.

Investigation showed that they had all escaped from the hospital in the same way, and that they had been furnished with an iron bar by John Lowry; he has been placed in the county jail, where he will be examined as to his sanity.

Ross, one of the escaped lunatics, is the man who entered the home of Rev. D. W. Calfee in Richmond, declaring that he was the second Christ. Antoli was found wandering through a house at Crockett, and shot in his attempts to escape.

VARIOUS BURGLARIES REPORTED TO POLICE

H. J. Brands, 3424 Lockley avenue, summoned the police to his home last night after he had seen a burglar in the house. The police found footprints under the window, but they were very small in size, and it is thought they were made by a boy.

L. A. Weaver, 412 Tenth street, reported to the police that some one entered his home through the window of his bedroom and stole a suit of clothes and other articles of value.

Mrs. E. Potter, 860 Twenty-ninth street, reported the theft of jewelry from her home.

J. Lundgren, 482 Ninth street, reported to the police that his saloon was broken into during the night and $30 stolen from the cash register.

C. Thomas, 827 Third street, reported the theft of a revolver from his home.

TO REPORT FIGHT ON TUBERCULOSIS

Alameda County Society Will Hold Annual Election and Banquet.

The Alameda County Society for the Study and Prevention of Tuberculosis will hold its annual election and banquet tomorrow evening at Hotel Oakland. Reports of the work done for the past year will be taken up as well as plans for the coming year. The principal speaker will be Miss E. L. M. Tate, secretary of the state association, and Dr. W. P. Lucas of the University of California hospital staff of San Francisco.

Miss Tate will tell of the work done for the tubercular sufferers in other states and also of the campaign being waged in California to secure state aid for tuberculosis wards in county hospitals. Dr. Lucas will speak particularly of the treatment of children afflicted with the white plague and of preventative work done among children of tubercular parents.

Dr. Edward von Adelung will speak on clinical work of the Alameda county society. Fred B. Taylor, treasurer of the county society, will render his annual report, and T. C. Cuvellier, secretary, will report on the activities of the society for the past twelve months and make recommendations as to what work should be carried on during the coming year.

During the year 1914 there were 3221 treatments administered to tuberculous men, women and children and all necessary medicine furnished free of charge. During the same year the Alameda county society treated many patients in their homes, provided out-of-door sleeping quarters for 42, placed 51 patients in public and private sanitariums, sent 17 outside the county to places where they could be cared for, sent 31 children to the country for vacations and lectured to audiences aggregating 4100 people on the prevention of tuberculosis. The educational exhibit along the same lines as the lecture, which was displayed in various communities, was visited by 4500 people.

Plans are also being made for holding a "grandmothers' ball" at the Hotel Oakland on the evening of April 10, for the benefit of the society. At this ball only costumes will be worn which are made from materials at the homes of the guests, preferably of fifty years ago.

THREAT TO KILL WILSON; PUNISHED

Letter Writer Is Sentenced; Senate Passes Stringent Measure.

By Associated Press.

GREENSBURG, Pa., Feb. 24.—Frank Grandovec of Greensburg entered a plea of guilty in the criminal court here yesterday to a charge of having written a letter to President Wilson threatening death. He was sentenced to serve not less than one year and not more than three years in the penitentiary.

Grandovec's letter, which was signed "Anarchist," blamed the President because the writer was out of employment. Grandovec said he wrote the letter thinking anarchists would be deported, as he wanted free transportation to his old home in Austria.

IS PENROSE MENACED?

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 24.—A provision making it a crime punishable by not more than three years' imprisonment to mail a letter or other missive threatening the President or any official entitled to succeed to the presidency, was incorporated into the postoffice appropriation bill yesterday by the Senate.

Senator Penrose obtained permission to change the amendment today to include Senators.

The provision in the bill making promotions for carriers and clerks biennial instead of annual was stricken out upon the request of Chairman Bankhead. Amendments to create a rural credits system out of postal bank funds and to appropriate $500,000 for good roads were rejected on points of order.

ICE CREAM MAKERS SEEKING CONVENTION

The Oakland branch of the California Association of Ice Cream Manufacturers has been active in securing the annual convention of the National Ice Cream Manufacturers' Association for this section of the state. The national convention will be held here next October and plans for the reception of the delegates were made at a meeting of the California Association yesterday. The question of legislation affecting the industry was also discussed. The following directors of the association were present: L. J. Christopher, Los Angeles, president; L. W. Wilson, Fresno, secretary and treasurer; S. A. W. Carver, Los Angeles; H. S. Baird of the State Dairy Farm at Davis; C. J. Cowing and W. T. Vahlberg, Oakland; Frank H. Ames, San Francisco, and William Trent of Sacramento.

SIX VOTES ARE CAST: ELECTION COSTS $1600

By Associated Press.

EAST ST. LOUIS, Ill., Feb. 24.—A total of six votes was cast here yesterday in a municipal primary election which cost the city $1600. Five Republicans and one Economy party votes comprised the election returns. Mayor Chamberlain was nominated for re-election by a total of two votes. Four other candidates received one vote each.

Municipal officers pointed out this apparent waste of money was due to an Illinois state law that calls for a municipal primary election, but permits new political parties to select candidates by petition. The leading parties here taking advantage of the latter provision have long made it a practice to change the party names before an election. Candidates for the next election therefore will be named by petition in due time.

FACING DEPORTATION, MAN TAKES OWN LIFE

By Associated Press.

NEW YORK, Feb. 24.—After the board of inquiry at Ellis Island had decided that Carl C. Morgansen must be deported for "admitting an act of moral turpitude" Morgansen stepped into a room adjoining the board room and shot himself, dying instantly.

Morgensen was wanted in Copenhagen on a charge of taking a bond of $10,000 crown ($2700) from the Danish National Bank, where he was employed. Morgensen denied this but said that on a former occasion he had taken another bond and later returned it to the bank. The admission led to the deportation order.

CHARGES HER HOST WITH ASSAULT

Mrs. J. D. Stoneking, Disheveled, Rushes Into Police Station; Accuses P. W. Metcalf.

Hysterically relating the story of an alleged attack upon her person during a quiet little dinner for two in the home of Perton W. Metcalf, a wealthy resident of San Jose, Mrs. J. D. Stoneking, a well-known Los Gatos woman, rushed into the Central police station at the Garden City, half clad and disheveled in appearance.

Metcalf, who has relatives in Oakland, owns a beautiful home in Naglee Park. According to the story of Mrs. Stoneking, her husband is in Taft and she had been invited to Metcalf's home for dinner. Upon arriving there she said that she discovered herself to be the only guest and a sumptuous repast set for two. There was plenty of liquor, she further declared, and it was some time after the meal that she was forced to feign death in order to escape from the place.

Mrs. Stoneking complained to the police that she had fled, leaving her money, handbag and jewelry, also most of her wraps, behind and she appealed to them to recover the articles. Detectives visited the Metcalf home and at first were refused admission, but they forced their way past the door and found, it is said, things as had been described by Mrs. Stoneking. They were threatened with civil suit for forceful entrance, they later reported.

Metcalf is one of the wealthiest and best-known residents of San Jose. During recent years he has been much in the limelight through automobile accidents. Following the episode of last night Metcalf refused to make any statement other than that his wife is in San Francisco taking in the Exposition. Mrs. Stoneking, beyond stating that her husband was in Taft, refused to say whether or not they had separated.

EMBASSIES INQUIRE ABOUT MEXICAN POLICY

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 24.—From several of the European embassies here inquiries are being directed to the State Department regarding conditions in Mexico and the present purposes of the United States. The response so far indicates that the Washington Government does not contemplate any departure from its policy of non-interference in Mexico. The State Department has listened sympathetically to the complaint of mistreatment of foreigners, including priests, by Carranza forces, but it has not felt justified in going further than instructing Consul Silliman to point out to Carranza and General Obregon the impropriety and unwisdom of their action, and it has informed inquiring powers that nothing more is to be done.

In addition to the Spanish priests, today's dispatches said, some French and Italians also were held.

BRYAN WEARS PEACE DOVE.

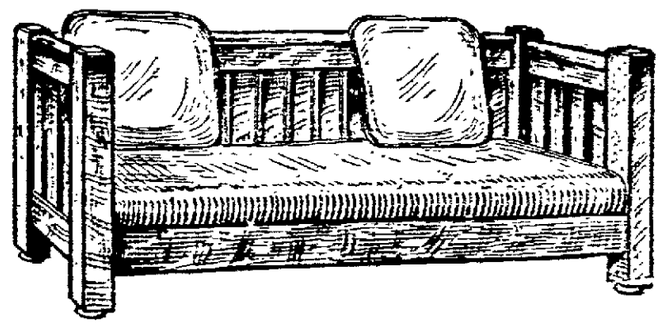

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 24.—Secretary Bryan appeared at the cabinet meeting yesterday wearing on his coat lapel an enamel white dove of peace with an olive branch in its mouth. The secretary said it was a gift of a friend and pointed to it when questioned concerning possible complications for the United States in the foreign situation.

BIG MINSTREL SHOW PLANNED BY NATIVES

A regular old-time minstrel show will be presented at Lakeside hall, Sixth avenue and East Twelfth street, on Friday evening, February 26, by the talented members of Brooklyn Parlor, Native Sons of the Golden West. The Brooklynites will blacken their faces for the occasion and don respendent minstrel regalia.

Dr. F. S. Lewin will act as interlocutor, while Louis Pierotti, W. J. DeBlois, F. C. Merritt, L. J. Hicks, Francis Sandy and C. K. Townsend will serve as endmen. A large and well-trained chorus, augmented by the Brooklyn quartet, will sing the very latest in musical comedy hits. For weeks the wits of the parlor have been working on jokes and funny dialogues.

Following the minstrel first part will come an olio of specialities by the members of the parlor and talented young women, after which a dance will be held.

REBATE IS VERDICT.

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 24.—The D. R. Wilder Company of Atlanta yesterday lost a suit in the Supreme Court to prevent the Corn Products Company from collecting from it for a consignment of glucose, on the plea that the sale contract was in furtherance of a monopoly. The contract contained a "rebate" provision for exclusive business.

VESSEL IN DISTRESS; STORM BALKS RESCUE

By Associated Press.

NEW YORK, Feb. 24.—Captain Waun of the steamer Parphalyes, which arrived at quarantine here today from Swansea, Wales, reported that on Sunday last, February 21, he spoke to the steamship Florence Pile, bound from Norfolk for Queenstown with a cargo of grain, about 400 miles east-southeast of New York in need of assistance. The vessel had a heavy list to port and the rudder was slamming about violently. Owing to a heavy sea it was impossible to send a boat alongside the distressed vessel and the Parphalyes could give no aid, Captain Waun said. He decided to proceed here with all speed and cause assistance to be sent.

Captain Pearn of the Pile signalled that one of the steamer's crew had been lost overboard and that another had both legs broken and needed medical assistance immediately.

RAILROADS WIN POINT.

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 24.—Right of railways and express companies to limit liability for shipments to the value stated in bills of lading was held yesterday by the Supreme Court to extend to shipments where the companies have knowledge of gross undervaluation, as well as to other cases where knowledge was lacking.

STUART, Fla., Feb. 24.—Three men entered the Bank of Stuart yesterday, held up the cashier and obtained approximately $4000. Posses are now in pursuit of the bandits.

To Grow Hair on A Bald Head

BY A SPECIALIST.

Thousands of people suffer from baldness and falling hair who, having tried nearly every advertised hair-tonic and hair-grower without results, have resigned themselves to baldness and its attendant discomfort. Yet their case is not hopeless; the following simple home prescription has made hair grow after years of baldness, and is also unequalled for restoring gray hair to its original color, stopping hair from falling out and destroying the dandruff germ. It will not make the hair greasy, and can be put up by any druggist: Bay Rum, 6 ounces; Lavona de Compagnie, 2 ounces; Menthol Crystals, one-half drachm. If you wish it perfumed add 1 drachm of your favorite perfume. This preparation is highly recommended by physicians and specialists, and is absolutely harmless, as it contains none of the poisonous wood alcohol so frequently found in hair tonics.—Advt.

SEAMEN'S BILL REPORTS COME BEFORE CONGRESS

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 24.—Formal reports of conferences on the long-disputed seaman's bill to abolish arrest and imprisonment as a penalty for desertion and to promote safety at sea was submitted to Congress late yesterday. Its proponents will urge adoption of the report in both houses and believe their efforts extending over a period of two years will be rewarded before March 4.

The bill would direct the President to transmit treaty arrangements providing for the arrest of officers and seamen charged with desertion from merchant vessels of the United States in foreign countries and from merchant vessels of foreign countries in the United States.

LIQUOR LAW MODIFIED.

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 24.—The Tennessee law of 1909 imposing a $500 license tax on wholesale liquor dealers, was held yesterday by the Supreme Court not to apply to wholesale dealers engaged exclusively in selling liquor to residents of other States. The decision reversed a Tennessee Supreme Court ruling in the case of Paul Heyman and others.
